Disclaimer: No guarantee whatsoever is made to anyone by Church Universal and Triumphant, The Summit Lighthouse, Summit University Press, Mark L. Prophet, Elizabeth Clare Prophet, or the ascended masters that the spiritual system of the Science of the Spoken Word, including meditation, visualization, dynamic decrees, and spiritual healing will yield successful results for anyone at any time. The functioning of cosmic law is a direct experience between the individual and his own higher consciousness. As in Jesus' time, some were healed and some were not—according to their faith or lack of it. Karma and the Divine Providence must be the final arbiter of each one's application of the sacred fire. We can only witness to our personal healing—body, mind, and soul—through the use of the suggested mantras and spiritual disciplines. Each man may prove or disprove the Law for himself. The practice and proof of the Science of Being rests with the individual. No one can do it for another. These spiritual practices can facilitate healing but are not intended as substitutes for following basic dietary laws, healthy living and proper medical diagnosis and treatment.

To the Children of the One
the Lost Word—for the Restoration of your Birthright

The Word

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by Him; and without Him was not any thing made that was made.

In Him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

That was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

As many as received Him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: I AM THAT I AM, which were born of God.

And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father), full of grace and truth.

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands. Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves....

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him and bless his name.

"Make a Joyful Noise unto the LORD!"

by the Messengers

To thousands of devotees of God's light the world around, decreeing has become a "joyful noise unto the LORD." During the past decade, those who have sought the true teachings of the Word of God have found the science of decreeing to be one of the most effective forms of meditation—a meditation that is majestically fulfilled through the power of the spoken Word.

In this book we present the teachings of the ascended masters of the Great White Brotherhood[1] who have instructed their disciples in the lost art of invocation which was practiced on Atlantis and Lemuria. More than twelve thousand years ago in the temples of these lost continents, priests and priestesses of the sacred fire made invocation to the flame of life, applying the principles of the Science of the Spoken Word.

This science, which has been practiced for many centuries by adepts in the Far East and by Western mystics as well, outlines the uses of the voice in conjunction with the throat chakra in the giving of mantras, chants, prayers, invocations, affirmations, songs of joy and praise, and fiats of light to increase the action of benign forces on the planetary body and in the world of individual man.

The ascended masters who are releasing their teachings to their disciples throughout the world in this age of Aquarius's dawning are God-free beings whose souls have reunited with the Spirit of God that is known as the I AM Presence. In all ages there have been those among mankind who have made the ritual of the divine reunion their goal in life. To that end they have applied to the Master Alchemist, Almighty God himself, to transmute the limitations of time and space and to take dominion over the planes of earth.

For them the quest for self-knowledge has been an all-consuming passion. Surmounting every obstacle, they have charted the course of Truth. Through the shadowed valleys and over the rugged peaks of life, they have gone forth to conquer the illusions of the lesser self. And by their overcoming, they have left an irrefutable statement of the potential of man to fulfill his cosmic destiny. Beholding their triumph, we affirm, "What man has done, man can do."

Following the path that the great avatars have walked, they have proved the laws, the mathematics, the formulas, and the principles that as causation undergird the world of effects in which we live. They have fulfilled a mission of Christhood, and they have won thereby their immortal freedom.

Because they have mastered time and space by applying the same laws which Jesus and others have proved, they are called masters. Because they have ascended into the Presence of God as Jesus did when "he was taken up and a cloud received him out of their sight,"[2] they are referred to as ascended masters. The "cloud" into which they have all ascended is the mystical Presence of the I AM which Moses beheld in the bush that burned but was not consumed and who identified himself as the "I AM that I AM."[3]

These masters are the saints and sages of all ages—the priest-kings, the prophet-seers, the scientist-philosophers—who have risen from every walk of life and from every continent. Included in their ranks are Gautama Buddha, Lord Maitreya, Kuan Yin, Confucius, El Morya, Kuthumi, Djwal Kul, and others from the Far East. In the West we have seen Elijah, Elisha, Enoch, Moses, Zarathustra, Jesus the Christ, Mary the Mother, John the Beloved, Saint Francis of Assisi, Joan of Arc, Saint Thérèse, and Saint Germain, not to mention that modern saint and soul of valor Pope John XXIII and countless unnamed devotees who have graduated from earth's schoolroom with honors.

We who look forward to our own matriculation have a great opportunity today to walk in the footsteps of those who have already overcome the world. To those who would follow him in the Way, Jesus gave words of comfort, and hope for their own ultimate reunion with God. These words are the promise of every master of the Great White Brotherhood to his disciples, for the law of hierarchy is the law of evolution whereby the lesser is always destined to become the greater.

"Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."[4] Rejoice! Because I have overcome the world, you, too, can overcome by demonstrating the same laws which I have demonstrated.

"He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do, because I go unto my Father."[5] If you believe in the potential of the Christ within me whereby I have worked the works of God on earth, then you can work those same works by the action of your own Christ-potential. Because I have become one with the Source of all life in the ritual of the ascension, because I have ascended "to my God and your God," [6] you can do even greater works, for I will multiply the momentum of your victorious overcoming by the full power of my own.

"Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."[7] Because the Father, the Source of life, is perfect and we have become one with the Father by applying the perfection of his laws, you, too, can be perfected in that same oneness if you will but make the mark of perfection your goal.

Thus the ascended masters are the true teachers of mankind who stand waiting at the portal of consciousness to instruct each seeker on the Path who is sincere. Their appearance in this age is the fulfillment of the LORD's prophecy given to Isaiah "Yet shall not thy teachers be moved into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers."[8]

It has been said, "When the pupil is ready, the teacher appears." You who read this book may discover that you are the pupil and that you have made yourself ready at this point in your evolution to enter into a direct relationship with one or more of the ascended masters as their disciple on the homeward way.

By carefully following the steps of initiation which they have outlined for the path of self-mastery, you can overcome the world and work the works of the Christ on earth. You can approximate perfection not only because perfection is an attainable goal, but because it is the only valid goal in the universe. We know this to be cosmic law, because the masters who have gone before us have not only affirmed it, but they have proven it by their example.

One of the most important and vital techniques of self-mastery taught by the Brotherhood is the science of invocation, which includes the art of decreeing. By employing this method of expanding consciousness which is thoroughly explained in this book, you can bring yourself into closer proximity with the flame of life that is within your own being and ultimately experience the baptism of the sacred fire foretold by John the Baptist when he spoke of the coming Christ, "He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire."[9]

All of the writings of the masters set forth in this book, including the "Heart, Head, and Hand Decrees," were delivered by the hierarchy of ascended masters to Mark and Elizabeth Prophet, who, as messengers for the Great White Brotherhood, have released the higher teaching to the world for many decades.

Under the direction of the Ascended Master El Morya, Chief of the Darjeeling Council of the Great White Brotherhood, Mark L. Prophet founded The Summit Lighthouse in 1958 in Washington, D.C., for the purpose of publishing and disseminating the message of the ascended masters. Elizabeth was called by El Morya to support him in the mission in 1961. Together they have conducted classes and conferences throughout the United States and the world, journeying to Europe, the Middle and Far East, Africa, and South America with disciples of the masters, teaching and lecturing along the way.

Numerous volumes have been dictated to the messengers by members of the Brotherhood, including Pearls of Wisdom, which are weekly letters from the masters to their chelas throughout the world, Keepers of the Flame Lessons, containing graded instruction in cosmic law for members of the Keepers of the Flame Fraternity, and the Climb the Highest Mountain series, nine volumes published as the Everlasting Gospel representing the culmination of the Prophets' twelve-year mission together on earth.

On February 26, 1973, Mark L. Prophet took leave of this plane, as he prophesied he would, and made his ascension to become a member of the brotherhood of ascended masters serving the earth during this period of world change. Elizabeth remains in embodiment holding the office of Mother of the Flame on behalf of mankind and holding the spiritual focus for The Summit Lighthouse and Church Universal and Triumphant, whose international headquarters are located in Corwin Springs, Montana.

Thus the two witnesses of the Word of God, anointed to deliver to the age the wisdom of the masters, are making available to all who will hear the true knowledge of the Christ which Jesus gave to the inner circle of devotees who often gathered in the Upper Room both before and after his resurrection. The compendium of cosmic law released to them, including techniques of self-mastery which have been taught heretofore only in the retreats of the Brotherhood, will provide every man and woman with the understanding of his own Christ Self, his own I AM Presence, and his status as a God-free being in this his own native universe.

The revelations given to the Prophets are the fulfillment of the prophecy of Jeremiah concerning the covenant which the LORD promised he would make with the house of Israel: "After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts, and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more."[10]

The writing on the ancient temple wall "Man, know thyself" is a recurrent challenge to every soul. Regardless of race, creed, religion, nation, or caste into which he was born, every soul, if he would be free from the bondage of self, must one day accept the challenge to know himself as he really is—a manifestation of dynamic love, a cell in the body of God.

It is the supreme desire of the Godhead to give to you, because you are a facet of his own evolving consciousness, the key to self-knowledge that will enable you to unlock the full potential of your Christed being. This key that will release the energy, the intelligence, and the motivation of your own self-mastery is the call that compels the answer.

To unlock the energies of your Real Self, then, is the goal of effective decreeing. You will never know until you try just how much of God's light you can actually draw forth into manifestation in the world of form.

If you are open-minded, honest, and impartial, willing to experiment with the science of invocation as a hypothesis of cosmic law, then enter the laboratory of the Spirit and follow the instructions of the masters. For only by so doing will you ever prove to your own satisfaction that decrees do work. Truly, you will never know until you try.

Peace be unto you as you pursue the glorious fulfillment of the power, wisdom, and love of the spoken Word.

"Make a joyful noise unto the LORD!"

AUM

The sacred word AUM releases the frequency of the Word, the same Word that went forth as the origin of creation. The ancients knew the power of the word. Civilizations have risen and fallen in the power of the spoken word. The mantras of the East, sacred intonations, have come down for hundreds of thousands of years from priests and priestesses of Lemuria. And all that comes forth comes out of the sacred AUM.

We follow the ray of the sun back to the fiery core. We follow the light within the heart back to the sun of the Presence. When we affirm the word AUM, we affirm true being. To affirm that being is to become that being. To declare that being is to know who I AM. The sacred AUM that we intone is the indestructible sound. It is the immensity. Out of the AUM comes our oneness.

The sound of the Word—the Word of the sound. It is a Sanskrit word. It means "I bow, I agree, I accept ..." AUM! I bow before the LORD God Almighty and I agree that I am his beloved son. I accept my immortal destiny. I accept my reason for being. I accept my responsibility to be. AUM. I accept the components of my reality. I accept the flame as God within me.

AUM is the most abstract and yet the most concrete symbol of divinity. It is an instrument of self-realization. It is yours to keep. It is released from your heart by the breath of God. No mechanical instrument, no machine, not the might of civilization, can equal the AUM. Only you can intone the AUM, because you are God in manifestation. Out of this one eternal syllable all that exists comes forth. All that comes forth returns to the AUM.

The AUM is spelled A-U-M, and each of the letters stands for a component of our divinity. Each letter is intended to be sounded separately. When we blend the trinity, we intone simply the AUM.

Past, present, and future form the Trinity. We are all that we are as past, as present, as future realization of the AUM. In the East, the Hindus refer to the Trinity as Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva; and in the West—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The concept is the same.

The A comes forth from Alpha (our Father)—as the initiator, the creator, The Beginning—the origin of spirals of consciousness, of being. It is the thrust of power. The M is the OM of Omega (our Mother), the conclusion, The Ending—one with the Holy Spirit as the integrator and the disintegrator of form and formlessness. AUM. Thus, the positive and negative polarities of being are pronounced by Elohim across the span of cosmos for the sustainment of the worlds.

From the A to the OM, all of the vastness of creation is contained. And the U in the center is the cup of creation cradling You, the Real Self, the Anointed One, the Christed One, the Buddha of the Light—you in universal manifestation, in particular manifestation. A-U-M. The Trinity in Unity. You, the centerpiece—the masterpiece—the unity of the One and the Word, the fulcrum and the nexus. The universal Christ is the power of preservation, of concentration, of cohesion as identity. From the thrust of the Father to the return of the Mother, you are embraced as the identity of their love. AUM.

I AM THAT I AM

Thousands of years ago, the initiation of this action of the law of the AUM was given to Moses, and we still hold that sacred fire and that legacy as when Moses saw the white-fire core of his own being objectified in the bush that was aflame but was not consumed. And the voice out of the bush declared Self-awareness—being that proceeded from the fiery core and declared our God-identity, "I AM WHO I AM."

Let us think of ourselves in that barren country where Moses was. In the name of the I AM THAT I AM, let us travel back in akasha, in the records of time and space written upon the ethers, and let us stand upon that holy ground where Moses stood.

Let us hear with the hearing of the inner ear the eternal sound of the Creator: I AM THAT I AM. Let each one commune within the chamber of the heart to hear the voice of God speaking. And now let us give answer unto the Lord of Creation, the law of creation, within our hearts: I AM THAT I AM.

When we speak our mantras from the heart and we feel the flow of the intensity of the sacred fire of the heart and we commune one to another in the response of love, we feel the mounting of the flame that is our common light, our one light.

The ascended masters of the Great White Brotherhood teach their chelas to go within to the fiery core, to dip into the fountain of light with the sacred AUM, to tarry there as Jesus did when he withdrew from the multitudes and went to a place set apart. And they teach us to come forth in the name of God—by that name "I AM THAT I AM." Therefore, the cycle of the AUM and the I AM THAT I AM which we chant gives the alternating current of going within to the Father, coming out with the Mother.

This fiat of being is the name of God. And more than a name, it contains the energy of creation. The first I AM stands for the letter A in the AUM. It is God as Alpha declaring, "I AM." The THAT stands for the U, the transition, the passing of energy unto Omega in the second I AM—the Trinity again expressed.

It is God on high declaring, "I AM THAT I AM. I AM that manifestation below which I AM above. As above so below, I AM that I am." It is God above in the person of the beloved "I AM" Presence affirming that as in heaven, so on earth God is the flame burning on the altar of our hearts.

When we say, "I AM THAT I AM," the I who is speaking is not the lesser self but the Greater Self. God within us is saying, "I AM THAT I AM." For who but God within has the authority to declare being, consciousness, Self-awareness?

Can the clay speak? Can the vessel dance without the flame? Can the leopard change his spots? Can the outer form be anything but the instrument of the inner flame? Only God can make a tree, as the poet said. Only God can create and uncreate the worlds.

Let us let Him speak through us, "I AM THAT I AM." Let us let him pronounce his sacred name. And when he does we shall answer him saying, "Yea, LORD, I am that 'I AM.'"

Definitions of the Spoken Word

the Prayer:

a devout petition to, or any form of spiritual communion with, God or an object of worship; a spiritual communion with God or an object of worship, as in supplication, thanksgiving, adoration, or confession; a formula or sequence of words used in or appointed for praying: the Lord's Prayer; a petition, entreaty.

the Invocation:

the act of invoking or calling upon a deity, spirit, etc., for aid, protection, inspiration, or the like; supplication; any petitioning or supplication for help or aid; a form of prayer invoking God's presence, said especially at the beginning of a public ceremony; a call to God or to beings who have become one with God to release power, wisdom, and love to mankind or to intercede in their behalf; supplication for the flow of light, energy, peace, and harmony to come into manifestation on earth as it is in heaven.

the Mantra:

a mystical formula or invocation; a word or formula, often in Sanskrit, to be recited or sung for the purpose of intensifying the action of the Spirit of God in man.

the Chant:

a short, simple melody, especially one characterized by single notes to which an indefinite number of syllables are intoned, used in singing the psalms, canticles, etc., in the church service. In both East and West, the name of God is chanted over and over again in the ritual of atonement where by the soul of man becomes one with the Spirit of God by intonation of the sound of His name. This is given in Sanskrit as AUM or AUM TAT SAT AUM and in English as I AM THAT I AM.

By sounding the name of God or that of a member of the heavenly hosts, the vibration of the being is simulated and thereby Being itself is drawn to the one chanting. Therefore chants, when properly used, magnetize the Presence, whether universal or individualized, of the Divine Consciousness.

n. a foreordaining will, an edict or fiat, a foreordaining of events. To decree: vb. to decide, to declare, to command or enjoin; to determine or order; to ordain.

The decree is the most powerful of all applications to the Godhead. It is the command of the son or daughter of God made in the name of the I AM Presence and the Christ for the will of the Almighty to come into manifestation as above, so below. It is the means whereby the kingdom of God becomes a reality here and now through the power of the spoken Word. It may be short or long and usually is marked by a formal preamble and a closing, or acceptance.

an authoritative decree, sanction, order; a pronouncement; a short dynamic invocation or decree usually using the name of God, I AM, as the first word of the fiat, e.g., I AM the Way! I AM the Truth! I AM the Resurrection and the Life!

Fiats are always exclamations of Christ-power, Christ-wisdom, and Christ-love consciously affirmed and accepted in the here and now.

the Affirmation:

assertion that something exists or is true; confirmation or ratification of the truth; solemn declaration. Affirmations are fiats which may be of greater length and more specific detail. They affirm the action of Truth in man—in his being, consciousness, and world. They are used alternately with denials of the reality of evil in all of its forms. Likewise, they affirm the power of Truth that challenges the activities of the fallen ones.

the Call:

n. a demand, a claim, a request or command to come or be present; an instance of asking for something; the act of summoning the LORD, or the LORD's summoning of his offspring. "And the LORD God called unto Adam and said unto him, Where art thou?" (Gen. 3:9) "Out of Egypt have I called my son!" (Matt. 2:15) To call: vb. to speak in a loud or distinct voice so as to be heard at a distance; to recall from death or the astral plane, e.g., "Lazarus, come forth!"; to utter in a loud or distinct voice; to announce or read loudly or authoritatively.

The call is the most direct means of communication between man and God and God and man, frequently used in an emergency; e.g., O God, help me! Arch angel Michael, take command! The byword of the initiate is "The call compels the answer." "He shall call upon me and I will answer him." (Ps. 91:15) "They called upon the LORD, and he answered them." (Ps. 99:6)

Saint Germain's Mantra for the Aquarian Age

I AM a Being of Violet Fire!
I AM the Purity God Desires!

by Saint Germain

Hail, Friends of Freedom!

Hail, lightbearers of the ages! Hail, O America! Hail, O earth! Hail to the freedom flame in every heart and in all life throughout cosmos!

I AM come to salute the light of the I AM THAT I AM within you and to give to you a vision to forge your God-identity. I AM the keeper of the flame of freedom for every nation. Saint Germain you have called me, and Uncle Sam. I AM he, and I AM here! I AM in the flame of the holy science and of that religion which is yours to claim as the sacred fire within your heart.

People of America, people of earth, hear the cry of the ascended hosts of light who are not very far removed from you, but who are your elder brothers and sisters on the Path who have kept for you the vision of freedom throughout all ages. Since the days of Lemuria and Atlantis, since the days of the coming of the Buddha and the Christ and the children of Israel who crossed the Red Sea and made their way through the wilderness land until the promise was fulfilled, so the hosts of the LORD have come through the teachers and prophets and messengers of the ages.

Think you then that God cannot also reveal himself in this day and age as he did before? Our God is indeed a consuming fire, and that fire is the baptism of the Holy Ghost within you. And this is the age of that baptism and of the coming of the violet flame for your freedom from every form of bondage over the mind, the soul, the heart, and the being of man.

I AM here to claim freedom for man and woman and child and for every heart on earth that beats with the heart of Almighty God. I AM with the people of the [former] Soviet Union,[11] of China, of America, and Africa. I AM with the peoples who are striving for that freedom which is the discipline of liberty under the law of God and not that license for the indulgence in the carnal mind.

Yes, I AM a follower of Christ. I AM a sponsor of the Christ within you, and he too is my Saviour. And thus the Lord Jesus with me serves now to be with the hosts of the LORD the open door for freedom in America and in every nation. This is that open door which no man can shut.

But I tell you, people of earth, it is up to you to claim that freedom. For as ever before, the fallen ones who have invaded the governments and the economies of the nations are ever present as the spoilers to take from you your God-ordained liberty.

Therefore I say, claim it in the name of the I AM THAT I AM! Claim it and be then one with God, the majority vote for freedom on earth! For what is peace without freedom?—this I ask you. And let every leader of every nation ponder in his heart this day what is that peace that has not the freedom to be or to worship God as the Divine Self of every soul.

Yes, I come—a believer and a teacher of the law of reincarnation. If it were not so, I would have told you. The law of the coming again and again of the soul is your cosmic justice. It is your opportunity to prove the law and to earn that salvation that is the ascension in the light.

This is the goal of true religion. It is the binding of the soul to God in freedom. This is the great proof which our Lord Jesus Christ gave in his ascension. But it is yours also to claim and it is yours to claim for your nation, people of earth.

Understand, then, that this earth is intended to be governed by the souls of light. Therefore, souls of light, I speak to you this night. Take your place in government and stand for truth and stand for freedom!

And this is the true and the only revolution that you can espouse. It is that cause of freedom whereby you understand that the goal and the calling of America and every true free nation is to lead mankind into that way of higher consciousness. It is a revolution of light that will allow all that is not aright on earth to be righted by the law of freedom and by that baptism of the sacred fire.

Understand, then, that it is movement to the Great God Self within that is your salvation in this age—that all problems of the economy, the ecology, and the government can be resolved if you will take only ten minutes each day to go within and to find your own God Self, to meditate and to use the Science of the Spoken Word whereby you chant the mantra of the free:

I AM a being of violet fire!
I AM the purity God desires!

This is my mantra which I give to you as your initiation into the Aquarian age. Will you not repeat it with me now?

I AM a being of violet fire!
I AM the purity God desires!

When you use the name of God to claim the I AM as God's being and be-ness within you, then you have that claim to all which follows, and therefore you can take the mantra of Jesus Christ, "I AM the way, the truth, and the life," and you may participate in that glorious life that he lived.

See, then, that the cycles turn; that as Christ came to teach you that the Christ lives within you, so I AM come to sponsor the nations that each individual nation under God might find that Christ is the center and the consciousness of that sacred labor that it is the destiny of each free nation to pursue.

Let the nation, then, be the identity of the collective Christ consciousness in this age. Let individuality be found in the community of the Holy Spirit as nation by nation the children of God on earth forge their God-identity. Therefore I say to you, in the name of the LORD, the Almighty One, the great God of Freedom to the earth: Forge your God-identity!

I bring to you now the energies of the sacred heart of Jesus, the energies of the sacred heart of Mary, and of my own heart's consecration to the way of freedom. I bring to you the knowledge of the sacred fire and the threefold flame that beats your very own heart.

The threefold flame is the gift of life. It is your opportunity for Selfhood, for reality. And it is your joint-heirship with the Christ, who proved himself to be the incarnation of the Word, as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit were the heartbeat and the energy of his ministry.

Behold, then, the chart of your own I AM Presence—[the Presence objectified in the burning bush] which was revealed to Moses as the I AM THAT I AM. Behold the individualization of the God flame whereby you can claim oneness with the Most High. Behold, then, your own Christ principle, your own Christ Self, living as the Mediator and as the one who is able to forgive and to forgive and to forgive.

Understand, then, that the Christ is one, the only begotten Son, and yet that Christ, that one, that light in Jesus, the true light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world, is the body of God that is fragmented and repeated again and again and again for every incoming soul.

And therefore the potential to be Christ is with you at the moment of your birth, at the moment when the Holy Spirit breathes the breath of life into your temple. In that hour you have once again the opportunity to know the Self as God, the I AM THAT I AM, and to know the Self as Christ. And the sacred fire that lives within you is the Holy Spirit.

And when you meditate upon that flame as power, wisdom, and love, I tell you that flame will leap, it will burst forth and fill all the house, all of the temple of your being. And you will find the quickening of your sacred centers and of your consciousness and of life within life. And then you will feel the power of a cosmos surging through you, and then you will know how the few and then the many will go forth for the saving of the nations for Almighty God.

For we would that all nations and all peoples would come under the God-dominion of the Christ. And therefore we serve—angelic beings, archangels, and Elohim. We serve to set mankind free. We serve to teach mankind the law of their own immortality. We serve only to free you to be all that God has vouchsafed to you through the great teachers of East and West who have come over the thousands of years of earth's evolutions.

Not all that was passed from Jesus Christ to the disciples has been recorded for your use. And therefore it is up to us to return to you, through our messenger, that sacred teaching of the Christ whereby you too can be free, whereby you can work the works of the apostles and those who are called to be representatives of the Lord.

I say to you, people of light, accept your mission of the ages! Accept your role as the ones who are the protectors of freedom on earth. This indeed is America's destiny—to teach a way of life that is a form of government whereby each threefold flame and every living soul may commune with God and out of that communion evolve one vote and cast that vote for freedom.

So let it be that this understanding of the inner communion is the foundation of God-government of the people, by the people, and for the people that shall not perish from the earth[12] if this nation, America, shall rise again to her God-destiny in this age and shall forge that unity that is sponsored by the Archangel Michael who comes for the deliverance, who comes to unite you, and who comes with a message: "Remember, ye are brethren!"[13]

Therefore let brethren unite for the glorious victory of the Christ, for the Second Coming of Jesus and the coming again of the gracious Lord Buddha, Lord of the World and giver of the flame of life to all peoples. So let the understanding of the convergence of the teachings of East and West be the forte of the God-identified man. And let souls who love the flame of purity now acquaint themselves with the flame of Mother,[14] and let that Mother of cosmos nourish once again new life and the new birth.

O Mother Liberty,[15] raise your torch high and welcome all souls of light to America and to earth, and reveal the Book of the Law and let it be the Everlasting Gospel. So let the angel come and let him deliver to the hearts of this people and every people on earth the understanding of the one true Source and that energy which is God vouchsafed to every living soul.

I call, then, to the lost tribes of the house of Israel: Come forth and claim your God-identity! Come out of all of the nations and be free and be the teachers of the ages and know the I AM THAT I AM within the heart and know your Real Self as the ever-living Christ.

So let the violet flame be the quality of mercy that is not strained.[16] Let the violet flame be invoked daily. Let your meditation be upon the flame and the flame frequency which you will find in the violet-flame color. This is my ray. This is the ray of the Aquarian age. This is the color of freedom itself.

So let it beat within your heart. Let it infire your heart. Let it instill you with that love of the early patriots and of those who forged that victory of freedom many centuries ago in the heart of Europe, in that little country of Switzerland where there burns yet a threefold flame for all peoples to dip into and to use for the victory.

O Afra and sons and daughters of Afra,[17] I call you to the one law of the I AM THAT I AM. I call you now. Heed the word of the ascended masters and prove your freedom and demonstrate your freedom and your ability to be whole.

I speak then to the black and the white and to those of every race. Each one of you has the opportunity to bring forth a great genius to this earth, but it must be done by individual application and soul worth. It must be the forging of your Self out of the energy that God has placed within your heart.

Now come forth! I send you love. Be free, then, of all of the past! Let the earth be washed by the waters of the living Word. Let the records of war on every continent, of hatred and prejudice and strife be dissolved now!

For I AM Saint Germain, the sponsor of a new era of freedom. I sponsor America and every nation on earth where freedom is enshrined, and I sponsor every soul who will yet live to be free.

People of America, pray for those who are not free in every way and safeguard your heritage of freedom. For when you lose the right to be free by the subtle encroachments of the fallen ones, you will regret the hour that you were not vigilant upon the wall as watchmen of the LORD.

And when the cry to that watchman, "What of the night?" will be sounded, I am counting on every American to be the watchman on the wall of the LORD and the wall of freedom. And when the cry is given forth, then, what will your answer be? I say let it be, "All is well!"

I salute you in the flame of my heart. I seal you in the flame of my heart. And I AM with you in Christ, in Buddha, unto the end of the cycle of this age. Amen. Amen. Amen.

The Chart of Your Divine Self

The Chart of Your Divine Self

by the Messengers

The reason we can call to God and he will answer is because we are connected to him. We are his sons and daughters. We have a direct relationship to God and he has placed a portion of himself in us. In order to better understand this relationship, the ascended masters have designed the Chart of Your Divine Self.

The Chart of Your Divine Self is a portrait of you and of the God within you. It is a diagram of yourself and your potential to become who you really are. It is an outline of your spiritual anatomy.

The upper figure is your "I AM Presence," the Presence of God that is individualized in each one of us. It is your personalized "I AM THAT I AM." Your I AM Presence is surrounded by seven concentric spheres of spiritual energy that make up what is called your "causal body." The spheres of pulsating energy contain the record of the good works you have performed since your very first incarnation on earth. They are like your cosmic bank account.

The Higher Self

The middle figure in the Chart represents the "Holy Christ Self," who is also called the Higher Self. You can think of your Holy Christ Self as your chief guardian angel and dearest friend, your inner teacher and voice of conscience.

Just as the I AM Presence is the presence of God that is individualized for each of us, so the Holy Christ Self is the presence of the universal Christ that is individualized for each of us. "The Christ" is actually a title given to those who have attained oneness with their Higher Self, or Christ Self. That's why Jesus was called "Jesus, the Christ." Christ comes from the Greek word Christos, meaning "anointed"—anointed with the light of God.

What the Chart shows is that each of us has a Higher Self, or "inner Christ," and that each of us is destined to become one with that Higher Self—whether we call it the Christ, the Buddha, the Tao or the Atman. This "inner Christ" is what the Christian mystics sometimes refer to as the "inner man of the heart," and what the Upanishads mysteriously describe as a being the "size of a thumb" who "dwells deep within the heart."

We all have moments when we feel that connection with our Higher Self—when we are creative, loving, joyful. But there are other moments when we feel out of sync with our Higher Self—moments when we become angry, depressed, lost. What the spiritual path is all about is learning to sustain the connection to the higher part of ourselves so that we can make our greatest contribution to humanity.

The Divine Spark

The shaft of white light descending from the I AM Presence through the Holy Christ Self to the lower figure in the Chart is the crystal cord (sometimes called the silver cord). It is the "umbilical cord," the lifeline, that ties you to Spirit.

Your crystal cord also nourishes that special, radiant flame of God that is ensconced in the secret chamber of your heart. It is called the threefold flame, or divine spark, because it is literally a spark of sacred fire that God has transmitted from his heart to yours. This flame is called "threefold" because it engenders the primary attributes of Spirit—power, wisdom, and love.

The mystics of the world's religions have contacted the divine spark, describing it as the seed of divinity within. Buddhists, for instance, speak of the "germ of Buddhahood" that exists in every living being. In the Hindu tradition, the Katha Upanishad speaks of the "light of the Spirit" that is concealed in the "secret high place of the heart" of all beings.

Likewise, the fourteenth-century Christian theologian and mystic Meister Eckhart teaches of the divine spark when he says, "God's seed is within us." There is a part of us, says Eckhart, that "remains eternally in the Spirit and is divine.... Here God glows and flames without ceasing."

When we decree, we meditate on the flame in the secret chamber of our heart. This secret chamber is your own private meditation room, your interior castle, as Teresa of Avila called it. In Hindu tradition, the devotee visualizes a jeweled island in his heart. There he sees himself before a beautiful altar, where he worships his teacher in deep meditation.

Jesus spoke of entering the secret chamber of the heart when he said: "When thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly."[18] Going into your closet to pray is going into another dimension of consciousness. It's entering into the heart and closing the door on the outside world.

Your Soul's Potential

The lower figure in the Chart of Your Divine Self represents you on the spiritual path, surrounded by the violet flame and the protective white light of God. The soul is the living potential of God—the part of you that is mortal but that can become immortal.

The purpose of your soul's evolution on earth is to grow in self-mastery, balance your karma, and fulfill your mission on earth so that you can return to the spiritual dimensions that are your real home. When your soul at last takes flight and ascends back to God and the heaven-world, you will become an "ascended" master, free from the rounds of karma and rebirth.

The high-frequency energy of the violet flame can help you reach that goal more quickly.

The Overcoming of Fear through Decrees

by Lord Maitreya

The statement "Perfect love casts out fear"[19] is true because it can be proven scientifically in demonstration of cosmic law. Although it is difficult for mankind, cast in the mold of the human consciousness, to sense the full perfection of God that is within, it is through the understanding of perfect love that each man and woman can come to the place where love is realized as the essence of Selfhood.

The perfect love of which I speak is the love that emanates from the Father-Mother God, from the very core of true Being. And it is this love which, when invoked through divine decree by the children of God, will dissolve and consume on contact all fear and doubt, anxiety and frustration, and the sense of aloneness which mankind has evolved through the consciousness of separation from the Source of life.

The veil that hung in the ancient Hebrew temple between the Holy of holies and the holy place[20] is symbolical of the veil of the divine Mediator that guards the perfection of God from the imperfection of man. This is the veil that is sanctioned by God to protect the altar of the sacred fire in the most holy place where only the high priest, the Christ Self of each one, may enter. This veil prevents the penetration of the Holy of holies by those whose consciousness is yet to be raised for the ritual of entering into the Christ mind.

There is another veil that separates a man from his God. It is an energy veil that is a forcefield of mortal thought and feeling which mankind weave out of their own discord. This veil has become a wall of partition between the evolving soul consciousness of man and the Great God Flame that focuses the life energy of the Real Self within the heart.

Thus man has barricaded himself from the mercy seat and the ark of the testimony of his own Christ-identity. And this energy veil has for centuries effectively deprived him of the truth of his own being and of the Presence of God. Therefore it is man himself who must rend the veil[21] of his own mortal consciousness—of which he alone is the author—ere the wisdom of the law can be imparted.

As we approach, then, the subject of fear and its overcoming through the invocation of the sacred fire that blazes on the altar of the Holy of Holies of man's being, we must understand that the energies of which the veil is comprised—whether they appear to be pride, hardness of heart, prejudice, hatred, or human gluttony and greed—can be reduced to one common denominator, which I expose in this discourse as fear.

This fear is the anxiety and the uncertainty that emerges from deep within the recesses of the human consciousness the moment that it separates itself from God. Out of this fear there comes forth every dark form, every mania, every evil influence to which the race is heir.

Truly it can be said that there are islands of dense substance, or psychic pollution, located within the consciousness of mankind. Under certain conditions, always accompanied by an outburst of emotional energy, these islands—again, conglomerate globs of fear and the compounds of fear—rapidly unite with the mainland of negation in the mass consciousness of the world, at the same time amplifying the momentums of negation within the world of the individual.

This results in a great inrush of tides of unhappiness caused by an intensification of those qualities and conditions which are quite the reverse of the heavenly plan. Paul expressed the dilemma of these subconscious motivations and momentums when he said, "The good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do."[22]

What, then, can the modern-day disciple do to protect himself from evil intent and evil action which he finds manifesting in himself and in the world at large? What practical measures can he take to counteract such tendencies? How can he insulate himself from the influences of other than benign manifestations both within and without?

"With all thy getting, get understanding"[23] was the word of a wise son of God. He was aware of the need to understand the meaning of life within himself as well as without.

The schoolrooms of earth contribute to man's understanding of the outer world. Philosophy and psychology, as well as science and religion, further to some degree man's understanding of himself. Yet there are a host of deficiencies within these disciplines, and the mass confusion and unhappiness of the day which occur at physical, mental, and even spiritual levels confirm this fact.

What, then, is fear? First of all, fear is vibration—negative vibration—a sense of misapprehension of life and its purposes. But it is more than that: it is wrong custom.

Many of mankind's recurring experiences have been undesirable; therefore, in the awareness that so-called evil can befall them, men are apprehensive about their future. They question whether they will attain success and whether they will be able to retain success once it is meted out to them. The memory of past failures, then, keeps alive in the present the records of fear.

Understanding the Father's true plan is ever beneficial in eradicating fear from an individual's world. Jesus declared long ago, "It is the Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom."[24]

Now when the devil, personifying the negative temptations of the world, took him up to a high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, he said, "All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me."[25] Jesus replied, "Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve."[26]

In analyzing his reply, we find that the Word of God is the bulwark of man's strength against fear and negation. Indeed the Word of God—affirmed as divine decree and reaffirmed by man in defense of righteousness and truth—overcomes every temptation.

Jesus also knew that each promise of bliss with which the carnal mind might tempt the son of God had already been fulfilled by the heavenly Father. Hence he gave the devil a stern rebuke and overcame thereby the planetary momentum of a godless materialism. The temptation to follow in the ways of the world he put down with the full force of the Logos: "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve!"

The statement "It is the Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom" denotes to mankind that the divine intent for every man and woman is that each shall have not only an abundance of every good thing but also all the good which he is able to use at any time, for any reason, anywhere. What have we, then, to fear, except fear itself?

Jesus said, "I AM come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."[27] This is the message of the Word of God to all life. Why, then, do mankind allow themselves to be deprived of heavenly gifts and graces through fear and other negative vibrations that beset the collective subconscious of the race?

If I might paraphrase one of your own poets, "I drew a circle and shut Him out; He drew a circle and took me in,"[28] I would point to the fact that the Divine Self is the initiator of the human self, and all experiences that occur in the life of man are intended to polish the "diamond in the rough" of his identity in order that this blessed diamond might be properly placed in full view of the universe in a proper setting. Apropos of this, Jesus said: "Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid."[29]

Now certainly manifestations of shadow and unhappy and unfruitful lives revealing inner despair are not suitable for display as archetypes of perfection. This is why beloved Jesus and the great masters are portrayed to mankind's consciousness as examples worthy to be imitated. For their example is one of action that implements the Christ flame in thought, word, and deed.

Clearly it is not the Father's plan to exclude from any man the possibility of going and doing likewise.[30] It is the desire of the Great White Brotherhood to make known that God has employed every spiritual example to inspire man with the great possibilities that are in reality within himself.

To remove fear, then, is to remove the deep-seated resistance to the flow of light and light's possibilities in the being of man. To remove fear is an act of God, for God did not implant fear in man. Fear was accepted by man through his ignorance of the law and his unbelief—through a lack of the knowledge of the law and of how to manipulate the many facets of the law. Despair was generated in man in moments when the divine plan was perceived dimly or not at all, for man then assumed that he stood alone in the universe.

In these moods of haunting aloneness, mankind scarcely realized the true meaning of their identity. Lacking attunement with the Deity, they entered into a lesser vibration which, by reason of its shadowed concepts and murky ideas, is not only limited and self-limiting, but also full of elements of self-pity.

Becoming of one accord with the Father, the I AM Presence, is the first step in eradicating fear. All men and women must recognize that because they have thought wrongly in the past, only they can amend their thoughts and think rightly in the present.

They have thought of the individual as being the center of universal Being. This is but partial truth. Men must think of themselves as being God-centered rather than ego-centered, and of God individualized in the I AM Presence as the true center of their being. They must think of themselves as the manifestation of, rather than the originator of, this perfection.

To consider God as the center and origin of life is not blasphemy, for blasphemy concerns itself with mankind's despair and the degradation of the creation of God within himself. This state of mind would deny the immortal creation by stating that man is so far less than God as not to be created in the immortal image at all.[31] And this is in defiance of Holy Writ. Yet did not the Lord declare in the midst of the congregation: "I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the Most High"?[32]

Do you see, then, blessed ones, that by recognizing man as having been made in the image of God and by affirming the fact that the Father's plan of perfection is for him and that virtue and abundance are his rightful lot, mankind are able to escape from the feelings of fear and of lack? Abundance is the divine portion; and abundance embodies consecration not only to the things of God, but also to the ideals of God. Thus the pursuit of the abundant life inspires consecration to the God-life.

Fear of death comes to man when he thinks that he will no longer be a part of the great mainstream of the familiar which in his limited way he knows as life. When he understands that the experiences of birth and death are not far removed from one another, he realizes that that which is truly life cannot die; he understands that all experience is but a sea through which man passes to greater opportunity.

Men do not fear birth; for in the main they know not objectively, prior to its occurrence, just what will take place. The transfer from the higher octaves to a physical form is effected quite painlessly, and the same would be true of man's departure from the screen of life if he were free from fear.

The depths of the riches of the wisdom of God[33] are not apparent to men who seek to find them solely in idolatrous images fashioned after their own likeness or that of their fellowmen. Often people select a contemporary or a historical personality and set him on a pedestal as an example of virtue. This may be a mother, a friend, or a well-known figure.

Should it develop that a human trait or characteristic be found to have manifested in this one whom they have so idolized, they sometimes feel that the world is crashing at their feet. A fallen idol brings them to a sense of grinding hopelessness and frustration. They reason, "If this individual be not good, then who is good?" Jesus' reply to the man who called him Good Master was "Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, that is, God."[34]

Questions and doubts concerning one's fellowmen rising in a mad turbulence create a vibratory action which does not promote clear thinking. It is God's plan to dispel fear and to give men greater spiritual clarity, confidence, and power through the vision of the Christ as the true identity of all men. The Holy Spirit stands at the gate of every man's heart, preparing to initiate him into greater and more lasting joy—the joy of the eternal One.

Now most of you are familiar with the construction of a simple electromagnet. You know that an iron core is wrapped with coils of wire through which a current is passed, enabling the magnetic field to be extended in concentrated lines of flux and to draw objects into close proximity to the coil. In a like manner, the vibration of fear (the energized coil) held, sustained, or prolonged by an individual draws to him the fear of others.

It must be recognized that each time man's consciousness revolves the idea of apprehension, fear as an unknown quantity is thereby strengthened. For the magnetism of fear is directly related to the number of times that the idea feared is wrapped around the core of being, just as each winding of the coil around the core of the electromagnet increases the number of turns through which the electrical current then passes, thereby strengthening the power of the magnet.

By mankind's continual revolving of ideas of apprehension or fear, he is strengthening the magnetic field which draws the object of his fear into the orbit of his world. Thus Job declared, "The thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me."[35]

What then of the vibratory action of countless years, days, hours, moments, and lifetimes of wrong thinking and feeling? Often apprehensions have become galaxies of destruction within the universe of individual man. How can these best be removed? How can these best be contained? How can the vital energies of life be withdrawn from them and be returned to the heart of the Creator for repolarization?

Listen, my children, to the words of the Initiator, Maitreya. For I will speak to you of a simple idea which unfortunately appears complex because the children of men prefer to think of themselves as mature adults. Yet, although they sometimes act like children, they cannot always find in their hearts the needed simplicity which the Great Law requires of them to "become as a little child"[36] that they might enter into the eternal kingdom.

I am therefore about to discuss the efficacy of decrees—not only in the removing of fear but also in the removing from the consciousness of mankind every discouraging and disparaging condition which they may ever have to face. For the Word of God is power: it is the divine decree which man gives in unison with the voice of the eternal One, who proclaims the eternal law of his being.

Inasmuch as human density varies from subject to subject—so that one individual may manifest a tremendous weight of negation, whereas another may be relatively close to his perfectionment—it will not be found that all individuals can expect exactly the same results from the employment of spiritual methods, even those such as I advocate. Nevertheless, all can benefit greatly from the giving of decrees even at sublevels of awareness. For the light that is invoked through the giving of decrees penetrates to the very core of being.

Let us now take up the first principles in removing fear. If the strength of fear is directly related to the number of times the object of one's fear has been revolved, then would it not be the part of wisdom to unwind each turn of the wire upon the pole of being? I ask you in God's name!

Let us then recognize that through the power of the Holy Spirit and through the employment of thought and feeling in accordance with divine principles, man is able to sweep aside the imperfection of centuries and to set at naught those misqualified energies which were never of God's creation.

"The power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth"[37] is wondrous to behold. When the sincere seeker begins to wield this power to cut himself free from those limiting conditions which he has created in the blindness of ignorance, it is a sign unto God that he might be given a more than ordinary measure of assistance by those spiritual intelligences whom God has appointed to dispense justice to mankind.

"Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."[38]

The idea embodied in this promise of the Law is that although the threads in the garment of mankind's subconscious be dyed as deep as scarlet from the energies of mortal miscreation, yet by the power of transmutation, the light of God that never fails will bleach these threads and purify the consciousness until they are made whiter than mankind could ever imagine in their imperfect state.

Then mankind will behold the radiant perfection of Being outpictured as the seamless garment of the living Christ[39] daily enfolding them with a greater radiance so that they may take their place in the universal scheme as just men made perfect by love.[40]

To give decrees, then, according to the divine plan is to produce a renewal of that momentum of perfection which God originally implanted in the human heart. Decrees mightily assist in reinforcing the power of light, life, and love that is within man.

I know full well that many in this day and age, as in past ages, are a little inclined to ridicule that which they do not fully understand. Some will say they do not believe in the vain repetition of words, especially when those words are shouted out, as it were, in dynamic form at full volume.

Let me tell you, beloved ones, that truth is always stranger than fiction. Certainly the mere vain repetition of words is in itself completely ineffectual, as Jesus taught.[41] Therefore, the wrong premise exists in the minds of those who assume that the giving of decrees is vainly repetitious.

Let those who would learn God-truth place their own ideas temporarily aside for a moment as I expound to those who are willing to become as little children for the purpose of receiving this instruction upon the importance of employing in the present-day methods of dynamic decreeing.

Let those who will, assume the karmic responsibility of teaching men that dynamic decreeing is unnecessary. It is true that for a limited few who, by reason of certain spiritual faculties, do not require as much transmutation as others, dynamic decreeing may not be as necessary as it is for those in a lesser state of evolution. Yet until they balance 100 percent of their karma—until their debts to life are fully paid—they can certainly benefit by the giving of decrees; for decrees which invoke the violet flame are a means of balancing karma—of invoking the sacred fire until every jot and tittle of the law of karma is fulfilled.[42]

It is true that some may find that dynamic decreeing may disturb them at first, simply because they have already obtained a habit pattern of great quietness in their communion with God. However, even these, if they desire to do so, can determine to set aside all other conditions and concerns and obtain from properly directed decrees a benefit without equal.

Various yogic systems of meditation offer methods whereby the mind of man can be stilled and a greater attunement with the Divine be achieved. Some of these methods become haphazard when applied by Western man, for they do require an advanced mental and spiritual discipline on the part of the one employing them. Decrees, on the other hand, are relatively simple to master once the basic principles are understood, and they are far more efficacious.

It must be understood that decrees given without feeling and without thought will not produce the full perfection which they are intended to bring about, for man must have in his consciousness the correct patterns of thought and feeling which act as receptacles for the energies he invokes from the Godhead.

Decrees which are set forth according to the Science of the Spoken Word begin with a preamble. These preambles direct the attention and the energies of the decreer to his own I AM Presence (the inner God Self) and to his Holy Christ Self (the Christ-identity), as well as to those cosmic beings who have made mighty progress in God's kingdom.

These preambles are invocative of the highest Good—that is to say, they invoke the goodness of God by an appeal, made in the name of God and his Christ, to the hierarchies of heaven to anchor their energies and their love in order to amplify to levels of almost limitless comprehension the action of the decree as it is fulfilled in the world of time and space.

The giving of each call with fervor and love automatically invokes the energies of the heavenly hosts on behalf of the decreer and all mankind. In addition, decrees are a definite statement of truth that the mind of the individual may follow to a logical conclusion. And in this case, it is the conclusion of the Logos, of the Word that is made flesh[43] by the power of the spoken Word, that is, by the power of decrees. By cosmic law the worded ideas must eventuate in actuality when they are released in the name of God and by the authority of the Christ flame.

In giving decrees, the use of the name of God which was given to Moses as "I AM that I AM"[44] unlocks the power of the Most High for the benefit of the decreer and all who are within his sphere of influence. Thus the decree is imbued with the power of the Word, the spoken Word "without which was not any thing made that was made."[45]

The decree, when given with reverence, becomes a divine fiat rather than mere human "wish-craft," or the warring of minds pitted against one another through human "wit-craft," mind willing, and mental hypnosis—practices which border on black magic, dangerous indeed, and which are without the authority of the divine aegis.

Some may ask, How is the intent of the divine decree best accomplished? Perhaps by giving the decrees slowly and emphatically at first, until the cadences are mastered, thereby permitting the mind to meditate on the beautiful ideas embodied in each word and phrase. Once the mental matrix is absorbed, the heart center can be employed to magnify the concept and then the feelings can release the charge of divine love, life, and light, which are always invoked by ascended master decrees.

The faculties of the mind and heart—especially their ability to magnetize the healing energies of the sacred fire—are developed and expanded through the harmonious use of decrees. The need for this mutuality is expressed in the commandment "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy strength and with all thy mind, and thy neighbour as thyself."[46] Decrees are a dynamic expression of one's love for the LORD as that love is released through every aspect and potential of being.

The giving of decrees is always to confer a benefit upon self and neighbor. The "Who is my neighbor?" aspect has been explained in countless parables and wonderfully inspired writings in which mankind have already indulged themselves for a long time. It has become more general knowledge now that whosoever doeth the will of God is the brother, the sister, the mother of all life[47] and that all men are brothers under the Father-Mother God.

The tenets of most faiths support the statement "I AM my brother's keeper,"[48] and this is as it should be, seeing that in reality all life is one. The scientific corollary to this truth is found in the statement of Jesus "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me [unto the Christ-identity of all men]."[49]

Every decree given in the name of the Christ for and on behalf of "the least of these my brethren" blesses the Christ in all mankind who comprise the body of the Lord. Of a truth, whatever blesses one manifestation of the Christ blesses all manifestations of the Christ.

When sufficient expansion of consciousness has occurred, when feelings mount up and thoughts are rarefied and the decree has become a melody within the heart and soul, greater speed can be employed for the raising of the vibrations of one's aura and one's surroundings. The stepping up of vibrations should always be governed by the inner voice of the heart and never by the human will or by a spirit of competition.

Those who are familiar with the law of rhythm are aware of the fact that there is great power released in any action when many combine their energies and their voices in a dynamic release. We know that the ancient vessels of the Greeks and Romans were driven by oars alternating from one side of their craft to the other in accompaniment to the measured beat of the oar master.

Surely the destruction of the walls of Jericho[50] demonstrated the power of rhythmic decrees accompanied by the ritual of circumambulation. Mass demonstrations, cheering crowds, the tramp, tramp, tramp of an army, and the beat of the jungle drum are examples of mankind's use and misuse of this science.

The rhythm of decrees is extremely important, and patience must be exercised on the part of those who give them more slowly, so that when merging with groups accustomed to a faster pace, they will recognize that a certain momentum has already been built up by those individuals who through years of application may have released a greater concentration of energy through their decree patterns and regular invocations.

It is to be expected that the speeding up of the release of energy in using these decrees may result in a certain discomfort on the part of one newly sitting in. This is a discomfort which must be borne cheerfully. For until the individual has bridged the gap through rendering his own service to life by giving decrees properly in his own home, he must be prepared to follow along with those who have developed greater facility in this art. Yet patience should be exhibited by the more dexterous and facile in tempering the pace at times for the benefit and comfort of the novice.

Consider, however, beloved ones, what would happen if you were placed in a symphony orchestra and were asked to play an instrument which you had never played before. If you were expected to play in perfect harmony with that orchestra, you would find it impossible to do so. If you were permitted to remain there, it would be by the grace of the conductor, and you would be expected to practice until you had entered into a state of harmony with the whole rather than expecting the whole to reduce its operation to your own quotient of understanding.

I am bringing forth this instruction for the purpose of contacting new students that are being drawn to hierarchy through The Summit Lighthouse, as well as for the enlightenment of those who through the years have doubted at various times the efficacy of decrees.

Let me say here—for now and all time to come preceding the full manifestation of the golden age—that decrees will always remain as a simple and effective method of obtaining great grace from God, assisting in the unwinding of spirals of negation from the human psyche, in the freeing of mankind from the effects of all inept weavings, and in the permanent establishment of a feeling of harmony within each lifestream.

There are no words which can adequately describe the wonderful feeling of peace, the elation, the freedom, and the bliss which are conferred upon those advanced students who have mastered the technique of giving decrees. Therefore, I, Maitreya, desire to inspire all chelas of the great ones with a mighty hope concerning your future.

If you will give your decrees not only rhythmically but properly, you will then be laying up for yourselves treasures in heaven[51] and making it possible for millions among mankind caught in the riptides of cruel emotions and discordant feelings to escape and find their freedom. With quickened pulse and high hope, these, as escapees across the Berlin Wall, will at last find the longings of their souls satisfied because of the precious offerings of your own heart.

Undoubtedly, some, by reason of ignorance, will disagree with the precepts of the Most High God, and thus certainly with my teaching. Yet I do not choose to address myself to those unwilling to be taught. To those who are willing to accept the great truths of life, I say in the words of the Christ: "Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed; blessed are they that have not seen and yet have believed."[52]

I say to you today, then, it costs you but a little to try to decree properly and faithfully. Therefore I urge you to try to understand the meaning of decrees and to practice long enough until you become proficient in establishing through decrees the power of God in your own world as a most blessed momentum of cosmic virtue.

This shall result not only in freedom from fear and attendant worry, but also in the establishment of such a climate of divine love and service as shall give you unlimited happiness in all the days to come. Your transition, whether it be through the veil men call death or directly into the radiance of your own ascension into higher light, will be effected with greater ease if you hold your attunement high through the power of your decrees.

How do decrees compare with prayer? Beloved ones, prayer is wonderful, for through prayer, as communion with God, the grace of the LORD descends upon the supplicant's heart. But for a vital release of power from the Almighty, prayer is not to be compared with the giving of masterful decrees.

Prayer based on fear stems from an era when mankind were not yet able to apprehend the implications of their soul's relationship to their own God-identity. The idea of a man groveling before his God comes down from his ancient heritage. The past, woven over and over with the musty odor of human decay, is the record of man's descent from an awareness of immortal Selfhood to one of mortal selfhood.

The Science of the Spoken Word revealed by the ascended masters restores to mankind in this age the lost art of decreeing which was employed by sons and daughters of God in the early golden ages of earth's history which antedate the fall of both Atlantis and Lemuria. The practice of this science provides the way for their return to the original destiny in perfection before the expulsion from Paradise.

In short, decrees are premised upon the law of perfection and man as the beloved of God, whereas prayer presupposes man in an imperfect state—one of condemnation and confinement.

In this day of the ascending Christ consciousness when the earth is passing through higher initiations, the sincere devotee is also stretching his hands toward the glories of the golden age. The great release that comes from the giving of decrees enables mankind by the grace of God to possess a more than ordinary power here and now for his service to the greater light of God and for the bringing in of his kingdom on earth. Invocations and decrees are methods of employing the sacred fire of man's energy on behalf of his own blessed divinity.

Will you accept this method of freedom for yourself? Come, then, as a little child, and join your voices with those of heaven's choruses chanting in rhythmic harmony: "I AM the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage."[53]

Heart, Head and Hand Decrees

by El Morya

Dedication

"Thou shalt decree a thing and it shall be established unto thee!"[54]

Every moment each man or woman creates his own future. Life, which is a God-given gift, continually acts to fulfill man's spoken or unspoken desires. Human thoughts and feelings are decrees in themselves and do produce with certainty and justice after their kind, whether joy or sorrow.

Although they live in a sea of wisdom, most men create in ignorance. Their lives are therefore a mixture of both good and bad, a chaotic outpicturing of the so-called wheel of fortune.

Believing that honest men and women want to rise above self-imposed bondage and would shed unhappy human qualities of thought and feeling—long endured but not cured—I am offering these decrees to the world in the sunlight of divine love and light. Their constant and faithful use will plant the ever-fertile ground of human consciousness with seeds of grace and sprouts of mercy.

These in turn will yield the harvest of a new life, a personal harvest of harmony and abundance, quickly fulfilled at your call through individual growth and the expansion of God's sacred fire.

Like the balm of Gilead, these decrees will anoint the weary souls of earth's children and bind human hearts together with the ascended hosts, making the human and the Divine one family which can and will establish forever peace and victory in the light of God which never fails.

As you daily follow the ritual of invocation and decree, accept my blessing personally given from the Retreat of God's Will here in Darjeeling on behalf of the Great White Brotherhood—from heart, head, and hand.

I AM

Vondir!

The Power of the Spoken Word

by Saint Germain

Gracious Friends of Freedom,

When we contemplate methods of God-realization, we dare not exclude the power of the spoken Word.

For many years the so-called orthodox religions have used ritual and form together with spoken mantras. In the West these have been called responsive readings, for they require the response of the congregation, or audience participation. In some instances the prayers of mankind have become vainly repetitious and devoid of meaning, but I for one would rather see individuals involved in rote than enmeshed in the wrong kinds of vocalized expression.

It is fitting that men should comprehend the proper use of decrees. Jesus once said: "Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned."[55] Decrees are not careless words; they are careful words. And the patterns which we recommend are invocative of the highest good for man.

Decrees are generally composed of three parts, and they should be thought of as letters to God:

(1) The salutation of the decree is invocative. It is addressed to the individualized God Presence of every son and daughter of God and to those servants of God who make up the spiritual hierarchy. This salutation (the preamble to the decree), when reverently given, is a call that compels the answer from God and the ascended ones. We could no more refuse to answer this summons in our octave than could your firemen refuse to answer a call for help in yours. The purpose of the salutation, then, is to engage immediately the energies of the ascended masters in answering the body of your letter to God, which you so lovingly vocalize individually or in unison.

(2) The body of your letter is composed of statements phrasing your desires, the qualifications you would invoke for self or others, and the supplications that would be involved even in ordinary prayer. Having released the power of the spoken Word through your outer consciousness, your subconscious mind, and your superconscious or Higher Self, you can rest assured that the supreme consciousness of the ascended masters whom you have invoked is also concerned with the manifestation of that which you have called forth.

(3) Now you come to the close of your decree, the acceptance, the sealing of the letter in the heart of God, released with a sense of commitment into the realm of the Spirit whence manifestation must return to the world of material form according to the unerring laws of alchemy (the all-chemistry of God) and precipitation.[56]

Those who understand the power of the square in mathematics will realize that when groups of individuals are engaged in invoking the energies of God, they are not merely adding power by the number of people in the group on a one-plus-one basis, but they are entering into a very old covenant of the square which squares the release of power to accomplish the spoken Word by the number of individuals who are decreeing and by the number of times that each decree is given.

We heartily recommend individual decrees to accomplish untold blessings in the lives of those who will discipline themselves in this ritual of invoking light to a darkened world. But group decreeing, when accompanied by an intense visualization of the good desired, is more efficacious on a world scale than individual decreeing and will result in a speedy response to those engaged in it, not only to themselves but also on behalf of all mankind.

It should be borne in mind that whenever Good (God) is invoked in the world of form, surrounded as the world is today by a great accumulation of mortal effluvia, the Good (the light) that is released from on high in answer to the call (because of the high frequency of the vibrations of the light) is automatically opposed by the negative vibrations already existing in the atmosphere of the earth (because of the low frequency of these vibrations).

Rhythm is also important in decrees. Proper rhythm creates a most penetrating projection of spiritual vibrations that will magnetize all over the planet the qualities of God that are being invoked through the decrees. The momentum of these waves that form undulating circles over the planetary body creates an intensification of light wherever devotees come together to participate in a like endeavor.

The laws governing the manifestation and distribution of physical light also apply to the flow of the currents of spiritual light. Spiritual qualities are distributed around the planetary body from every radiating focus of ascended master love.

Let no one feel, then, a sense of separation in his service to hierarchy; for by the power of decrees issued forth at any point upon the earth's surface, the currents of light, life, and love from the heart of God can be unleashed as electrical, radiating waves to make their impact in the world and bring back to the invoker the God-ordained response.

The statement "Thou shalt decree a thing and it shall be established unto thee"[57] is an ancient maxim that sets forth the law governing decrees. For man, created in the image of God, has the selfsame power to actuate which was used by God "in the beginning" when he said, "Let there be light!" and there was light.[58]

We know full well that individuals who come into our meetings and encounter these decrees for the first time without understanding the laws governing them or the beautiful results that can be obtained through their use can well come under the influence of certain negative forces and entities in the world that quite naturally are diametrically opposed to the use of dynamic decrees.

Too frequently individuals who stress their desire for quiet meditation fail to take into account that there is a time and a place for quiet meditation, a time and a place for prayer, and a time and a place for decrees.[59] All three can be used in religious service. All three can be used in the home, individually, or in groups, as one desires. But one form of worship is not a substitute for the other.

We release this information in this Pearl of Wisdom because of the world need for the ascended masters' teachings on the subject. After all, consciousness is one. The individual who dwells in God can pour out his heart to God in prayer, in song, in decrees, or sit silently meditating upon an aspect of Deity. Thought precedes worded expression, or at least it should. Therefore, to meditate or to think upon God is one way of expressing him. Decreeing is another.

When the children of Israel brought down the walls of Jericho, it was by a great shout,[60] a great use of the consummate power of divine energy. The sinister force has perverted this knowledge, which has been a part of the forte of the teachings of the Great White Brotherhood for thousands of years.

The black power movement[61] and some communist groups have taken to training young people in the wrong use of this law involving the power of the spoken Word. Their followers chant in unison and in rhythm, thereby summoning or magnetizing power and projecting it forth upon a vibratory wavelength that is charged with personal and group hatred. The effect of these momentums of mass misqualification can be disastrous upon those who encounter them, for when correctly used, this power did bring down the walls of Jericho.

Because decrees are of such great benefit to mankind, we urge that those who in the past may have failed to appreciate fully the significance of decrees, those who may have taken a position against them, shall reconsider their stand in the light of the cosmic knowledge which I have herein released. Also, we recommend that the members of our sanctuaries and all who are connected with us through the Pearls of Wisdom shall make a very real effort to understand the facts concerning the subject of decrees.

Decrees are synthesized manifestations of the heart flame of each one who decrees. Decrees draw together and focalize the power of the spoken Word, the visualization of the Christ mind, and the rhythm of the divine pulse. When you decree, you are releasing divinely qualified energy charged by your invocation and multiplied by the power of the ascended masters. It goes forth to do its perfect work for the amplification of the power of light upon the entire planet.

I can say little more than that which was spoken of old: "Prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."[62]

The proper use of decrees takes practice. Individuals should not expect that the first time they make a call, the very perfection of the universe will sweep away all of the accumulated debris of their lives.

Proper decreeing is an art, and as one gains greater proficiency, he will find it possible to speed up his decrees—that is, he will be able to speed up the rate at which they are given. He will also be able to understand what is taking place as he speeds them up. For this acceleration, by raising the rate of his own electronic pattern, throws off and transmutes negative thoughts and feelings in his world.

Oh, what delight and peace you can bring to your family, to your friends, and to yourself through the proper use of decrees! What a boon to freedom! How gloriously the world can be changed for the better!

After all, blessed ones, Nature herself is not always silent. God speaks in thunder, in lightning, and in the wind;[63] and the chattering of the many birds through the world, like the crickets in the swamp, certainly raises the decibels.

By the power of the Word the earth was framed,[64] and by the power of the Word the freedom of man shall be dominantly asserted in God's name. Use your decrees! Fear not the opinions of men, for the hierarchy has spoken and those who heed will profit.

For your valiant freedom in the light, I AM

I AM the Light of the Heart

by Saint Germain

I AM the light of the heart
Shining in the darkness of being
And changing all into the golden treasury
Of the mind of Christ.

I AM projecting my love
Out into the world
To erase all errors
And to break down all barriers.

I AM the power of infinite love,
Amplifying itself
Until it is victorious,
World without end!

The Balm of Gilead

by a Pilgrim of Peace

O love of God, immortal love,
Enfold all in thy ray;
Send compassion from above
To raise them all today!
In the fullness of thy power,
Shed thy glorious beams
Upon the earth and all thereon
Where life in shadow seems!
Let the light of God blaze forth
To cut men free from pain;
Raise them up and clothe them, God,
With thy mighty I AM name!

How to Decree Effectively

by the Messengers

Jesus said: "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.... Verily, verily I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.... For as the Father raiseth up the dead and quickeneth them, even so the Son quickeneth whom he will....

"All men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.... For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself.... I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me."[65]

The mystery of the Christ, the divine Word or Logos, the only begotten Son of the Father, is one which has baffled and confused mankind since the Fall of man (since his descent into material consciousness). The restoration of mankind from the place of sinner, to which they have been relegated by the forces of unrighteous condemnation, to that of "joint-heirs with Christ"[66] must be accomplished if mankind are to obtain their freedom in this age.

It is recorded in the Book of John that the Jews sought to kill Jesus because he said that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.[67] To this day the "scribes and Pharisees" denounce those who dare to acknowledge their own heritage as sons of God.

Jesus' claim to his divinity was based on the understanding that he, being created in the image of God as were all men in the beginning,[68] possessed all of the attributes of God himself—not in quantity but in quality, even as every drop of the ocean contains the essential nature of the whole.

Jesus knew, as few men before or since have known, that he was the Son of God. He never claimed that he was the only Son of God. But those who heard his words who had not reached this higher understanding refused to claim their own divine Sonship. While some rebuked him for his declaration, others fell down and worshiped in him that which they were not able to realize within themselves.

Those who followed after him, the early scribes and priests, had even less understanding of the universal manifestation of the Christ in every son of God—in every man, woman, and child. And thus the erroneous doctrine that Jesus is the only Son of God, handed down from generation to generation, has divided Western civilization and kept mankind en masse from fulfilling their divine destiny.

When the statements of Jesus concerning the Father and the Son are explained in the light of understanding who indeed the Son of God is, the modern disciple will understand why and how he may decree effectively.

The Christ as the only begotten Son of the Father is the only true heir of God. This Son of God is your own true identity, the real you whom God made in his image and likeness. This likeness never fell into sin and disrepute but remains inviolate as the Christ—the beloved Holy Christ Self—of every man and woman.

Human consciousness or the carnal nature has rejected the Christ since the Fall of Adam and Eve. For the lesser self, or the prodigal son, whom we may think of as man in the state of becoming the Christ, by the power of free will chose to abide in the consciousness of limitation rather than that of limitless expression which is gained when one submits himself unreservedly to the will of God.

Those who truly understand the mystery of the Christ have seen that even as there is one God, one Father, so there is one Christ, one Son. It is the nature of the Infinite One to multiply Being infinitely and still remain one. (One times one times one ad infinitum always equals one.) Thus God the Father and God the Son may be actualized in man and in woman over and over again and still remain inviolate as the Divine One.

All men share in this oneness and have within themselves the essence of the divine nature—God individualized as the mighty I AM Presence of every son and daughter, and the Christ individualized as the Holy Christ Self of each one. Without God and the Word, the Christ that was with him in the beginning, no manifestation was made[69]—no man was created without being infused with a portion of God and a portion of the Christ.

To decree or to command the energies of life is the prerogative of the Christ-identity or Higher Self of every son and daughter of God. The human self, being imperfect and incomplete, has not yet been given the authority to utter fiats of creative direction; and thus he must always decree "In the name of the beloved mighty victorious Presence of God, I AM, in me and my own beloved Holy Christ Self."

Realizing, as Jesus did, that it is his divine destiny to become a co-creator with God, the disciple of the masters takes his decree book in hand and begins right where he is, in whatever state of consciousness he finds himself, to decree for the necessary changes to take place in his world whereby he can and will become reunited with the Father through the mediatorship of his Holy Christ Self.

Thus, recognizing his present limitations and inadequacies, he acknowledges the omnipotence of God to overcome all obstacles of the flesh and to renew his consciousness by the power of the Holy Spirit.

This Spirit manifests in the sacred fire blazing as the threefold flame of life on the very altar of his heart in the secret chamber. (The flame has three plumes—pink, blue, and yellow. It is approximately one-sixteenth of an inch in height in the average individual, and it is the focus of God in man which sustains his life. It actually causes the heartbeat from which all other bodily functions derive their impetus.)[70]

The decree or divine fiat, the decreer, and the answer to the decree comprise a threefold manifestation of God himself. The decreer must recognize that "God in me is giving this decree. It is God's energy that flows forth to obey his command, and he is the fulfilling of the law by the power of the spoken Word which is manifesting in me."

Man (the lesser self) is thus an instrument for the light that comes forth from the heart of God to coalesce as manifest perfection. He is not the source of the light, neither is he the dictator of creation; and he does not have any power of his own to cause that light to obey his command.

Therefore, if the disciple will determine to raise his consciousness to the level of the Holy Christ Self and know that he is in reality that beloved Son, he, being one with God, may present himself a living sacrifice consecrated to purity in order that God's light, God's Word, and God's decree may flow through him to manifest the perfect work of the Creator.

Thus, having established in mind the realization of who is the doer—I AM (God is) the open door which no man can shut—the disciple may begin the sacred ritual of offering decrees in the name of the Father-Mother God (the I AM Presence), the Son (the universal Christ, which manifests in every man as his own beloved Christ-identity or Holy Christ Self), and the Holy Spirit (the energies of the sacred fire that endow form and consciousness with the essence of God that is life).

Before actually speaking the words of the decree, sit in a comfortable straight chair in a well-lighted room where you will be undisturbed, taking care that the room has been tidied, cleaned, and well aired. (Dust, untidiness, stale air, and poor lighting reduce the effectiveness of the decrees because these impede the flow of light and repel the angelic hosts, who always assist the supplicant in amplifying the release of God's holy energies.)

Visualize the Presence of God above you [see the Chart of Your Divine Self], your lower self enveloped in the violet flame administered by your Holy Christ Self, and visualize the threefold flame pulsing and expanding from your heart—the blue plume to your left, the pink plume to your right, and the yellow plume in the center.

Hold your spine and head erect, your legs and hands uncrossed, and your feet flat on the floor. (Poor posture opens the consciousness to negative forces because the solar plexus, which is the doorway of the emotions, is not in control. Crossing the legs and hands causes a "short circuiting" of the energies which are intended to flow through the individual to bless all mankind.)

Therefore remember Paul's words "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?"[71] and let the energies of God flow through your body. Hold your book or the individual decrees at eye level so that you do not lean down while decreeing. You may prefer to sit at a desk or table where you can prop up your book in front of you, thus leaving your hands free and resting, palms up, to receive the blessings of God through the masters.

Speak the decree slowly and clearly without strain until you can fully comprehend the meaning of its content. Then concentrate upon the rhythm and begin to give it more quickly. You will see how your mind can learn to follow with lightning speed the concepts and the release of power that come as you recite with greater facility.

It is important to breathe deeply and regularly, using the power of the fire breath of God to project the light through your entire body and then out into the world to bless all of life with the magnetization of God's energy focused through your own heart flame.

When decreeing for loved ones, first call to your own I AM Presence and Holy Christ Self, as worded in the preamble of the decree you are giving. Then insert in the preamble your call to the "mighty I AM Presence and Holy Christ Self of _____" (give the name of the person or persons for whom you wish to decree).

By calling to the God Presence of those in need of spiritual assistance, you open up the fount of heaven into their worlds so that all of the divine blessings of the light may flow forth to heal whatever condition of imperfection may be manifesting therein. This service may be rendered without becoming personally involved in a given situation, for the ascended masters, by your calls, are given the authority to move in and take command of any person, place, condition, or thing to which you, in the name of God, may direct their attention.

You will note that each decree published by The Summit Lighthouse has the following ending:

And in full faith I consciously accept this manifest, manifest, manifest!(3x)* right here and now with full power, eternally sustained, all-powerfully active, ever expanding, and world enfolding until all are wholly ascended in the light and free!

Beloved I AM! Beloved I AM! Beloved I AM!

*Repeat this portion of the sentence three times.

The full acceptance of a decree made manifest in your world is most important, for it is right here in the physical octave that the light of God is needed. Through the giving of decrees, the supplicant draws down the light from higher octaves of perfection to lower octaves of human imperfection.

We do not need to perfect God or his Christ, but we do require change in this world of chaos, disease, unhappiness, and death. These changes can be brought about only by the drawing forth of the light of God and the conscious acceptance of that light which never fails to give man his freedom whenever and wherever he determines to give of his energy in decrees until God can manifest his perfect work in him.

Without consciously accepting the answer to your decrees made manifest, the pure energies of God may very well remain in the higher octaves of being—a matrix unfulfilled in Matter and untethered to the world of material form. The spoken Word is the key to drawing the light from heaven to earth. You will remember that Jesus, when he healed, always spoke the command that released the light in order to manifest on the physical plane that perfection which he acknowledged was already complete in the kingdom of heaven.

In the account of the raising of Lazarus, we note that Jesus employed the power of the spoken Word to release the energy from the plane of Spirit to the plane of Matter for the restoration of the life-force.

It is recorded that "they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me. And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth!"[72] It is also known that he spoke "as one that had authority, and not as the scribes."[73]

The power of the spoken Word is the authority of the creative process itself. The first decree ever given was spoken by God, who said, "Let there be light!" and there was light.[74] The response from the heart of God was instantaneous, and so the divine Logos went forth to manifest as form and consciousness, expanding in the infinite sea of God's being.

Decrees are thus spoken by man because it is the power of the Word—and no other power in the universe—that is able to create, to resurrect, to transmute, and to perfect the divine image in the sons and daughters of God. Therefore, decrees should always be given aloud, and only when it is impossible to do so should they be offered silently.

The light from the Presence is released through various centers or chakras focused in the body of man. As you decree, the power of the Word flows forth from the throat center. This center should be visualized as emitting an electric blue ray. The heart center is animated by the threefold flame; the point at the center of the forehead, which is the focus of the All-Seeing Eye of God (the third eye), is emerald green; and the golden radiance, or halo of the Christ, is at the top of the head.

Concentration is of the utmost importance while decreeing, for it is over the flow of man's attention that the energies of the Presence travel to fulfill the spoken Word. Contrary to the concept of most students who take up the science of giving decrees, concentration is a quality of heart rather than of the mind. Your center of attention should be in the heart flame at all times while you decree, for here is your own individual focus of God's power, wisdom, and love. This practice will avoid mental strain and undue pressure on those chakras that are less developed in Western man.

Decreeing is a function of the heart and of man's devotion. The intellect, which has for far too long ruled the heart in most people, must be reeducated to obey the heart's call and to be obedient to the intuitive powers of the heart, which most often do reflect the inner voice of the Christ Self.

If the attention is riveted on the desired manifestation and the mind's eye is visualizing the decree made manifest, the results will be infinitely more effective than if the mind wanders, the feelings are absorbed in various distractions, and the eyes gaze at random about the room.

As you become more familiar with the words of the decrees, you may close your eyes and see taking place before you the action you are invoking. This process, known as visualization, is based on man's ability to "image forth" or to imagine. Use this creative faculty to "see" each word or descriptive phrase as a thought pattern or "matrix," a "cup" or a "chalice" held steady in heart and mind in order that God's energy may flow into your cup of consciousness to energize and manifest perfection in the world of form.

Each day of the week there is released to the earth from the heart of Alpha and Omega a special concentration of one of the seven rainbow rays of God [see "Notes on the Color Rays"]. As you use the decrees daily, you will be working with the seven rays—the rainbow of light which flows into your world through the prism of the Christ consciousness and manifests as flames.

The flame colors are (1) blue, (2) yellow, (3) pink, (4) white, (5) green, (6) purple and gold, and (7) violet. Visualize these flame colors as tangible, living fire enveloping your mind and body, saturating your world with the God-qualities desired, while cleansing your being of all that is less than His perfection.

Jesus' description of John the Baptist: "He was a burning and a shining light"[75] shows that he recognized the essential nature of the Christed man to be a flame. See yourself, then, as this burning and shining light and remember the promise of John concerning the Christ: "He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire.... The chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable."[76]

John knew that when the Christ came to every man—when the individualized Holy Christ Self was permitted to descend into the crucible of material consciousness and form—the quickening of the sacred fire would occur and the dross of human creation would be consumed, or transmuted, leaving man in his pristine purity, sanctified and whole, clothed upon with the wedding garment,[77] prepared to return to the heart of God through the ritual of the ascension.

This is the grand process of perfectionment. It is won by every son and daughter who determines to reunite with the Father-Mother God through the baptism of the sacred fire. It can and will come to everyone who will apply himself to the giving of decrees each day. To God be the glory and to man the victory!

Five Dynamic Decrees of the Word

Adoration to God

by Lanello

Beloved mighty I AM Presence,
Thou life that beats my heart,
Come now and take dominion,
Make me of thy life a part.
Rule supreme and live forever
In the flame ablaze within;
Let me from thee never sever,
Our reunion now begin.

All the days proceed in order
From the current of thy power,
Flowing forward like a river,
Rising upward like a tower.
I AM faithful to thy love ray
Blazing forth light as a sun;
I AM grateful for thy right way
And thy precious word "Well done."

I AM, I AM, I AM adoring Thee! (3x)
O God, you are so magnificent! (9x)
I AM, I AM, I AM adoring Thee! (3x)

Moving onward to perfection,
I AM raised by love's great grace
To thy center of direction—
Behold, at last I see thy face.
Image of immortal power,
Wisdom, love, and honor, too,
Flood my being now with glory,
Let my eyes see none but you!

O God, you are so magnificent! (3x)
I AM, I AM, I AM adoring Thee! (9x)
O God, you are so magnificent! (3x)

My very own beloved I AM, beloved I AM, beloved I AM.

Golden Victorious Light

by the Cosmic Being Victory

I AM the golden victorious light, the full-orbed flame of illumination from the heart of God that refuses to accept any concept of limitation concerning my eternal reason for being here and now made manifest in the chalice of the present hour.

I AM the radiation of that victory which sweeps across the face of the earth, removing barriers by the power of faith that will not be denied its immortal birthright.

I AM the flame of illumination that sweeps all continents, awakening peoples of every walk of life from the lethargy and sleep of the ages to a vital, breathing awareness of the wisdom that transcends dogma, sense consciousness, and personality functions, threading the eye of the needle with the thread of light-determination whose sewings upon the garments of the Lord of Creation produce elevation, consummation, radiation, purification, and freedom for every man, woman, and child upon this planet.

O world, awake,
Your dusty selves now shake;
Purify and rectify,
New ways of thought to make! (3x or 9x)

Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.

Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart....

Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

Casting out all fear;
I AM thy flame, thy life, thy power
Guarding earth through every hour!

Upon the weary souls of men
And blazing freedom forth to all
Who have the faith to make the call!

3. O come, beloved Holy One,

In memory of the blessed few
Who set example for the age
Upon the earth's historic page!

5. Our union bold we now affirm,
Thy law upon our hearts do burn,
And see that we examples be
Of ascended master purity;
I now confine myself to Thee,
O come reveal Thyself to me!

Notes on the Color Rays

by Kuthumi

The creative power of the universe that emanates from the highest Source is given to the earth beneath in order that man may learn through the alchemy of meditation to change, as your beloved Gautama has indicated, the dust of his world into the destiny of the Eternal.

The stars are your portion, as is the magnificent God flame within your heart. The miniature sun of illumination within is the golden pot at the end of the rainbow of light's extension into your world.

Where light is, there God is, daubing the many colors of the pure white light into a kaleidoscope resembling Joseph's coat of many colors.[78] For of a truth, just as the seamless garment[79] of the Lord Christ Jesus was white indeed, so in his embodiment as Joseph he wore the coat of many colors. The many became the one in the Christ, and out of that Christ light can be drawn forth the many colors of universal perfection.

In a like manner, those who would follow the Christ in the regeneration of the light within may meditate upon the relationship of the colors of the rainbow of light's perfection:

Blue (the first ray) is the token of faith, of promise, of constancy, of power, of strength, of the earnestness of God. It flows out of vast luminous reservoirs into sea and sky. It is Tuesday's blessing to the earth.

Yellow (the second ray) is the melding of the gold and the white as a golden radiance whose glimmer imparts illumination, the consecration of right knowledge, the service of right knowledge, the outshining of the Christ mind, and the establishment of the law of harmonious relations between all peoples and between God and all peoples. It is the ray of the sun sent to the earth on Sunday.

The aurora of the dawn, pink (the third ray), is the symbol of divine love—a love that, as floral token, floods across the plains and graces the bowers of the imagination with a garment of trailing arbutus, the scent of a pink rose.

Love is joyous, buoyant, and beautiful. Through the power of love, men learn how they may impart unto others the beauty and the compassion that they have received from God. In the giving of this charity and beauty, there is no robbery, but only the fair exchange among all souls who are ennobled by the same love that God is. Monday is imbued with this creative power.

The white of purity (the fourth ray) is a stellar radiance. While composing all of the colors of the rainbow, it has its own gigantic sheath that, as a sea of liquid flame, holds before the children of men the longing to be a part of that which can never be contaminated by reason or by deceitful act.

Purity—the mind of God, the nature of God, the character of God, freedom from stain, freedom from blame, the triumphant merging of the many colors into the purity of the One, whiting man toward foreverness, celebrating man's purification on the cross of white fire on Good Friday, the day of freedom when through purity man obtains his freedom from the bonds of limitation.

And what of the green (the fifth ray) imbuing all life with the perfect blend of the yellow and the blue, evidencing the faith and wisdom of God in nature and speaking of eternal newness? The green, the wearing of the green, charges man with the healthful and health-giving chlorophyll of the sun—the fire of the sun and the fire of the power to create locked in a mighty omen of healing green, restoring man to the primal nature of God. Endowed and endowing, the ray of green supplies man with every lack as it penetrates the earth on Wednesday.

The purple and the gold (the sixth ray) are the vestments that imbue man with the desire for cosmic service, emblems symbolical of the priesthood of true believers. The purple speaks of the illumed fire of the soul. This fire must assist every part of life to find reunion with its Source and with the golden law that God has dispensed to men. It is the ministration of the Christ to his disciples, of the servant who is greatest. This twofold action of God's body (purple) and his essence (gold) bathes the earth on Thursday.

When it comes to synthesizing into action the rays of love and power, the pink and the blue, there is born the radiance of the violet flame (the seventh ray). Also called the royal purple, it shows aborning within the consciousness the sense of the mantle.

God has caressed and blessed the individual. Now he must wear the mantle of diplomacy, the robe of tact and of judgment. He must mediate as best he can for lesser men, for those who have not yet advanced to his level of attainment. Whether man, angel, or master, he must serve the cause of freedom delivering men from the bondages they themselves have created.

No thanks must he expect, but only the holding in grateful heart of the feeling of gratitude for more ser vice in order that tomorrow he may give in greater mea sure that which he has given in lesser measure today. Saturday—the day to pause and consider the ritual of freedom.[80]

Transcendence, then, is the nature of the light. And as we draw our meditations into the light, we see that there is much to contemplate. Let us aspire! Let us lift up our heads, for our redemption draweth nigh.

Exercise for the Strengthening of the Aura

To the Student Willing to Experiment with Cosmic Law:

The thrust for a purpose envisioned by Master El Morya should be brought to bear not only upon the activities of the Brotherhood mutually coordinated on earth and in heaven, but also upon the life of each and every student.

One of the first exercises I wish therefore to give to the students for the strengthening of the aura involves a threefold action.

The student begins by visualizing the threefold flame expanding from within his heart [see illustration of the threefold flame], he then seals himself and his consciousness in a globe of white fire, and when he is set, he proceeds to recite the following words with utter humility and devotion:

I AM light, glowing light,
Radiating light, intensified light.
God consumes my darkness,
Transmuting it into light.

This day I AM a focus of the Central Sun.
Flowing through me is a crystal river,
A living fountain of light
That can never be qualified
By human thought and feeling.
I AM an outpost of the Divine.
Such darkness as has used me is swallowed up
By the mighty river of light which I AM!

I AM, I AM, I AM light.
I live, I live, I live in light.
I AM light's fullest dimension;
I AM light's purest intention.
I AM light, light, light
Flooding the world everywhere I move,
Blessing, strengthening, and conveying
The purpose of the kingdom of heaven.

As you visualize the cosmic white-fire radiance around yourself, do not be concerned with the errors in your thought that through the years may have intruded themselves upon your consciousness. Do not allow yourself to concentrate upon any negative quality or condition. Do not let your attention rest upon your supposed imperfections.

Instead, see what the light can do for you. See how even your physical form can change, how a strengthening of the bonds of your health can occur in body, mind, and spirit.

Try this exercise, simple though it may seem, and know that many ascended beings will be performing it with you.

So many times adults fear to be thought childlike.[81] They would rather appear to be worldly-wise and sophisticated—if they only knew that they are running from deep-seated fears and insecurities which they have buried beneath the clamor of social doings. Surely with all they know about the physical universe, their environment, and the patterns of the mind, they must be able to reveal how great they really are!

But, dear hearts, what a shock some men and women are in for when they shall come face to face with the blazing truth of reality and realize that so much of what they have learned must be unlearned and that what they have thought to be their own greatness must be sacrificed upon the altar of the true greatness of the Christ Self. Then, perhaps, they will compare that which they do not yet know with that which they do know, and they will see how very lacking in luster they are in the eyes of the cosmic hierarchy.

It is not needful to impress the masters with any quality you may have. Heaven already knows exactly what you are above and below. Heaven already knows that you were made in God's image and likeness.

If you return to that image in a simple, sweet, and childlike manner, I can promise you that heaven will not allow you an overabundance of time in which to function in the domain of the child, but it will elevate you into the consciousness of a mature son or daughter of God.

While you maintain the attitude of the child, you will be able to do something for yourself that will be both valuable and valid; you will be able to loose the ties that bind you to your egocentricities, until at last the little bird of the soul shall flit into the heavens and behold the glory of the eternal sun.

We in our Brotherhood of the Golden Robe are devoted to the freeing of those who are yet enmeshed in the vain aspects of the human consciousness. That they may develop spiritually, free at last to express the purposes of life as God intends them to do, is our prayer.

God the Original Decreer

by the Messengers

"God's Decrees are the wise, free, and holy acts of the counsel of His will, whereby from all eternity, he hath, for his own glory, unchangeably fore-ordained whatsoever comes to passe in time."[82] These words of a man of God published in 1648 set forth the irrefutable fact that God himself was the first decreer and that he is the decreer par excellence.

When we consider that all that takes place in time and space which we observe as the effect of First Cause came forth in the beginning by the decree of God's will, then we must acknowledge that indispensable to the creation is the decree—the fiat of the LORD which accompanies each creative act. This spoken Word that comes forth from the Godhead is the Word without whom "was not any thing made that was made."[83]

If God in all of his omnipotence heeds the mandate of the spoken Word and does not fail to employ that Word each time he creates, can man as a co-creator with God fail to follow his example? Whatever man desires to bring to pass in time, he must invoke from the Godhead by decree; and whatever creation he calls forth, if it is to endure, must be invoked by divine decree in the name of the Christ from the heart of the Father-Mother God.

If God is the original decreer, then man made in his image and likeness[84] must also be the decreer of that which comes to pass on earth. And this he must do if he is to obey the injunction of the LORD "Take dominion over the earth."[85]

It is therefore the duty and the solemn responsibility of man and woman to give voice to the decrees of God, to affirm his law and his truth by the power of his name—I AM. Man who would become Godlike must put on the consciousness of his Maker and become all that he has declared of true being from the beginning.

Not only are decrees fiats of the divine will, but they are also a challenge of all darkness, of Antichrist himself[86] and the personification of evil (as the energy veil) in the Liar and the lie.[87] Therefore, in the quaint words of a sixteenth-century theologian, "All the Devils deepe in hell, at his Decrees doe quake."[88]

Thomas More, a more well-known man of letters, spoke of the Adversary in this wise: "The devill, that prowd spirite, he can not endure to be mokqued [mocked]."[89]

Decrees of truth and light which call for the exposure of the Evil One are a mockery of the proud and the ambitious who fell with the "son of the morning."[90] This is that Lucifer who is "cut down to the ground" and who shall be "brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit"[91] by the decree of the LORD of hosts, as it is written in the Book of Isaiah. "For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?"[92]

Decrees are the word of the testimony of the saints whereby they overcome the Devil according to the original fiat of God's will. If God had not first ordained the binding of Satan (the personification of the carnal mind in a planet and its people), then the decrees of man could not bring it to pass.

But because he has decreed an end to the activities of Satan, all mankind may implement that holy will by the power of the spoken Word, "the word of their testimony."[93] This mutuality, this interaction of the release of the spoken Word through God and man, is the fulfillment of all prophecy as above, so below.

Let us now consider how God through his emissary Lord Maitreya has increased the action of the spoken Word by the power of the ten thousand-times-ten thousand in these latter days for the shortening of the days "for the elect's sake."[94]

The Power of the Ten Thousand-Times-Ten Thousand

by the Messengers

On July 1, 1961, at the Freedom conference held in Washington, D.C., Lord Maitreya released a fiat of tremendous importance to the students of light for all time to come. We quote for you here a portion of his dictation:

"I, Maitreya, say to you today that the ascended masters, in the great deliberations and the councils of the Great White Brotherhood, have determined that human tyranny has too long held sway over the mass mind. Therefore we have asked for a great petition whereby the student body today shall be given that which is known as the full power of the ten thousand-times-ten thousand!

"From this day henceforward, every decree that you utter shall be increased by the power of the ten thousand-times-ten thousand!

"I, Maitreya, declare that those who give decrees from this day forward shall be creating a tremendous, impelling, swiftly moving acceleration which shall sweep through the earthly consciousness of mankind and compel this earth free!

"It is determined by the Great Cosmic Law that this earth shall not submit to the tyranny of human consciousness—which in itself, while it is intelligent substance to a degree, is not ascended master discriminating intelligence. Therefore, it has no power! It has no power! It has no power! And I say that you must cut yourself free from that consciousness by a conscious, joyful entering in to our thoughts, by entering in to the thought of God about you!"[95]

The significance of this dispensation is almost beyond comprehension. For it has to do with the geometric multiplication of energy potential from this octave to the next, from the level of the human consciousness to the ascended masters' octave, and the return of that energy by the power of decrees to our dimension where God's power can work tremendous changes which bless and heal the entire planetary body.

Ten thousand-times-ten thousand equals one hundred million. Think, then, of the infinite power of God and of the focusing of his energy through the invocations of mankind below and the amplifications of the ascended masters above. You will soon realize that those who are attempting to work changes in the world of form that will overcome disease, poverty, inequality, and war have at their disposal the greatest power for good ever known to man.

Every time a student of the ascended masters utters a decree of light released through the spoken Word by the power of the sacred fire and God's name, I AM, he may benefit one hundred million people—almost one-third of the people in the United States.[96] When the decree is given three times, it has the added impetus of the power of the three-times-three.

The transcendent power of decrees to effect change in the world of form is scarcely realized by unascended mankind. For it is sometimes difficult for people to comprehend the power of invisible forces, albeit these do become visible and tangible after a certain period of concentrated use of the sacred fire.

The masters have explained that in order for them to serve mankind in the physical octave, individuals are required by cosmic law to give their energy through prayers or decrees to the hosts of light. The energy released in the giving of decrees is then amplified by the angelic hosts who have been called upon for assistance.

Man was given free will to be the authority for his world, that is, for the plane of Matter. Therefore, God does not step in to alter conditions of injustice and unhappiness unless called upon by man, who then, through his free will, elects to have God take the reins of authority and direct his life. Jesus accomplished this transfer of authority from the personal to the Divine when he said, "Father, not my will, but thine be done."[97]

Thus man's free will may be defined as the opportunity to choose God to be the doer or to choose the opposite by abiding in human consciousness and allowing the human ego to "rule the roost." In choosing the latter course, individuals cut themselves off from the Divine Source of power, wisdom, and love until, through experiencing hardship and the emptiness of a self-centered existence, they turn once more to embrace the Beloved One, the mighty I AM Presence.

Those who love to give decrees, those who know the great onrush of light which is released by God into every human condition that is less than perfection through invocations made in the name of the mighty I AM Presence to the ascended masters, give gladly and freely of their time and energy to this service.

The use of the names of many cosmic beings, ascended masters, angels, and vital forces of the infinite One God does intensify the action of the decrees. How is this done? We have been taught all of our lives to believe there is only one God and we ourselves know there is only one God.

Jesus said, "If two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."[98]

The power of three, according to cosmic law, is more intense than the power of one and serves to magnetize a greater concentration of the sacred fire. Whereas the power of one squared equals one, the power of three squared equals nine, because the I AM is in the midst of them; thus we begin to understand in part the mystical power of the three-times-three.

When nine people come together, the power of intensity is equal to nine squared again, because the Christ is in their midst. Thus the power of the group is increased eighty-one times that of any individual member. It is easy to see that the greater the number of people gathered together, the greater is the blow struck for the LORD.

It is no strange thing, then, that as you call to many cosmic beings who are ascended, you not only receive the God-radiation of your own mighty I AM Presence and the God-radiation of the mighty I AM Presence in the Great Central Sun, but you also add to that great power because each of these ascended beings has externalized a focus of some specific God-quality. This is how God himself multiplies his power—through bringing "many sons into captivity." This is how the One God becomes the many in manifestation (in manifest action).

Where the multiplication of the Godhead is concerned—the breaking of the bread of the whole loaf into many portions or into the parts of God that comprise humanity—souls evolving on earth, serving the One God, receive more power as greater and greater numbers of humanity ascend back to the Godhead and contribute their momentum of good to the leavening of the whole loaf.

Beloved Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you ... that where I AM, there ye may be also" and "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do: because I go unto my Father."[99]

Each ascended master, having returned to the heart of the Father, intensifies through the qualification of the prism of his individualized ascended master consciousness a greater action of light. This is the beehive of cosmic activity.

"Command Ye Me!"

by the Messengers

We read in the Book of Isaiah the word of the Lord which came to the prophet "I AM the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded[100] thee, though thou hast not known me."[101] If man did not require the girding of the LORD—a circle of protection that God alone is qualified to give—then the LORD would not make provision for it when man does not even know him.

The following verse makes clear the requirement of the Law regarding the manifestation of God's grace and his protection:

Thus saith the LORD

the Law of the Word,

The Holy One of Israel

the Sacred Unifier (the One Fire) of all that is real

And his Maker

the Originator of man—the I AM Presence,

Ask me of things to come concerning my sons

Ask me for dispensations of mercy on behalf of my offspring,

And concerning the work of my hands,

COMMAND YE ME. [102]

Here God is asking you not only to petition him for grace and mercy that these might abound on earth as in heaven, but also to command him—to command his energy to do his will in and through you, to work his works upon earth and in your life. He is, in fact, telling you that you must command him to descend into your being if you would experience him in consciousness.

Why is this so? The reason is plain: God gave you the gift of free will and the responsibility to take dominion over the earth,[103] thereby relinquishing his own jurisdiction in the footstool kingdom.[104]

If, in the daily exercise of free will and in the course of taking dominion over the earth, you desire the assistance of the Most High, you must command him to descend into your world, into your life, in the same manner as Jesus taught his disciples to pray—in the imperative—saying, "Thy kingdom come! Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven!"[105]

By consciously, willingly uniting your forces with God's, making your will one with and subject to the divine, and then commanding the Almighty to enter your world and to exercise his dominion, you return to him the authority that he gave to you.

In this manner the soul is infilled and infired with the Spirit of God and you become the supreme manifestation of God's authority, his will, and his dominion on earth. The ritual of asking that you might receive, of seeking that you might find, of knocking that the door might be opened,[106] is the key to self-mastery through conscious cooperation with God.

If you would conquer the synthetic image in self and society, you must replace the relics of its sinful sense of subservience to an angry, vengeful god with the scientific understanding of the cosmic law that states "The call compels the answer." The real God has challenged man to prove this law in his daily life: "Prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it!"[107]

This "proving of the LORD" you can do by the authority of the divine Logos, the universal Christ made personal through the individual Christ Self and through all who have ever overcome the world as Jesus did in his personification of the Son of God. In his name, therefore, you can and ought to invoke the sacred fire of the Spirit of God and command it to elevate the soul into oneness with the divine Mediator.

If you find it hard to believe that mortals could be vested with the authority to command God, let us explain that when the LORD says, "Command ye me," he is speaking directly to the Real Man whom he hath made and not to the synthetic image.

"But," you may say, "I am not yet fully manifesting the Real Man." The Beloved Disciple, who was closest to our Lord in his devotion to the Christ, has explained: "Until your synthetic consciousness is replaced by the real, you have 'an advocate with the Father,'[108] the Christ, in whose name you may, with the full authority of your God Presence, command the energies of the Holy Spirit into action."

The Christ Self, truly beloved of God as the Mediator of man's divinity, is the instrument for the alchemical transformation of the four lower bodies and the evolution of the soul consciousness. As you invoke the light of God in his name, the Mediator descends into the forcefield of your evolving consciousness and speaks the sacred Word through you that proves the Law as above, so below in the abundant manifestation of the abundant life. The Christ, then, is the perfect gift which cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom (with whose Law) is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.[109]

Because they have been found worthy to be received by God, all who are made one with the Real Image are worthy to command him into action in the world of form. You may therefore command the LORD not only in the name of Jesus the Christ, but also in the name of every ascended and cosmic being who has won his immortal freedom through the reunion of the soul with the Christ and with the Spirit of the I AM Presence.

Commands made in the name of the ascended sons and daughters of God, then, are an acceptable sacrifice unto the living God. They replace the supposed need for either burnt offerings or animal or human sacrifice,[110] which for centuries both before and since the Christian dispensation have been placed on the altar of the Most High in the mistaken belief that these are required as a propitiation for the sins of the race.

Although the LORD had made known to Abraham that he did not require the sacrifice of his only son, although he had clearly spoken through his prophet Samuel, "Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams,"[111] the influence of this ancient custom prevailed even to the time of Jesus. And the erroneous doctrine concerning the blood sacrifice of Jesus[112]—which he himself never taught—has been perpetuated to the present hour, a remnant of pagan rite long refuted by the Word of the LORD.

God the Father did not require the sacrifice of his son Christ Jesus, or of any other incarnation of the Christ, as an atonement for the sins of the world; nor is it possible according to cosmic law for any man's sacrifice to balance either the original sin or the subsequent sins—the karma—of the one or the many.

However, one man's sacrifice of the lower self—resulting in the soul's sublime reunion with the Christ—can set aside the return of individual and planetary karma for a prescribed period of grace wherein the mercy of the Law gives mankind an extended opportunity to make the selfsame sacrifice of the human consciousness for the divine.

Only the right use of the power of the spoken Word, the divine Logos, can atone for mankind's sins. Only the light of the Holy Spirit that flows through the body of Christ (for which the body and the blood are symbols)[113] can transform the mortal into the immortal. Therefore, only the sacrifice of the misqualified energies of the electronic belt[114] through the ritual of transmutation can redeem the Christ light in man.

Truly, man sacrifices his Christ-identity when he fails to offer the sacred Word to the Almighty "in remembrance of me."[115] Truly, he is unredeemed until he partakes of the sacred fire Eucharist and invokes through his being the consecrated essence of the Father-Mother God.

It behooves us, therefore, to pray as the Psalmist of old, "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable [offerings] in thy sight, O LORD, my strength and my redeemer."[116]

The following commands are examples of the acceptable Word of the LORD that may be spoken by and through man:

In the name of the only begotten Son of the Father manifest in every child of the Father-Mother God, I command the Almighty to send peace on earth and goodwill unto the righteous!

In the name of Jesus the Christ, I command the light of God to expand in the hearts of all mankind, to restore the memory of their divine inheritance, and to fulfill their God-design!

In the name of Saint Germain, I command the freedom flame from the heart of the Almighty to expand and envelop the earth and to inspire every man, woman, and child to claim their immortal freedom, their Christ Self-awareness, and the God-victorious manifestation of their divine plan fulfilled!

In the name of Archangel Michael, I command the full-gathered momentum of cosmic power, wisdom, and love from the very center of the LORD's universal creative potential to protect the children of the light, the God-ordained governments of the nations, and every constructive endeavor upon the planet with the light of God that never fails!

In the name of Lord Buddha, I command you, O God, to do this holy thing through me!

In the name of the Christ Selves of all mankind, I command the Almighty to move into action to take dominion over the lives and activities of the youth of the world and to lead them as thou didst the children of Israel into the Land of Promise fulfilled through the true teachings of the Christ!

In the name of the saints and ascended beings of all ages and by the full power of their momentum of devotion to the light, I command the Cosmic Christ consciousness of the Almighty to expand in the hearts and minds of all who are ready to receive him as a little child!

In the name of Mother Mary, I command the Father-Mother God to produce an Ascended Jesus Christ miracle of perfection now made manifest in a golden age of enlightenment and peace!

All who have reunited with the Godhead through the ritual of the ascension—because they are one with God, hence God in action—may also be commanded in the name of God and his Christ. Thus it is acceptable to the heavenly hosts and to the Most High to receive the mandates of unascended souls to step into action in the world of material form in the service of the LORD.

By cosmic law these servants of God and his Christ are not permitted to intercede for and on behalf of mankind unless they are invoked in the name of one or more persons of the Trinity. It is therefore altogether correct and acceptable to pray:

In the name of Almighty God, I command the full-gathered momentum of light from the heart of Archangel Michael and his legions of blue lightning to descend into the earth and take command this day!

Take command of all forces of antichrist and all that opposes the manifestation of the light of the Divine Manchild in every soul abiding here!

We beseech thee, thou Defender of the Faith, in the name of the Christ, the only begotten Son of the Father-Mother God, to let the will of God be done, let the love of God appear, and let the wisdom of God be known throughout the four corners of the earth and in every nation.

By the threefold power of liberty's flame, Set the captives free!

We thank thee and accept it done this hour in the full power and name of the Holy Spirit! Amen.

The Dispensation of the Violet Flame

by El Morya

Chelas Who Would Also Come to Darjeeling:

Mankind living in the world today assume that recorded history is what it is and that it cannot be changed. They have not reckoned with the violet transmuting flame.

This flame is the energy of the sacred fire that is the gift of the Ascended Master Saint Germain to chelas of the will of God in this age. The dispensation for the release of the violet flame into the hands and use of the students in this century came forth from the Lords of Karma because Saint Germain went before that august body to plead the cause of freedom for and on behalf of mankind. He offered to the Lords of Karma the momentum of the violet flame garnered within his heart chakra and within his causal body as a momentum of light energy to be given to mankind that they might experiment with the alchemy of self-transformation through the sacred fire.

The violet flame has always been used in the retreats of the Great White Brotherhood situated on the etheric plane —the highest plane of Matter—where the ascended masters preside, receiving only the most worthy chelas for instruction and training in the way of initiation. Those who were found worthy—adherents of the various religions, members of secret societies, communicants of the flame in the mystery schools—were given the knowledge of the violet flame after having proved themselves to be selfless as both receivers and givers of freedom on the path of soul liberation.

Thus the violet flame was reserved for the privileged few up until the time when Saint Germain came before the Lords of Karma with the proposal to make the knowledge and use of the violet flame available to all mankind. He boldly stated before the Court of the Sacred Fire, arguing as the advocate for earth's evolutions, that the violet flame would revolutionize the human race and make of that race a divine race of God-free beings.

Indeed, Saint Germain envisioned an "I AM race"[117] being raised up as the forerunners of the seventh root race under the Great Divine Director. This blessed master of freedom who had sponsored the birth of the nation called the United States of America—this guardian of the Christ consciousness who had walked the earth as the protector of Mary and Jesus, this Saint Joseph, this Uncle Sam[118]—foresaw the land of America from north to south, and eventually the entire hemisphere, as the land that was destined to be a haven for the Divine Mother and her progeny.

Inasmuch as he was destined to be the Master of the Aquarian Age and the God of Freedom to the earth, the Lords of Karma agreed to the master plan with the following stipulation. First they would release the violet flame to a certain nucleus of devotees in embodiment who would vow at inner levels to use that flame honorably for the blessing and the freedom of all life. If this experiment proved successful, they would allow the knowledge of the flame to be made available to the masses.

I am here to tell you that the dispensation could never have been granted for chelas to invoke this flame outside the retreats of the Great White Brotherhood had it not been for the fact that Saint Germain offered upon the altar of humanity the collateral of his own personal momentum of the energies of freedom garnered within his soul for thousands of years.

For you see, when the Lords of Karma granted the dispensation through the intercession of this anointed one, they were fully aware that, given free will and given mankind's propensity to misuse that free will, it was altogether possible that certain numbers among mankind would misuse these sacred energies as they had done in the past in the days of ancient Lemuria and Atlantis. Were this to occur, someone would have to make up the difference.

Saint Germain understood this principle of cosmic law only too well. For the sake of the few and eventually the many who would make resplendent use of the violet flame, he was willing to forgo and to sacrifice that portion of his momentum that would be misused and to chalk up that misuse as a necessary expenditure in the laboratory of mankind's consciousness.

He was thereby in effect underwriting the experiments not only of the alchemists of the sacred fire with whom he had personally worked through the centuries, but also of the populace who would both use and misuse the alchemical fires ere coming into the enlightenment of the Christ mind and that centeredness in the Christ flame which is necessary for the responsible use of the violet flame.

Now you who are living in the advancing decades of the [twentieth] century [and beyond] are the beneficiaries of this legacy of Saint Germain bought with a price[119]—the overwhelming love of the Master Saint Germain, whose love for you even before you took embodiment was such that he was willing to lay down a portion of his life that you might live in the fullness of your individual God Self-awareness.

Furthermore, you owe a debt of gratitude to the early devotees who did in fact call forth the flame with intense purity and devotion to the cause of mankind's freedom and therefore made possible the second phase of the dispensation whereby you and countless others have been given the knowledge of the violet flame in recent years.

Wherever you are, as you read my words you can begin to experience the marvelous action of the violet fire coursing through your veins, penetrating the layers of the physical temple—the bloodstream, the nervous system, the brain—pressing through the chakras, swirling through the etheric body, passing over the pages of the written record of your incarnations on earth.

Line by line, letter by letter, the flame—intelligent, luminous, directed by the mind of God—sets free the energies, electron by electron, of all past misuses of the sacred fire. And thus not one jot or tittle of the law of karma shall pass until all be fulfilled[120] in the freedom of the violet fire.

If you would have the benefit of this miraculous energy, if you would be visited by the genie of the lamp of freedom, the Master Saint Germain himself, you have but to make the call. For the fiat of Almighty God has gone forth, and it is cosmic law: The call compels the answer!

But the call is a very special call. It is not the demand of the human consciousness but the command of your Real Self, your own true being, the Mediator between the I AM Presence and the soul. Thus you declare:

"In the name of the Christ Self and in the name of the living God, I call forth the energies of the sacred fire from the altar within my heart. In the name of the I AM THAT I AM, I invoke the violet flame to blaze forth from the center of the threefold flame, from the white-fire core of my own I AM Presence, multiplied by the momentum of the blessed Ascended Master Saint Germain.

"I call forth that light to penetrate my soul and to activate my soul memory of freedom and the original blueprint of my soul's destiny. I call forth the violet transmuting flame to pass through my four lower bodies and through my soul consciousness to transmute the cause and core of all that is less than my Christ-perfection, all that is not in keeping with the will of God for my lifestream.

"So let it be done by the cloven tongues of the fire of the Holy Spirit[121] in fulfillment of the action of that sacred fire as above, so below. And I accept it done this hour in the full power of the living God who even now declares within my soul, 'I AM WHO I AM.'"

The violet flame comes forth from that aspect of the white light which is called the seventh ray. It is indeed the seventh-ray aspect of the Holy Spirit. Just as the sunlight passing through a prism is refracted into the rainbow of the seven color rays, so in the consciousness of the Holy Spirit the light of the Christ is refracted for mankind's use in the planes of Matter.

Each of the seven rays is a concentrated action of the light of God having a specific color and frequency resulting in a specific action of the Christ in body, mind, and soul. We shall consider the other six aspects of the sacred fire as our course unfolds.[122]

Now let us examine what happens when the specific of the violet fire is applied to the recalcitrant conditions of the human consciousness. When, as an act of your free will, you make the call to the violet flame and you surrender these unwanted, untoward conditions into the flame, the fire instantaneously begins the work of breaking down particles of substance that are part of the mass accumulation of hundreds and even thousands of incarnations when in ignorance you allowed to register—through your consciousness, through your attention, thoughts and feelings, words and actions—all of the degrading conditions to which the human race is heir.

I trust that I need not enumerate the seemingly endless but altogether finite qualities of limitation thrust upon the ethers—projectiles of the carnal mind—that have filled the wide-open spaces between the electrons and the nuclei of the atoms with the densities of mankind's carnality.

Believe it or not, this energy can be as hard as concrete or as sticky as molasses as it registers in all of the four lower bodies, causing mental recalcitrance, hardness of heart, a lack of sensitivity to the needs of others and creating a dense mass that prevents the soul from receiving the delicate impartations of the Holy Spirit.

So thick is the wall of mankind's density, of layer upon layer of their misuses of the sacred fire, that they don't even recognize the ascended masters as their liberators nor are they able to make contact with the blessed Christ Self, their own mediator of perfection who would confirm the reality of the ascended masters.

When the violet flame is invoked, it loosens the dense substance and passes through and transforms that darkness into light. Since every human condition is the perversion of a divine condition, line for line, measure for measure, the human consciousness is changed into the divine and the energy that was locked in pockets of mortality is freed to enter the sockets of immortality. And each time a measure of energy is freed, a measure of a man ascends to the plane of God-awareness.

As you begin to use the violet flame, you will experience feelings of joy, lightness, hope, and newness of life as though clouds of depression were being dissolved by the very sun of your own being. And the oppression of the very dark, dank energies of human bondage literally melts in the fervent heat of freedom's violet fires.

Lord Zadkiel, archangel of the seventh ray, made certain that the chelas of the new age would understand the joyousness of the flame, and so he called it the violet singing flame. Indeed, this flaming presence causes the very atoms and molecules of your being to "sing" as they resume their normal frequency and are therefore brought into "pitch" with the keynote of your own lifestream.

This keynote is the sounding of the chord of your own I AM Presence. And when, by the action of the violet flame, you free the energies of your four lower bodies to respond to that chord, the wonderful world of the microcosm moves in harmony with the grand Macrocosm of your I AM Presence and causal body.

The violet flame forgives as it frees, consumes as it transmutes, clears the records of past karma (thus balancing your debts to life), equalizes the flow of energy between yourself and other lifestreams, and propels you into the arms of the living God.

Day by day you are ascending higher and higher in the planes of consciousness of your Christ Self as you use the scrubbing action of the violet flame and feel how the very walls of your mental body are scoured. You can think of the action in your desire body as though your emotions were being dunked in a chemical solution of purple liquid which dissolves the dirt that has accumulated for decades about the latticework of your feeling world.

Every day in every way the violet flame flushes out and renews your body cells, the cells of your mind, and the globule of your soul, polishing the jewel of consciousness until it glistens in the sunlight, dazzling as a pure molecule of being offered upon the altar of the sacred fire as an offering that is fitting for the LORD—your gift to God and man.

And what better gift is there than the gift of selfhood? In reality, this is all that you have to offer. And so when you use the violet flame, you are laying down the impoverished self, the lesser self, that the self that is real might act to increase the blessings of God's consciousness worlds without end.

I recommend that you use the violet flame in the name and in the flame of Saint Germain. And in his words I say to all who would be chelas of the will of God, try. For as the Master Alchemist has said, in the word try is the sacred formula of being: Theos = God, Rule = Law, You = Being; Theos + Rule + You = God's Law Active as Principle within Your Being (TRY). [123]

Let the energies of the violet flame unlock our true self even as they sweep away the encrustations of the synthetic self. Let the violet flame work in you the works of God.

Exponent of the Freedom of God's Will

The Violet Transmuting Flame

by Saint Germain

To All Devotees of the Violet Flame's Perfection
I Address Myself:

Seldom do mankind realize the glorious wisdom of the mind of God that has contrived the violet transmuting flame in all of its cosmic unfolding glory. It is difficult for the world in its present state of development to fully comprehend from the level of the human consciousness or through the power of the human mind those momentous, invisible actions and activities of the sacred fires of God.

You are not dealing with a figment of your imagination when you deal with the violet transmuting flame. When you gaze at mass accumulations of vapor floating lazily in the sky and producing the constantly changing panorama of cloud capers, you are able to conceive that on the spur of the moment what seems a billowing froth of air may become a turbulence of unforeseen destruction.

When the average individual calls the violet transmuting flame into action, he does not have the power to perceive the dancing stream of electrons which perform on the stage of his consciousness, nor is he aware of the tremendous cosmic energy involved therein. Even some of you do not realize this great potential that transcends both time and space and produces in the now of your life's adventure a blessed action of transmutation or cosmic change that moves you a step forward on the Path.

This is accomplished as the flame consumes the negative storehouses of energy that reside in your subconscious world and produce those disquieting manifestations which you have often lamented. Thus the flame prepares the way through the divine leveling process for the erection in their place of the most benign and constructive endeavors which your heart may desire.

It is difficult for humanity to pray or even to aspire to cosmic heights of thought and service when there is no established precedent in the forcefield of the individual mind to act as a guideline for developing in man the quality of asking for what he ought to ask.

In this Pearl of instruction I am setting forth before you the fact that in reality there are in the subconscious world of even the greatest of saints hidden chambers of astral horror which require transmutation. In an unguarded moment these can and often do break forth upon the surface of being into a state of alignment with the most vicious and destructive negative forces on the planet.

Just as mankind who are wise seek a catharsis in their physical as well as their emotional body to purge them from residual substance, so it is essential that they purify their entire consciousness through calling into action the blessed violet flame, which focuses the forgiving, transmuting power of God.

Many devotees, unbeknownst to themselves, succeed in invoking the violet flame through the power of intercessory prayer and do call forth those activities of the sacred fire of God which in the West are usually termed the action of the Holy Spirit and which in the East are related to the destruction of all that is unreal and the purification of the veil of maya by Lord Shiva.

Always remember, beloved ones, that exposure to the divine flames or the invocation of spiritual power, wisdom, and love in your world can never alter or harm any part of your being that is a manifestation of universal perfection. All that can be exposed or brought down are the forcefields of human thought and feeling which reinforce the strongholds of Satan and the seeds of Lucifer in the individual mind and heart.

Let us take for example a manifestation of that which is often prevalent in orthodox churches: self-righteousness and the defense of that righteousness. The followers of various religions do not hesitate to level at one another the most vile accusations involving twists of human doctrine and justifications of their own pet version of the will of God. They fight and spat like feline creatures and cast out of the window of their lives gentle thoughts of forgiving love as well as the opportunity for increased understanding.

Can you not see how silly this is for mankind who profess to do the will of God, [who profess] to espouse the cause of brotherhood and the healing ministry of the Christ, to allow themselves to enter into a frame of mind wherein they consider heaven itself unable to defend the living Truth?

Take great care, then, beloved ones, to hold yourselves in a sweet and childlike spirit of obedience to the will of God, to be not overly inclined to rush to the defense of Truth. For Truth is its own best defense—not that we do not appreciate loyalty, but we have an equal appreciation for good behavior.

Mankind's indoctrination with the Luciferian spirit of rebellion is no part of the instruction of the living God. The force of rebellion is chaotic and robs man of his peace.

How glorious it is when mankind pursue the outworking of the harmony of inner spheres in their lives and in their associations with others. Then they are able to clear the way before their own advancement in life and to perceive the universal intent as it manifests perfection's die. Thus are stamped upon the human image those aspects of the Divine that carry man back to his own Eden of perfection, at the same time propelling him forward in those adroit manifestations of life that show forth the self-mastery of the adept.

From time to time we have actually toyed with the idea of developing in man greater power over the elements and over the manifestations of nature. We have thought in effect to teach the neophyte how to bend the will of the universe in such a manner as to give him greater mastery that he might hasten the victory of mankind.

Whenever we have given serious consideration to this question, we have sought, as is our custom, the advice of the Karmic Board and of those universal intelligences who are beyond us in the cosmic evolutionary scale. And in every case we have been admonished to search the akashic records and perceive that mankind in their lack of understanding have always misused such power when it was given to them.

In the name of heaven, blessed ones, the record clearly shows that humanity have misused their spiritual powers and forfeited their adeptship in its embryonic state even when they had great spiritual knowledge. Hence we have asked that the consciousness of mankind should be satisfied—especially those who revere the will of God—with the development in themselves of the beauty of wisdom's ray so that there might take place, along with their spiritual development, an adherence to wisdom's ray right while their latent spiritual powers are literally exploding.

In the past, many among mankind have sought to develop their spiritual powers long before they developed their spiritual wisdom. When people do this it becomes necessary for the Karmic Lords to fling them back upon the shores of life until such a time as they are able to follow the prescribed path.

Therefore, I urge you, one and all, not to overlook at any stage in your development the use of the violet transmuting flame. For through the flame much can be consumed upon the altar of being that will thereby be deprived of the opportunity of acting in your world.

Embodied mankind will find, if they will take the time to experiment with this law, that they will be able to curb the manifestation of negative karma in their life by invoking the consuming power of the Holy Spirit in this most direct and specific application to man's needs that clears the way for the unfoldment of his latent spiritual powers.

By commending yourselves unto the Good Shepherd of Righteousness, by commending yourselves unto the laws of infinite perfection manifesting in your finite realms, you begin the process of correctly using the highest laws that are outworking perfection so beautifully in our sphere.

May I extend to you divine felicitations upon the Path even as I pray that you will ever keep open the doorways of mind and heart to the unfoldment of both the universal will and the universal purpose. Thus a God Star born in your heart as a miniature focus of the Great Central Sun will become the diamond-shining mind of God through the impartation of those points of awareness that are so closely identified with the cosmic compass of universal purpose.

I am striving with you for your development upon the pathway of devotion and service to the causes of the Brotherhood and the one Cause of God which we seek to glorify.

Devotedly, your servant

Sanctus Germanus

The Violet Flame

by the Messengers

The violet all-consuming flame is the seventh-ray aspect of the Holy Spirit. It emerges from the white-fire core as the omnipotent love of the blue that combines with the omnipresent power of the pink,[124] refracted in the prism of the Christ consciousness, accomplishing the perfect work of the truth that makes every man free.

This quality of the sacred fire is truly the universal unguent that man can apply for the healing of his entire consciousness, being, and world. Enshrined as the freedom flame for the coming two-thousand-year cycle by the Master Saint Germain, the violet transmuting flame enables man to win his freedom from every form of human bondage.

Dubbed the violet singing flame by Lord Zadkiel, it makes the very atoms of the four lower bodies "sing" in harmony with the divine blueprint and with the keynote of the Electronic Presence as the tiny electrons whirl in orbit at the perfect pitch of the pattern of soul-identity.

The violet flame is the spiritual wine of forgiveness, the quality of mercy that, as Portia said, "is not strain'd," that

"Droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath: it is twice blest;
It blesseth him that gives and him that takes."[125]

When the violet flame is invoked by unascended man, it envelops each atom of his being individually. Instantaneously a polarity is set up between the nucleus of the atom (which, being Matter, assumes the negative pole) and the white-fire core of the flame (which, being Spirit, assumes the positive pole).

The dual action of the light in the nucleus of the atom and the light in the enveloping violet flame establishes an oscillation that causes the untransmuted densities to be dislodged from between the electrons. As this substance is loosened, at nonphysical, or "metaphysical," dimensions of matter, the electrons begin to vibrate with an increased amount of energy, throwing the misqualified substance into the violet flame.

On contact with this fiery essence of freedom's flame, the misqualified energy is transmuted and God's energy is restored to its native purity. Relieved of the patterns of imperfection and restored to the plus-minus balance of Alpha and Omega, this energy of the Holy Spirit is returned to the individual's causal body, where it is stored until he elects to use it once again to bring forth the noble work of the Christ "on earth as it is in heaven."

The violet fire and tube of light can be called forth in the name of the Christ from the heart of God and from the individual causal body by anyone who will make the necessary contact and application through the threefold flame within the heart. Concerning the benefits of these specific actions of the flame, Kuthumi said, "If everyone knew how to use the tube of light and the violet consuming flame and believed in this method of self-transformation, I am certain that the world would be a different place."[126]

Ten for Transmutation

by the Masters of Freedom

For a heavenly alchemical experiment in the laboratory of your soul, give the body of each of these ten decrees to the violet flame thirty-three times. (The preamble and the ending are given once.) Each day this scientific ritual is performed, you will note the acceleration of God-freedom within the temple of your being. Thus, in this age of Aquarius's dawning, you will experience the fulfillment of the word of the LORD to the prophet Samuel and of the mission of Melchizedek, King of Salem, Priest of the Most high God.

More Violet Fire

by Hilarion

My Perpetual Mantra
The Unending River of Violet Flame

Lovely God Presence, I AM in me,
Hear me now I do decree:
Bring to pass each blessing for which I call Upon the Holy Christ Self of each and all.

Let violet fire of freedom roll
Round the world to make all whole;
Saturate the earth and its people, too,
With increasing Christ-radiance shining through.

I AM this action from God above,
Sustained by the hand of heaven's love,
Transmuting the causes of discord here,
Removing the cores so that none do fear.

I AM, I AM, I AM
The full power of freedom's love
Raising all earth to heaven above.
Violet fire now blazing bright,
In living beauty is God's own light

Which right now and forever
Sets the world, myself, and all life
Eternally free in ascended master perfection.
Almighty I AM! Almighty I AM! Almighty I AM!

The Flame of Freedom Speaks

by Saint Germain

"The Shining of the Flaming Fire by Night"

The flame of freedom speaks—the flame of freedom within each heart. The flame of freedom saith unto all: Come apart now and be a separate and chosen people, elect unto God—men who have chosen their election well, who have determined to cast their lot in with the immortals. These are they who have set their teeth with determination, who have said:

I will never give up
I will never turn back
I will never submit
I will bear the flame of freedom unto my victory
I will bear this flame in honor
I will sustain the glory of life within my nation
I will sustain the glory of life within my being
I will win my ascension
I will forsake all idols and I will forsake the idol of my outer self
I will have the glory of my immaculate divinely conceived Self manifesting within me
I AM freedom and
I AM determined to be freedom
I AM the flame of freedom and I AM determined to bear it to all
I AM God's freedom and he is indeed free
I AM freed by his power and his power is supreme
I AM fulfilling the purposes of God's kingdom

Visualizations for the Science of the Spoken Word

by the Messengers

The Threefold Flame within Your Heart

The Christ flame within the heart embodies the same qualities of love, wisdom, and power that manifest in the heart of the Almighty, in the heart of your I AM Presence, and in the heart of your Christ Self.

Right within your own body temple are three fiery plumes of the Holy Spirit—pink, yellow, and blue pulsations of living flame. Thus the heavenly Trinity gains expression in the world of material form. And the energies of Father (blue), Son (yellow), Holy Spirit (pink) are resplendent in the heart of man.

Also corresponding with the trinity of body, mind, and soul, the threefold flame supplies man's needs for power to run the body (the faith and goodwill of the divine intent); wisdom to nourish the mind (illumination and the right use of the knowledge of the Law); and love to fulfill the destiny of the soul in conscious outer manifestation (a just and merciful compassion that is always rewarded by individual creative fulfillment).

The flame within the heart is your personal focus of the sacred fire. It is your opportunity to become the Christ. It is the potential of your divinity waiting to burst into being within your humanity....

During the first three golden ages before man's departure from innocence, the crystal cord was nine feet in diameter and the threefold flame enveloped his form. Man's source of energy was literally unlimited and his Christ consciousness was all-enfolding.

After the Fall, man's opportunity to exercise his free will was curtailed. By cosmic edict the threefold flame was reduced to one-sixteenth of an inch in height....

Imbalance—where giantism occurs in one aspect of the threefold flame, causing it to be out of proportion to the others—prevents the achievement of the goal of individual Christ-mastery.

As the flame of illumination expands from within your consciousness, it gradually enfolds your being until God, as holy wisdom, is enthroned upon the altar of your heart. But with each increase of wisdom, the power and love plumes must also rise by the fiat of your devotion; else the wisdom will not be retained.

Likewise, with each getting of power there must come the attainment of wisdom and love in perfect balance. So, too, love is actualized only through an equivalent manifestation of power and wisdom.

Recognizing that balance is the golden key to Christhood, you must understand that you cannot bring into manifestation or know for yourself that which you have not first realized within the threefold flame as a result of your outer and inner experience in God.

Thoughtform of the threefold flame within your heart, one-sixteenth inch in height, sealed within the secret chamber. Visualize this pulsating sacred fire as the divine spark connecting your heart to the heart of God.

Balance the Threefold Flame in Me

In the name of the beloved mighty victorious Presence of God, I AM in me, and my very own beloved Holy Christ Self, I call to beloved Helios and Vesta and the threefold flame of love, wisdom, and power in the heart of the Great Central Sun, beloved Jesus the Christ and the servant-sons in heaven, to beloved Morya El, Lord Lanto, Paul the Venetian, Serapis Bey, Hilarion, Nada, and Saint Germain, beloved Mighty Victory, beloved Goddess of Liberty, the seven mighty Elohim and archangels of the rays, beloved Lanello, the entire Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood and the World Mother, elemental life—fire, air, water, and earth!

To balance, blaze, and expand the threefold flame within my heart until I AM manifesting all of thee and naught of the human remains.

Take complete dominion and control over my four lower bodies and raise me and all life by the power of the three-times-three into the glorious resurrection and ascension in the light!

In the name of the Father, the Mother, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, I decree:

Balance the threefold flame in me! (3x)
Beloved I AM!
Balance the threefold flame in me! (3x)
Take thy command!
Balance the threefold flame in me! (3x)
Magnify it each hour!
Balance the threefold flame in me! (3x)
Love, wisdom, and power!

(Now use "blaze," "expand," and "intensify" in place of "balance" for the second, third and fourth times you give your mantra.)

And in full faith I consciously accept this manifest, manifest, manifest! (3x) right here and now with full power, eternally sustained, all-powerfully active, ever expanding, and world enfolding until all are wholly ascended in the light and free!

Beloved I AM! Beloved I AM! Beloved I AM!

My "Light of the Heart" Mantra

by Saint Germain

Your heart is one of the choicest gifts of God. Within it there is a central chamber surrounded by a forcefield of such light and protection that we call it a "cosmic interval."

It is a chamber separated from Matter, and no probing could ever discover it. It occupies, simultaneously, not only the third and fourth dimensions but also other dimensions unknown to man. It is thus the connecting point of the mighty crystal cord of light that descends from your God Presence to sustain the beating of your physical heart, giving you life, purpose, and cosmic integration.

I urge you to treasure this point of contact that you have with Life by paying conscious recognition to it.

You do not need to understand by sophisticated language or scientific postulation the how, why, and wherefore of this activity. Be content to know that God is there and that there is within you a point of contact with the Divine, a spark of fire from the Creator's own heart which is called the threefold flame of life. There it burns as the triune essence of love, wisdom, and power.

Each acknowledgment paid daily to the flame within your heart will amplify the power and illumination of love within your being. Each such attention will produce a new sense of dimension for you, if not outwardly apparent then subconsciously manifest within the folds of your inner thoughts.

Neglect not, then, your heart as the altar of God. Neglect it not as the sun of your manifest being. Draw from God the power of love and amplify it within your heart. Then send it out into the world at large as the bulwark of that which shall overcome the darkness of the planet, saying:

I AM the light of the heart
Shining in the darkness of being
And changing all into the golden treasury
Of the mind of Christ.

I AM projecting my love
Out into the world
To erase all errors
And to break down all barriers.

I AM the power of infinite love,
Amplifying itself
Until it is victorious,
World without end!

With this gift of infinite freedom, I give you my never-ending promise to assist you to find your immortal freedom as you determine never to give up and never to turn back.

Remember that as long as you face the light, the shadows are always behind. And the light is there, too, to transmute them all. Keep your gaze toward "the City" and be not overcome of evil but overcome evil with good.

Thoughtform of the threefold flame externalized to enfold the physical heart in its Christ consciousness and triune healing light. Visualize the threefold flame expanded from the center of your spiritual heart and enveloping your physical heart.

Real-Eye Magic

One of the greatest gifts of identity, which the conscious mind little dreams of, is the latent ability to realize the image of the eye. This science of the immaculate concept is practiced by every angel in heaven.

It is that law which is written in the inward parts of man,[127] known by his very heart of hearts, yet dim in the memory of his outer mind. It is based on the visualization of a perfect idea which then becomes a magnet that attracts the creative energies of the Holy Spirit to his being to fulfill the pattern held in mind.

Having seen what he is in Spirit and what is the potential of his soul, man must retain that image of Reality in his thoughts and feelings, for the image is a natural repellent to all that opposes his Reality in manifestation. This he does through the real eye of his soul—his inner eye that knows as it sees and sees as it knows.

The eye magic of the soul is the I-mage or image of Reality which man plants in his consciousness and waters with the pure energies that flow freely from the Macrocosm. The increase of the abundant life that follows is the LORD's, or the Law's. For those who follow the scientific principle of the real-eye magic find that they are rewarded by the same. As Saint Paul said, "I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase."[128]

And so God is expressed impersonally in the outworking of his immutable laws, all of which are corollary to the one Great Law of Being in cosmos. The science of the immaculate concept, then, is the knowledge of how to use pure ideas to transform the world of the microcosm into a macrocosmic wonder—as above in God, so below in man.

Beauty and truth have a geometry all their own, a symmetry that allows the energies of God to flow freely through their ideations and then to coalesce in form. Pure ideas and noble forms are the archetypal patterns of the Real Image. They are seeds of light which, when planted in the subconscious and conscious domains of the fertile mind, bring forth after their kind. Without these kernels of light, rooted and nourished in the very substance of his soul, man cannot hope to express perfection in his world.

Each one is a lodestone of God-desire to become without all that which is within. Each one is a magnet that attracts from God above to man below the creative essence of the universe. And if these monads be abundantly scattered throughout his consciousness—each one a nucleus of Reality, each one a forcefield of fervent faith, hope, and charity—then man can indeed look to outpicture (manifest) in the microcosm that which he has thought to be "the impossible dream, the unreachable star."

Each time the soul beholds the sun, the clouds, the wind in the trees, a rose, a perfect leaf, a pebble, or a wave and then tucks the design in the folds of memory, he is adding to his treasure of those perfect ideas which are the building blocks of his Reality.

Each time the fingers of his mind trace the lines of a Michelangelo, the strokes of a Raphael, the movements of a symphony, the cadences of a ballet, the formations of the birds that cross the sky, the soul takes in the patterns of the mind of God on which hang the entire schemata of his microcosmic universe.

Beholding the universe and even our own planetary home, we observe how nature upholds the law of perfection and shrugs off imperfection. Truly, the very stones that cry out in praise of the Christ[129] do uphold more earnestly than man his mandate "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."[130]

How beautifully the LORD has placed all around us in the natural kingdom these links to eternity and to the invisible world of realities which we perceive only in the substance of things hoped for—these precious evidences of things not seen![131]

Thus, after alternate periods of living in the synthetic world and then in the real, man comes to the feet of the masters of wisdom where he learns that life is to be found only in reverence for all that lives. Returning to the abode of his own thoughts, he seeks to recapture the realization of that unity which he now knows must exist within the heart of the universe and even within the heart of a cell. He begins to turn within to tap the reservoirs of nature. He must explore the unknown as well as the known!

My Mantra for the Resurrection and the Life of My Heart

"And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear."

—ISAIAH

I AM the resurrection and the life of every cell and atom of my heart now made manifest!

Whenever you pronounce the name of God "I AM"—which was given to Moses for our blessing—as the affirmation of God's own being where you are, you are really saying, "God in me is ..."

So in this mantra you are actually acknowledging: "God in me is the resurrection and the life of every cell and atom of my heart now made manifest!"

Because "I AM" is the sacred name as well as the verb "to be," we understand our God to be a living, ongoing, dynamic reality—a most personal Presence who reveals himself to us in action in our individual lives and in his miraculous yet entirely scientific flow of light, light, light!

God wants us to affirm our being as his, and his as our very own. It is our fiery destiny to be One—i.e., to share in his universal oneness. This we accomplish, day by day, by confirming his Word—"I AM"—in our mantras.

The Science of the Spoken Word is the means to our soul's union with Spirit. If you don't believe it, prove it for yourself! Give your mantra for the resurrection and the life of your heart many times a day. Enjoy it! For God's energy enjoys the mighty work of making you whole. And he wants you to enjoy a fruitful life as you serve to set all life free.

The resurrection flame which is released in this effective fiat was used by Jesus the Christ in his victory over death and hell. He came to show you the way so that you could do the same through Christ who lives in you as your own Real Self. What are you waiting for? Say it out loud with all your heart:

I AM the resurrection and the life of every cell and atom of my heart now made manifest!

The resurrection flame can be felt as a radiant, mother-of-pearl softness, bathing the body in a gentle, suffusing glow. As it accelerates with the ritual of your daily application, the rainbow rays merge into the white light.

Our beloved Jesus gave us the "I AM" affirmation—"I AM the resurrection and the life..."—to use for any condition or situation that has gone awry from the original intent of our Father. So you can say:

I AM the resurrection and the life of my perfect health now made manifest!

By all means, you should be very specific in naming the part or parts of the body affected by accident or ailment. Always affirm the perfection desired in place of the imperfect manifestation:

I AM the resurrection and the life of the inner blueprint of (Insert names of body parts that have been affected—e.g., my arms, legs, stomach, kidneys, etc.) now made manifest!

Now that you have set the matrix of your "I AM" affirmation, give and learn by heart another beautiful affirmation of the Lord's eternal spirit of the resurrection everywhere present where you are—but especially in your members that need healing and wholeness:

Beloved flame of resurrection,
Blaze through me thy light always;
Beloved flame, resuscitation,
Make my heart to sing thy praise.

O blazing white Christ radiance
Of God's own I AM fire,
Expand thy blessed purity
And free me from all wrong desire.

The flame of the resurrection is invoked for the resurgence of life whenever the flow of life is interfered with or abruptly cut off—whether at the molecular level or within the organic bodies of entire communities and nations or in the environment of elemental life. Its colorful crystals are the cupbearers of renewal, rebirth, rejuvenation, and restoration.

Passing through atoms, cells, and electrons, the flame transmits the spin of your soul's joie de vivre, restoring the natural rhythm of your unique life cycles. Beginning with your heartbeat, then activating the pulsation of billions of atomic nuclei and sun-centers of your cells, it regulates the figure-eight flow of spiritual energies in and out of your matter universe.

The resurrection flame is the fount of bubbling joy that brings the smile of spiritual satisfaction to your face, because you experience that inner awareness of your never-ending reason for being.

Visualize yourself standing in a pillar of swirling, opalescent rainbow spirals. Through the "I AM" name and the resurrection flame, you know who you are because you know who God is.

Thoughtform of the resurrection flame—a stepped-up version of your threefold flame. Visualize the swirling mother-of-pearl stream of God's energy resurrecting the flow of light and restoring the true and beautiful rhythm of your heart.

My Violet-Fire Heart Mantra

"... Be filled with the Spirit, speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord."

—PAUL

Violet fire, thou love divine,
Blaze within this heart of mine!
Thou art mercy forever true,
Keep me always in tune with you.

When we make a heart contact with the person and presence of the Holy Spirit, by purest love we may tap the source of the sacred fire of God. For the Spirit of the LORD is the agent of God's healing, while the sacred fire is the agency. Through his Holy Spirit, God releases his great love to us as the energy of change.

The quickest way to flush out the cause and core of disease is to apply the unguent of the transforming light of the Holy Spirit. And the violet flame is the instrument of the fiery baptism of that very personal and very present Spirit. [132]

It is the flow of God's unfailing mercy and forgiveness. It is the "refiner's fire" for the purging of the sons of God prophesied by Malachi.[133]

When you invoke the violet flame with joy and full faith in God's promise—"I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more"[134]—you can feel the pulsating alchemical action of the LORD's "universal solvent" dissolving the cause and the effect, the record and the cell memory of all physical imperfections and impurities outcropping from the conscious and subconscious planes of your being.

Your call, confidently and lovingly given aloud, is the exercise of the Science of the Spoken Word. The Call, by your free will, sets in motion the flow of the violet fire that transmutes the underlying emotional and mental conditions that are causative in all disease.

But you must also willingly submit to the flame such manifestations as anger and aggravation, hatred and even mild dislike toward any part of life or person—even subtle resentment held in your heart against yourself or members of your family.

The healing of all hardness of heart—which must go before physical healing and wholeness can take place—requires the unconditional surrender of your soul to your beloved Christ Self. Stubborn will and human pride must go into the flame!

For the expansion of your heart's physical and spiritual capacity, give your violet-fire heart mantra many times over with your strongest and most concentrated visualization—for and by the love of Jesus Christ. Practice makes perfect.

Remember, all layers of your consciousness are affected by the pure flow of light directly from the heart of your Christ Self to and through your physical heart. Persistence is needed to penetrate age-old habits of human discord resulting in "men's hearts failing them for fear."[135]

Healing is a letting-go process. Do it every day as you bid the LORD welcome into your heart. Express the sunshine of self-givingness to someone who needs your love every day.

As you flush out the old toxins of ingratitude toward life and rebellion against the wonderful law of universal harmony, let your heart burst forth in these cadences of joyous communion:

O mighty Presence of God "I AM" in and behind the Sun:
I welcome thy light, which floods all the earth—
Into my life, into my mind, into my spirit, into my soul!
Radiate and blaze forth thy light!
Break the bonds of darkness and superstition!
Charge me with the great clearness of thy white-fire radiance!
I am thy child, and each day I shall become more of thy manifestation!

Now be still and know that the "I AM" Presence who is God within you (the Immanuel—God with us [136]) is victorious over every outer condition. Accept it done in the full power of the Godhead and reaffirm it each time the slightest fear or doubt assails your soul:

"I AM" the violet-flame miracle healing of my heart every hour of every day now made manifest! And I praise the Lord of Life for my perfect healing now made manifest!

"... I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,...

That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God."

My Visualization for the Healing Thoughtform

"The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light."

—JESUS

The healing thoughtform is another gift of God's love, scientifically formulated to remagnetize and restore the elements of your four lower bodies to Nature's design.

The healing thoughtform is composed of concentric spheres of God's healing light—a sphere of white surrounded by a sphere of blue suspended within a globe of green.

Whenever you pray for healing, know that the call compels the answer. Then call upon the LORD and know that he will answer:

"In the name of Jesus Christ and his presence with me in the Person of my own Christ Self, I call to the heart of my own beloved I AM Presence and the angels of healing for the beautiful healing thoughtform to seal me in the perfect light of God's own consciousness of my wholeness—now made manifest!"

Then visualize spheres of sacred fire descending as the pulsating presence of the Holy Spirit. Visualize the white-fire core centered in the scintillating, sapphire-blue flame wrapped in the leaping, emerald-green fires.

By your unspeakable love for the Holy Spirit, magnetize this healing thoughtform from the mind of God first to your heart and then to any distressed, disturbed, or diseased area of the body. You can even see your entire form enfolded in God's healing presence—for when your eye is single (your visualization concentrated and charged with love), your whole body shall be full of light.[137] It is the LORD's promise and he will not fail you.

The healing process takes place through the restoration of Christ's wholeness—first in your soul (both spiritually and emotionally), then in your mind (mentally and visually), and finally in your body, which will always reflect the state of your "higher" vehicles.

The white-fire core, always interacting with the violet flame, is the energy of Alpha and Omega which transmutes the conditions (physical, mental, and emotional) that cause the disorder—i.e., the dis-ordering of the altogether natural flow of harmony in your life.

The blue sphere—again in combination with the violet fire—is the action of the will of God which summons by divine decree the atoms, molecules, and cells into conformity with the inner blueprint of the Son of God in whose image you were and are "fearfully and wonderfully made."

With this realization you ought to shout for joy with the Psalmist who said: "I will praise Thee, for 'I AM' fearfully and wonderfully made!"[138]

The green sphere—blending with the 'scrubbing, scouring' action of the violet flame—is the miracle of God's immortal life that restores the flow of Spirit through Matter and makes it whole. See in your mind's eye the healing thoughtform alternating with the surging/resurging violet flame, burning through all substance blocking the flow of the life-force.

As the whirling (clockwise) thoughtform magnetizes the flow of your lifestream into the matrix of Nature's original design, the debris of centuries of misqualified thought and feeling substance is thrown off, by centrifugal force, into the violet flame, where it is stripped of all discord and transmuted by the alchemy of the Holy Spirit back to the crystal clarity of the River of Life.[139]

Now you are ready to give your Mantra for Christ Wholeness. Use it to "make a joyful noise unto the LORD," as the Psalmist himself burst forth in praise.[140]

Let the praise of your soul come before his presence with the singing of this mantra. Serve him with the gladness of his perfection manifest in you now! "Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves."[141]

God made you perfect. Restore yourself to that perfection God-willed. Stand fast and behold the salvation of your God. Then "clap your hands" and "shout unto God with the voice of triumph."[142] Now give this dynamic decree to your beloved I AM Presence, to your blessed Christ Self, and to the healing masters and angels of the sacred fire with all your heart:

In the name of the beloved mighty victorious Presence of God, I AM in me, and my very own beloved Holy Christ Self, beloved Jesus the Christ, Lord Maitreya, beloved Saint Germain, beloved El Morya, beloved Archangel Raphael and Mother Mary, Kuthumi, and the servant-sons of God in heaven, the healing masters and angels, by and through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in the threefold flame burning within my heart, I decree:

1. I AM God's perfection manifest
In body, mind, and soul—
I AM God's direction flowing
To heal and keep me whole!

Refrain:
O atoms, cells, electrons
Within this form of mine,
Let heaven's own perfection
Make me now divine!
The spirals of Christ wholeness
Enfold me by his might—
I AM the Master Presence
Commanding, "Be all light!"

2. I AM God's perfect image:
My form is charged by love;
Let shadows now diminish,
Be blessed by Comfort's Dove!

3. O blessed Jesus, Master dear,
Send thy ray of healing here;
Fill me with thy life above,
Raise me in thine arms of love!

4. I AM Christ's healing Presence,
All shining like a mercy sun—
I AM that pure perfection,
My perfect healing won!

5. I charge and charge and charge myself
With radiant I AM light—
I feel the flow of purity
That now makes all things right!

And in full faith I consciously accept this manifest, manifest, manifest! (3x) right here and now with full power, eternally sustained, all-powerfully active, ever expanding, and world enfolding until all are wholly ascended in the light and free!

Beloved I AM! Beloved I AM! Beloved I AM!

For He Hath Begun to Sound

—REV. 10:7

LORD ZADKIEL, Archangel of the Seventh Ray

Violet Flame: Passport to Eternal Life

Hail, O victorious sons of light! Hail, triumphant ones! Why tarry ye in mortal consciousness when the sacred violet fire of freedom's love is the passport and key to freedom for all mankind?

We come tonight in answer to the call of mankind, and we urge that great assistance be given the earth.

As I survey the historical events upon this planet, I am reminded of the messages of light which have flowed forth from our octave in times past. And I am reminded of the missions of the angels of the violet flame which have brought so much freedom to various parts of the earth.

I am thinking now of my great co-worker Archangel Michael when he traveled into Africa and blazed his sword of blue flame over that continent and set the people there free from the great cloud of human discord and darkness and shadow. And I am tonight asking you, in the name of God and the sacred fire, to be reminded that—because of the mass accumulation of mankind's mortal consciousness and the fact that there are not enough from among mankind who are making the calls to the sacred fire—the forces of shadow have builded anew shadows and clouds of darkness over the entire planet so that war once again threatens this earth.

And therefore, in the name of God, we, who are of the legions of light and of the sacred fire, are once again taking our stand with those among mankind who know the laws of the sacred fire.

And we come here tonight with a fierce determination to expand! and expand! and expand! the power of the violet flame over the entire earth until there is a new birth of freedom to mankind and an eternal victory which mankind needs from the foolish thoughtforms of mortal consciousness which have never brought dominion but have only brought enslavement to man through the ages!

I come to you tonight, pleading for the power of the sacred jewels—the Urim and the Thummim of God—upon the breast of the great high priest, the Christ consciousness for this earth, in order that the sacred jewels will blaze forth in this age the power of God that cuts the earth free, that frees the hearts of mankind from this enslavement which they have caused to bind them round about with firm iron bands—because they have not had the will to be free, because they have in ignorance persisted in thinking of themselves as mere mortals in whom there was a temporal consciousness which ceased with the termination of their life-force and the last breath within their bodies.

I am come tonight in the name of God to declare to all mankind that eternal life is sustained by the power of the violet flame!

Do you realize what this means, blessed ones? It means that your passport to eternal life is given to all mankind through the use of the violet flame and the sacred fire, and there is no other way that mankind can find their freedom.

We who dwell in realms of immortal flame have and maintain our "status quo" by the power of the sacred fire. How can mankind, moving among human effluvia and bric-a-brac, expect to find their freedom when their entire world resembles somewhat a great attic storehouse in which are accumulated through the ages old spinning wheels and cobwebs and mortar and brick and discordant thought?

Blessed and beloved ones, all of this energy, this imprisoned energy, by the power of the sacred fire must find freedom! And the mankind of earth must open the doorways of their consciousness to expand God's light, and they must cease to give power to that which binds and can never bring them their freedom.

This may sound simple, but it is an action of the great divine laws by which we, in our octave, keep our octave pure and free. For the violet fire represents the highest gift—the highest gift of God to the universe!

It is the great vibratory action at the very heights of the seven rays. It is the top of the rainbow. It is the promise of God made manifest—the mercy from the Mercy Temple and the victory of heaven! Therefore, it is the victory of earth. For earth and earth's children are but heaven's sons gone a-straying—prodigal sons and daughters returning now to the Father's house....

LORD ZADKIEL

Charge Your Aura Daily with the Power of the Violet Transmuting Flame

... The violet transmuting flame, precious ones, is energy and light that cannot be contaminated....

You must understand, then, precious ones, that when we deal with the electronic light of the violet transmuting flame, we are dealing with that substance which cannot be contaminated by mankind, whether or not mankind do deposit into the violet transmuting flame the offscouring substance of their own human filth.

You must understand that the great law of love has charged the violet transmuting flame and the flame of freedom and all of the flames of God with the power of noncontamination.

Therefore, please understand that when you come in contact with these mighty flames, there is no possibility of your bringing about any contamination by mortal substance that you might cast into this flame for transmutation. This is the blessedness of those flames, and it is the blessedness of the violet transmuting flame.

It means that you are able to take without hesitation all substance unwanted by your God Self, all substance rejected by your Holy Christ Self as incompatible with the law of your being, and see that that substance is placed without reserve into the great mercy flame of Almighty God—there to change its nature, never again to bear the imprint of human viciousness and human misqualified thought and feeling.

You must understand that this is the law of mercy, not only for yourselves, blessed ones, but also for the substance which has for a long time, as time goes, borne the imprint of misqualified consciousness....

... The greatest step to progress that any individual can ever take is the consistent and faithful use of the violet transmuting flame of freedom's love. Charged with the love of God, it is also charged with the responsibility of discharging from man the consciousness of imperfection and mortal substance, mortal thought, mortal feeling, and all that is dissonant and produces discord and inharmony within the world of man.

I assure you, gracious ones, that the angelic hosts themselves, who do not absorb mortal imperfection, do relish and enjoy at inner levels the mighty power of the transmuting flame. It is a lift and a boost to every cosmic being to come in contact with a great concentration of violet-flame substance.

And therefore, those of you who charge your auras daily with the power of the violet transmuting flame are making a more comfortable pathway for the great beings of light to find their way into your aura and to bestow upon you greater blessing with comfortability all the way around—not only for yourselves, blessed ones, but also for those of us who desire to serve the evolutions of this planet and are loving you and blessing you free, day after day, with the infinite charge of the God-capacity to love, the power that without reserve seeks not to do honor and homage unto self but unto the mighty God Self of all life, the universal Christ consciousness, and the eternal Presence of God, who is often thought of by individuals who meditate upon him as a God of love....

Therefore today, as I come to you, I AM charging into your midst the great, buoyant power of the flame of freedom! I AM passing through your consciousness the power of release that is able to let go!

For mankind today are often tense within their own world. The very exigencies of the hour, the causes which mankind find are producing effects in their world, the generation of centuries of discord has caused mankind to have plenty of reason for being tense. And therefore, within themselves there are knots of feeling and bunched up and jangled situations that cause their nerves themselves to be on edge.

It is our hope to bathe you with a great, buoyant flame of freedom, to pass through your four lower bodies and comfort that blessed etheric body—the body that is charged by God with the holy memory of all things lovely and beautiful, with the substance of the divine world—in order that you may bask in that power which one day you will know to its fullness.

And you will understand an angel's love and the patience of an angel with mankind, who often go forth from these holy sessions when we release the energies of our being into the atmosphere and so quickly return to mortal thought and feeling that it is almost like pulling down a curtain upon the great glory streaming forth from divine realms.

It is almost as though it was a spurning and rejection of the magnificent concepts which we have charged forth into the atmosphere, bringing forth into the objective world through thought and feeling the glorious feelings of an angelic realm and at the same time blessing all of the inner parts of your being with untold and unspeakable states of consciousness which are the forte of the angelic host and the cosmic beings....

The point of contact of God within yourself is the great consciousness of man, intended to be so pure that it resembles the consciousness of God in all of its fullness! And it is actually a responsibility resting upon each individual to maintain the purity of consciousness which God is (and the consciousness which he has) by the power of the transmuting flame, causing all substance of thought and feeling within your worlds which is less than the perfection of God to change its nature and let go of the tension and let go of the dissonance which the world has created.

Do this with alacrity and joy. Do this with peace. Do this in the full awareness that your victory is your God intent....

... I would like to call to your attention that there dwells within the etheric body of every individual upon earth the records of all discord which that individual has generated, not only in this life but in all embodiments long past.

It is so essential, precious ones, that you use the violet flame of freedom to dislodge those memory episodes that you may find your freedom from them. And as you do this, using the violet flame, you must understand that it would be a mighty good idea, and I reference this again, a mighty good idea, if you would call for the charging forth into the worlds of other individuals that you have wronged the selfsame power that you call forth for yourself.

Thus, with one specific action you will be able at the same time to purify yourself and to balance the karmic action in your own worlds, giving you an added impetus toward your own eventual freedom in the ascension.

There is no use, precious ones, in merely purifying your own world and then leaving residual substance in the world of the neighbor that you have wronged, who is also a part of God somewhere in the universe, either in or out of embodiment.

Therefore, I urge upon you all, that you understand the need to make calls that when the violet flame goes into your own four lower bodies, it also simultaneously go into the bodies of all those that you may have wronged.

And it would not even be a bad idea but a blessed idea if you would also ask that it be charged into the worlds of those who have wronged you. For then, precious ones, you are setting up a credit in the great ledgers of God whereby those individuals will be blessed through your activity. And you will assist the planetary body itself in finding its own freedom with greater speed and bringing about the salvation of the earth at the same time that you are bringing about personal salvation.

O precious ones, if only individuals would understand the mercy of the law. If only individuals would understand that they can only receive that which they send out.

I tell you, if they would keep these facts in mind, if they would hold them in consciousness, they would often not react to one another in the manner that they do in an unguarded moment and create greater karma at a time when it is so essential for individuals who would have their ascension to balance every iota of their karma here and now.

If individuals would only recognize their sovereign and solemn responsibility to God, they would understand that the world is already unbalanced in its manifestation of negative karma and that the law requires and calls forth that the great power of the abundance of the waters of mercy ought to pour forth upon the parched ground of man's consciousness and assuage the awful thirst within his heart for forgiveness and the flame of forgiveness and forgiveness' release.

I am calling, then, in the name of God for the release of this great power of mercy that will echo and resound throughout the universe the flame of mercy.

You may ask me, "How can a flame itself echo? Can a flame speak?"

Yea, a flame can speak. For the Word of God is a flame, and the Word has spoken. And the spoken Word of God does echo and re-echo down the corridors of eternity. And it brings here in the time-span the great realization of the need for perfection and balance, that men may find the hidden doorway....

I charge and I charge and I charge the violet-flame substance through your worlds this day! I charge and I charge and I charge the flame of freedom through your worlds this day!

And I say: Let go! Let go! Let go of mortal thought and feeling! Hold it no more, and replace it by the ascended masters' infinite capacity to love, to invoke mercy and justice and freedom and the righteousness of God, which desires to live in you as light desires to live and to leap with the freedom of a young hart across the face of the earth, until joy is the forte of every man and victory is obtained by the power of the great flame of freedom—the reality of God released by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit and the power of the infinite preeminence of God that is in the mind of every man, yet goes unrealized, that is in the heart of every man, yet in part goes unused, that is nigh, even at the door.

The great violet flame of freedom has spoken through me, and the great violet flame of freedom is knocking at your hearts' doors! It seeks admission—the admission of perfection. For it is that substance which will not at any time accept or permit itself to accept the qualities of human imperfection, yet is able to absorb, to transmute, to change, to produce perfection in your world and to set you free for now and all eternity!

I AM Zadkiel of the cosmic host!

I AM Zadkiel of the angelic realm!

I AM Zadkiel, friend of God!...

LORD ZADKIEL

The Panacea for Every Doubt and Fear

Hail, violet flame angels! Hail, cosmic beings of transmutation! Hail, children of the one God! The hour has come and now is when the valiant flame of transmutation must be perceived as the panacea for every doubt and fear.

Individuals should understand that the power of the archangels is here when you invoke it, when you believe in it, when you trust in God and understand that it is his electronic flame essence which is descending in response to your call.

Beloved ones, you are the children of the Sun, you are the children of the One. You are supremely blessed to have the understanding in the correct use of the violet transmuting flame. If the world today were able to accept the violet transmuting flame, most of the problems that are troubling mankind would literally melt away; for individuals again and again are infecting one another with their own discord and inharmony.

They are listening to the dark ones and to the negative fears that are created in their own minds and which give rise to a host of negative opinions concerning many matters and prevent them from the full acceptance and pressure of that magnificent God-faith which always gives to each individual the great calmness of knowing that his Divine Presence is always bestowing upon him grace from on high in answer to his call....

Transmutative effort is really a marvelous thing to behold from inner levels. For an individual is sitting there, surrounded with all manner of thoughts of negation contrary to divine grace, and all around him the mighty power of light—like giant electrodes of cosmic energy—is forming.

And the angels stand there with palms outstretched, and there comes across the forcefield of the human an arc of cosmic light energy. And as that arc flashes forth it seems to literally vaporize the negative conditions, and they literally disappear from heart and mind....

I do not care what conditions may seem to confront you—if you will only recognize that God is the ruler and that he rules in you, that the potential that he has in the universe is also the potential in your own world, it will mightily assist you to the acceptance of the power of transmutation's flame.

And when that flame blazes in its fullness upon the altar of your being, I tell you it has the power to sweep away those dark clouds of human nonsense that you have accumulated without desire—and even those you have accumulated with desire. And both will go the same way into the domain of cosmic grace, into the great violet-fire cauldrons where they are no more.

And those cauldrons, bubbling up, release back to the Central Sun the precious little electrons and substance which was so misqualified by humanity. And therefore, not only is the individual cleansed of these conditions but also the universe.

And God is glorified and the new rays issue forth from the sun as the old rays are transmuted, and there is a greater glow of God-magnificence as the misqualified substance becomes then once again, in the polarized pulsations of the Central Sun, God-magnificent energy, God-released energy, God-qualified energy, God-enfired energy going forth into your world!...

KUAN YIN, Bodhisattva of the East, Mediatrix of Mercy

Call Forth the Sacred Fires of Mercy and Forgiveness from the Heart of the Mother of Mercy

... You who have had the pain of sorrow, I say, come into my arms and be relieved of your burden. I AM your Mother of Mercy. I would bring to you the violet flame. And this violet flame is yours to keep if you will only ask for it.

The Law requires you to invoke the flame, precious ones, in order to receive the flame. And so, we who are the ascended masters are also obedient to the laws of God, and we admonish you also to pay allegiance. For out of law comes the order of a cosmos, the structuring of life, the day-to-day ritual of the sun and the stars and the turning of the earth....

When you feel condemned and unworthy, as though you are unable to accomplish anything that is worth being present in the LORD—remember Kuan Yin, remember mercy. Call forth the fires of mercy and say:

In the name of Jesus the Christ, in the name of my own Christ Self, in the name of my own beloved I AM Presence, I call upon the law of forgiveness.

O God, I desire to make peace with thee this day. Forgive my wrongs and injustices, my inequities, my selfishness and sin.

Forgive me, O God, I pray, and give to me opportunity to right every wrong, to requalify all that has been misqualified, to transmute that which has not been the perfection of the fulfilling of the Law.

When you have called upon the law of forgiveness, when you have gone to the Christ Self who officiates as the priest at the altar of your heart, then be at peace. Know that the flame of forgiveness comes and is sustained by your own effort to right every wrong.

When there is the repetition of wrongdoing, if this continues, then the flame of forgiveness is withheld; for forgiveness cannot be given where there is not repentance and the return to the walk with God.

When you have made your right effort in prayer and in action, then know that the peace of the merciful God is upon you, that you may walk erect. And know that the joy of God is in you and that you are worthy to be his child —his son, his daughter.

Then when you have made your peace with God and the fallen ones come to condemn you again, to accuse you, you will then say to them:

I will not accept your witchcraft and your projection, your condemnation! For my God has forgiven my wrongs, and I have made my peace with him this day. Therefore, get thee behind me, Satan! For I will not live in the consciousness of the accuser of the brethren, nor will I sit in the seat of the scornful, scorning others and condemning others as I have been condemned! ...

You are living in an hour when you can make the maximum use of the flame of mercy. The call to forgiveness is given to you—a simple mantra you can give, written by the beloved son El Morya.

He has given these lines so that you could recite a mantra of forgiveness wherever you are, understanding that forgiveness is your key to contact with the open door of your own Christ Self.

Will you not, then, repeat the gentle mantra:

I AM forgiveness acting here,
Casting out all doubt and fear,
Setting men forever free
With wings of cosmic victory.

I AM calling in full power
For forgiveness every hour;
To all life in every place
I flood forth forgiving grace.

The first saying of the mantra is for the forgiveness of the self, and thereby you may forgive other selves. Be gentle with yourself....

I AM Kuan Yin. I will come when you call me, but the mercy of the law places this requirement: that you give the invocation, that you use the power of the Word in order to manifest the victory.

I AM Kuan Yin. I bless you with my love and I hold you in my arms forever.

Wiping Out the Causes and Cores of All Human Mistakes by God's Memory of Perfection

... Beloved ones, this violet transmuting flame is the full power of God in action to wipe out the causes and cores of all human mistakes—regardless of how, when, where, why, or by whom they were made! Its light and flame never fail to act instantly at your call!

The only appearance of delay or failure there can ever be anywhere is for the vacillating outer self of the unascended to give up too easily and too soon. Keeping everlastingly at it brings success....

At your earnest calls, light answers you instantly and goes directly (for it is intelligent substance!) to the person, place, condition, and thing to whom and to which it has been directed in the world of form. However, there it sometimes meets with the dense, solidified, heavy, and slowly vibrating substance of discordantly qualified energy around the one in need—this shadowed substance acting like a shield, as it were, against the light until the light has had opportunity to dissolve the obstruction....

Now, this violet transmuting flame consciously called into action does actually dissolve (like water dissolves salt) those unfortunate condensations of distorted form created by the human; but again, the speed and intensity of its action depends largely upon the feelings of earnest sincerity, faith, and loving gratitude in the consciousness of the one calling it forth.

Then, too, since the violet fire is actually God's memory of perfection, it does more than just dissolve those forms. It actually sublimates (refines by fire) and then transmutes into the pure light-essence from whence it first came forth, all that shadowed energy, returning it to the Sun for repolarization....

As heart friends and true companions of the ascended host on earth, should not all our beloved chelas endeavor now, practically and daily, to express the most loving patience with those human appearances as yet not transmuted in and around themselves and each other?

I can help you to do this if you want my help! Call directly to me whenever those human feelings would express through you and ask me to give you my feelings of loving, patient mercy toward them. I will give it to you if you will try to feel it. Then hold the vision of divine mastery for yourself and others until that mastery does manifest.

Let us make you a perfect outpouring and outpicturing of our gentle patience with all life! We are never any farther away from you than your own heartbeat and we answer your every call. Believe that—for it is true!

K-17, Head of the Cosmic Secret Service

(Speaking to the students after a dynamic decree session)

A Measure of the Heart's Devotion

... The energy you offered in decrees is a means whereby you, as the individual monadic expression of Deity, have invoked from the heart of that Deity the purity, the love, the devotion, the transmutation you desire for the earth....

Beloved ones, it is easy to behold throughout the earth at the contests and sports events that tremendous crowds assemble and they shout for the winning team. Sometimes they shout for the losing team. It depends upon where their loyalties are.

Beloved ones of the light, where are your loyalties? They are to God. And therefore, when you come together into one place to solemnly offer the heart flames of your immortal beings to God through the power of the spoken Word, this is to dignify all men and vest them with those garments of immortality which we wear....

These are not won, precious ones of the light, without some measure of sacrifice, because individuals have created through the power God gave them momentums which confine them to a certain habit pattern, and it is difficult for them to break the habits of the centuries and almost millenniums.

But, beloved ones of the light, the flames of God are able to do for man that which he is unable to do for himself, and therefore the invocation of those flames is ever so important. And the work, the service to God offered by your decrees is important.

Let no one ever declare anywhere that the power of the spoken Word accompanied by a measure of the heart's devotion and intent for good is not invocative of a manifestation of the divine will upon earth—for it is. And I, K-17, declare it!...

PRINCE OROMASIS of the Fire Element, Holding the Balance for Earth's Evolutions with the Four Cosmic Forces

A Fiat for the Ascension: Violet Fire Morning, Noon, and Night—and Love for God and Man Unlimited

... This is the purpose of the sacred fire—to free you, to transmute in you that which hinders, that which is discordant, that which is actually holding you back from entering into your God-freedom.

Now, when you have a God-determination—such as an angelic being has—that nothing, no, nothing, shall interfere with your eternal progress, you will be able to take ahold of our hands with the same tenacity with which we take ahold of yours. And you will say to us with all the fervor and fire of your being:

"I also am a cosmic being. I AM a being of the sacred fire. I AM here by the grace of God. I AM and have intelligence and knowledge and wisdom by the power of Almighty God in order that I might produce perfection!"

And when you have determined that you are going to produce perfection, you will release the sacred fire through your being in the same manner that the filament of an electric light bulb releases the radiance of light because of the flow of the current through the bulb. And at that precise moment, you will be God-illumined and every ounce of dross will be consumed from your world.

Beloved ones, in the name of God-purity, why would any individual desire to retain the vestiges of age, the remnants of decay, and that which is not of eternal purity?

Some may say, "As a cosmic being, you cannot under stand how we are engulfed at times in human effluvia." This may be true, beloved ones. But those who were among you, beloved Saint Germain and beloved Morya, have toiled up a rugged road, I tell you, and they were able to enter into their eternal freedom.

This is the message which they have told me they would like to convey to you this evening:

That each one of you who will determine to do so with all the love of your heart, and will hold fast to their hands, and invoke the violet fire every day of your lives—morning, noon, and night—and then will call to me, Prince Oromasis, you shall surely, if you maintain love for God unlimited and love for man unlimited, enter into your ascension at the close of this embodiment.

Do you realize the meaning of my words? This is an eternal fiat of the heavenly host: that all who shall have faith enough in God, in the word of a cosmic being, to accept that radiance and that God truth, and shall not fail one single day of their lives from this day forward, morning, noon, and night, to intensely call for the violet transmuting flame, who shall every day of their lives take some time to pour out adoration to their God Presence with every ounce of their energy, and who shall also give their love to all of mankind—these shall make their ascension at the close of this embodiment because the call will have compelled the answer....

Use the following fiat of Oromasis to fulfill his request to "call to me," after you give your invocations to the violet fire—morning, noon, and night:

The Living Flame of Cosmic Freedom from a Dictation by Prince Oromasis

In the name of the beloved mighty victorious Presence of God, I AM in me, my very own beloved Holy Christ Self, beloved Helios and Vesta, Saint Germain and Lord Zadkiel, beloved Prince Oromasis and Diana, beloved Lanello, the entire Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood and the World Mother, elemental life—fire, air, water, and earth! I decree:

I AM the immortal flame of cosmic freedom!

I demand that all of my energies in outer concentration submit to the great God flame within my heart!

I demand that all outer conditions come within effective God-control!

I demand that all that is not of the light be transmuted and changed and that I be the fullness of all that which I already am!

For I AM the full perfection of God!

I AM the living flame of cosmic freedom!

I AM the buoyant, dancing joy of God that passes through my entire four lower bodies and descends from the heart of my Presence to give me my freedom now!

I AM the raising power of the Spirit of light and fire which lifts me to the victory of my ascension and is the full-gathered momentum of victory of the saints and ascended beings of all ages to ascend back to the very heart of God and the immortal consciousness thereof. So help me, God!*

And in full faith I consciously accept this manifest, manifest, manifest! (3x) right here and now with full power, eternally sustained, all-powerfully active, ever expanding, and world enfolding until all are wholly ascended in the light and free!

Beloved I AM! Beloved I AM! Beloved I AM!

*Repeat the body of this fiat three or nine times or more as it suits you and then give the ending.

OMRI-TAS, Ruler of the Violet Planet

The Frequency of Freedom Personified in the Electronic Presence of the God of Freedom

... Freedom is a light, an energy ray.... When you consciously, willingly sustain the light of the violet flame within your being, then you are indeed free. But if you allow your violet-flame energies to be dissipated and you forget to make the calls for the intensification of that light, in those moments when your aura has become inundated with the forcefields of the world, then you are no longer free because you have not the frequency of freedom which is the violet flame.

This is a most interesting concept, beloved ones. It means that freedom, technically speaking, must be supported by the mathematics of a cosmos, the frequency of a cosmos, and the veritable Presence, the Electronic Presence of that personal manifestation of Saint Germain, the God of Freedom to the earth!... When you reject the representative of your freedom, Saint Germain, indeed you reject freedom.

See, then, how mankind have bound themselves to the shackles of ignorance and of bondage simply because their own self-indoctrination of fear and doubt has not allowed for their reception of the great God of Freedom to the earth. See, then, that the denial of the Son of God who has perfected a flame will deny to you that flame itself.

This is the law of hierarchy. See how it works in your life. If you deny the artist, can you learn the art? Without the person of the artist to transfer the art, it remains suspended in another dimension. That dimension is the mind of God.

Now then, 144,000 priests of the sacred fire do direct from the violet planet the energy of the violet flame. Will you reject the flame because you do not like the label? If Jesus Christ stood in your midst to release to you mercy and peace, you would accept the flame. Change the label and mankind reject the very same essence.

Thus, we live in an age of alchemy when that alchemy must also include the submersion of the self in the personality of God. This is the great teaching that comes to mankind out of the East—that you must become the personification of God, that you cannot leave God to a vapory mist and deny him in toto in his sons and daughters, else you will also lose the mighty presence of the Great Spirit....

The great alchemy of the violet flame that I would reveal to you is that within its folds, within itself, it contains these focal points of light that are elements of God's being. And therefore, when the violet flame passes through you, the great science of transmutation comes about because the flame contains within itself elements of God's mind that are able to transmute darkness into light—a greater light than you realize, a greater cosmic consciousness....

I come, then, to remind you to increase your invocation. And Saint Germain has asked me to reiterate to you that thirty minutes daily of the violet flame is most important for the holding of the balance of your lifestream, for the removal of harmful chemicals and forcefields that pass through your aura unnoticed by yourself, for the staying action of the Lords of Karma, and for the great swing that is to occur—the swing toward the Coming Revolution [in Higher Consciousness] that will swing the consciousness of a people and a planet into a golden-age awareness, into the memory of past golden ages, even the probing and the penetration of awarenesses in the Matter universe that they have not known before.

These awarenesses will suddenly come upon the people as there is a mounting energy of violet flame consuming the veils, veil by veil, of that ignorance....

Be up and doing, then! Seize your torch—and the fire within it! Let your chakras be ignited, and rejoice that God places into your hands this day a momentous opportunity for you to serve in an extraordinary way to relieve the burden of ignorance and malice and self-sympathy and self-concern that is the entire warp and web of the psychic plane! All of this can be swept aside—it must be swept aside for the bringing in of the new day!

We do not have the sense of struggle, we live perpetually in a violet-flame sea. You can do the same....

Let your faces, let your bodies filled with light portray the beauty and the joy of the angels who are your cohorts on the way. And let mankind feel the infectious spirit of the affection of Almighty God—so intense, so burning, so joyous, so buoyant.

This is the feeling of the violet flame! If you lose it for a moment, remember I have told you: in that moment you cease to be free....

VIRGO AND PELLEUR of the Earth Element, Holding the Balance for Earth's Evolutions with the Four Cosmic Forces

A Call and a Warning—to Intensify Transmutation Lest Mankind's Discord Overburden Elemental Life and World Cataclysm Ensue

... We come therefore to state our case on behalf of elemental life, to implore and to plead that Keepers of the Flame increase and intensify their invocations to the violet flame, standing shoulder to shoulder with the beings of the elements to transmute all human discord lest it become a burden too hard to bear and the pendulum of the Great Law swing again toward retribution through planetary cataclysm.

We send forth the warning to hearts of gold that if and unless there is a great intensification of the saturation of the earth body with the violet flame through the multiplication of the calls of Keepers of the Flame, there will be in this decade major planetary upheavals, changes in weather conditions, and earthquakes that result in great loss of life as well as permanent changes in the geographical surface of the earth.

The blessed beings of the elements have done and are doing all in their power to avert natural disaster. Again I repeat, we sound the warning! Unless the avant-garde of lightbearers will put their hand to the plow and join forces with the servants of the "ox who treadeth out the corn," increasing the flow of the Holy Spirit and the violet flame together with the resurrection flame on behalf of the servants of God and man in nature, there will be violent changes in the earth body.

We alert you, beloved ones, while there is yet adequate time and space for you to comply with the law and provide the necessary counterbalance of God's consciousness and his sacred fire.

As electrodes in the earth, your dynamic decrees, your prayers empowered by a pure heart enjoined to the LORD's Spirit, your fiats unto God's all-consuming sacred fire will be as the implanting of rods of the LORD in the earth, whirling vortices of energy that will consume and transmute mankind's discord by mercy's flame.

Thus it is our hope that by the conscious cooperation of elementals, masters, and embodied man, the course of oncoming world karma may once again be set back and the diligent ones again buy time and space for the recalcitrant ones and the laggards to bring up the rear and at last enter the Path as selfless servants of the light....

SAINT GERMAIN, Lord of the Seventh Ray, Hierarch of the Aquarian Age

Unless Sufficient Violet Flame Be Invoked, Elemental Life Will No Longer Bear the Burden

... Lo, I AM come. I AM come into your midst with the coming of the messenger who goes before my face east and west into the nations, bearing my purple fiery heart for the staying action of the Almighty in the very moments when it would appear that cataclysm is prepared to precipitate and to be catapulted out of the astral into the physical plane....

Thus the beings of the elements react in the fury and the fire from on high. And there comes out of the earth the message and the warning that is already come to Keepers of the Flame that unless sufficient quantity of violet flame be invoked, elemental life will no longer bear the burden of the cross of planetary karma and there will be in this decade significant changes in the very surface of the earth....

Once and for all, then, let Keepers of the Flame know—as I stand before you the Knight Commander and the Father of the Church and the one in whom is entrusted the balance of this two-thousand-year cycle—know, I tell you, that every word of every child of my heart, every dynamic decree is of ultimate import in these most trying hours!...

We come then to explain how necessary is the Call....

Beloved ones, there is a mounting strife, a sense of injustice and yet prejudice betwixt the races in the United States and throughout the world....

Beloved ones, there is only one activity that can resolve the crisis of division of the races in America and throughout the earth, and it is the violet flame. It is the action of the sacred fire. It is the teachings of the ascended masters. There is no religious body who has succeeded in binding up this schism. There are no individuals this day who are offering adequate solutions....

I tell you, beloved ones, there are places upon the surface of the earth, large bodies of land and areas of population in the millions, where not a single invocation is yet being offered unto the sacred fire and unto the violet flame. It is most difficult for elemental life to sustain the balance in these forcefields....

... We come to set a new pace accelerated by the violet flame. Thus, a half hour to the violet flame in invocation three times a day will result in—you know what? A holding of the balance for the earth and your own balance of personal karma.

Some of you have come to me for many years in wonder and consternation that you make not further progress on the Path. And somehow you have overlooked the universal solvent of the violet flame.

You have found, then, the alchemist's dream in this violet fire. Use it. Use it as the Elohim themselves scheme to bring forth the perfect man and the Manchild. Use the violet flame to go beyond yourself, to exceed yourself. It is the law of self-transcendence. See what it can do....

SAINT GERMAIN

Transmute the Disease Called Death by the Violet Singing Flame

... Beloved ones, there is a disease and the disease is called death. And that death can be transmuted into life by you, by invocation to the violet flame, and by the gift of miracles in God's name. Until the violet flame is applied to that illness of death it will not recede.

The gift of the violet flame is the great miracle of the century to consume, to roll back with that thrust, that roll, and a ho, ho, ho! And the laughter is the laughter of a cosmos. It is the laughter of life—life that has become the fullness of itself by the utter transmutation of every record of death....

Many of you have tended loved ones in the hour of this crucifixion as they have given their lives in the process of a transmutation that could have been accomplished by the violet flame had it been invoked in the moment of the inception of the disease of death and that which is the culture of that disease—hatred itself. Beloved ones, you have realized, then, that that disease can be all-consuming and yet love itself is all-consuming.

Understand that the earth has an illness, the planetary body itself has a sickness. The unguent, the miracle drug, the cure is always and always and always the violet flame—the violet transmuting flame that sings as it consumes.

Why is it the singing flame? Because it sings the tune of the keynote of the atom. Whatever the substance—a tree, a flower, the mountains, the body temple, the soul—every atom and every molecule of Spirit and Matter has its vibration, its keynote. And when the violet flame touches that particle it automatically sings the note of that substance, and that substance conforms to its own inner blueprint, its own inner harmony, and the violet flame sings many, many melodies all of the day.

O violet singing flame, sing the song of these souls! Sing the song of the souls! Sing the songs of the individual atoms of being, the organs of life. And let these chelas now come, let them come to the Cave of Symbols with me this night. O violet flame, enfold them in thy swaddling garment! Now wrap them in that flame, in that sari, let them now have the remembrance of their years in Mother India when they took their initiations under the great yogis of the ancient days....

The Key to the Everlasting Golden Ages—
Without You Nothing Will Change

... The hope of Elohim is that the dispensation of the violet flame might be the key, truly, to the everlasting golden ages that God has held in his heart as hope for this earth and her evolutions....

We come to the close of 1982, and I stand once again pleading with the Lords of Karma. And they have said to me: Go and plead with the Keepers of the Flame, Saint Germain. For you know that the dispensation can only come from their hearts and their will to dedicate this final month of the year to the violet-flame transmutation of those conditions in the earth which will surely result in cataclysm, even in the next twenty-four months, unless some extraordinary release and momentum of violet flame, and therefore of intercession by the legions of the seventh ray, stand between mankind and their returning infamy....

Therefore, I do plead before the altar of your heart. And I give you, from my own momentum of service, vision and a staying action against the tides of your own forgetfulness, that you might remember and not forget that in the turning of the cycle of this year and every year until the year 2001, what must come to pass in the year next is largely determined by what can be transmuted in the final six weeks of the conclusion of the previous year....

Blessed hearts, secure in the violet flame, I grant you this from my heart's love: that if you so saturate our sanctuary and our earth and your own aura, coincidentally, with the violet flame, I will see to it that you will consciously hear my voice and my call wherever you are on the face of the earth....

Only you, sons of the Most High God, can change the world as alchemists of the sacred fire! You are on stage. It is your opportunity. Without you and your Christhood and your call and the spoken Word unto the violet flame, you must understand that nothing will change....

Walking the Great Cities of America Dispensing the Violet Flame as Christ Would Do

... I say, precious ones, the need for the violet flame is great. You must give as much violet flame as you give all other decrees. You must supplement your decrees with the violet flame and with quick calls as you move here and there.

Your mantra to the violet flame "America is a land of violet fire—America is the purity God desires!" must be your mantra.... And you must see it appear here and there and everywhere, naming the cities, naming the places, and naming yourself.

See yourself as a being of violet fire! See yourself as the purity God desires! See yourself walking the streets, walking the great cities of America, dispensing the violet flame as Christ would do. See yourself in garments of purple and violet and pink! See yourself saturated as a pillar of violet fire!

We must have this cleansing! We must have it, for this is the open door, the opportunity for the clearing of those records which must not be a part of the new foundation of the new age....

Understand that freedom must move. Freedom must be known throughout the land and the joy of freedom must dispel every weight and burden....

EL MORYA, Lord of the First Ray, Chief of the Darjeeling Council of the Great White Brotherhood

The Fount of Forgiveness for the Removal of Every Transgression of the Law—the Transmutation of Karma

... Rejoice and be glad! Let the joy of God be upon thee, for he hath established in thy midst the fount of light, the fount of forgiveness. And the violet transmuting flame surely is the gift, surely is the gift of the Holy Spirit for the removal of every transgression of the law.

Why, people of light, you ought to be among all people the most joyous and the most gifted, the most grateful of all; for God has vouchsafed to you the secrets of the seventh ray—even the mystery of transmutation whereby ye know that that which is placed in the flame of the fire of the heart on this day need never appear again.

Therefore rejoice, for this indeed is more than the forgiveness of sin; it is the transmutation of karma. And therefore such a holy gift ought to be met with that wondrous joy that overflows the boundaries of the stream of identity as bubbling brooks inundating life, going forth with the living proof that the God of Israel does keep his promises unto thee and that this is the fulfillment in the latter days of the vision of Daniel and of the hope of Isaiah and truly of the promise unto Isaiah and Jeremiah of the coming of the One, the coming of the God Immanuel....

You wait upon the LORD, and we wait upon the soul's perfect formation of the gift of love unto God. It is the gift of flowing forgiveness, of violet-flame freedom and joy, of happiness, of transcendent, buoyant resilience that looks into the very teeth of error and declares:

You have no power over me, for I am in Zadkiel's heart! And with a thrust and a roll and a ho! ho! ho! I am here to start anew a victory spiral I once knew in the very heart of God when he thrust me forth to challenge those fallen ones....

When you have the violet flame, you have the panacea, you have the universal solvent, and you have the fountain of youth! Thus, alchemists and those on the quest of life have sought these three and all are given unto thee....

O precious hearts, no sin so ancient is so intense that it cannot be removed by the violet flame, the immensity of the mind of God....

Drink ye the cup and rejoice. Rejoice, people of God. Rejoice, I say, and be grateful for the gift, O the gift of the violet flame.

Give the Violet Flame Fifteen Minutes a Day and It Shall Be Multiplied Ten Times

... If in all reverence, with inner attunement, a sense of yourself in your Christ Self as priest or priestess of the sacred fire, if with all your heart and deep within your heart you will take, then, fifteen minutes each day to give profound and loving invocations to the violet flame in my name (and please remember to use my name, for I am the one from whose causal body this dispensation comes), then we will take that offering, measure for measure as it is devoted, as it is profound and sincere, the very weight of its power and light. Therefore, by the quality of it, quality for quality, it shall be multiplied in your life ten times!...

In this violet flame that you give ... you are welcome to give more than the fifteen minutes, but the dispensation can only start once you have given the fifteen....

[Note: When counting your fifteen minutes of violet-flame decrees, only include the amount of time you give the body of a decree continuously. Do not include preambles, closings or personal prayer inserts in your count. Likewise, songs and hymns, although necessary interludes of devotion in your decree sessions, should not be counted in the fifteen minutes, which Omri-Tas has specifically defined as "profound and loving invocations to the violet flame." Omri-Tas uses the term "invocation" to include not only violet-flame invocations but also violet-flame prayers, decrees, mantras, chants, fiats, affirmations and calls.]

THE ASCENDED MASTER JESUS CHRIST, Lord and Saviour, World Teacher, Avatar of the Piscean Age

Visualize the Action of the Seventh Ray Charged with the Holy Blue for Protection

... I would give you the visualization ... of the alchemy of the physical body and a thoughtform for your visualization with the tube of light. It is the power of the flame that has been called the deep purple. It is the action of the seventh ray charged with the holy blue. That "purple" fire, beloved ones, may be visualized as a cylinder of purple within the tube of light, with the more pink violet flame still burning in the very center....

This [purple-blue crystal on the altar] is the color that we visualize for the transformation of the earth element and the earth body and the physical body you wear. Its visualization affords a great protection.

In fact, I, Jesus, desire you to see yourself as a pillar of bluish purple fire moving through the earth as a crystal cylinder that cannot be violated or penetrated—all inside the tube of light. I desire you to have a very physical awareness of this color, to recall it to the mind's eye. And therefore, let its light appear through a greater display of that inner quality....

The physical body corresponds to the violet flame. The violet flame, in all of its qualifications and beauty in gradations from pink to blue, delivers to you the means to implement your service and provides in your hand a mighty gift for healing through transmutation....

THE ASCENDED MASTER JESUS CHRIST

Prophecy Shows You What Could Take Place If You Do Not Intercede by Free Will and the Violet Flame

... The grace and the mercy of the Law and of all heavenly hosts and of the Father has been the gift of the Holy Spirit, the gift of the violet flame whereby through your invocation of that violet flame, intensely, daily, that karma descending at a personal and a planetary level may indeed be transmuted, or balanced. This process is by the all-consuming sacred fire of God through the Person of the Holy Spirit....

Do not fall prey to a sense of predestination or of psychic prognostication wherein you believe all that must happen will happen and there is nothing that you can do to change it. You have not been taught the true meaning of prophecy, which is to show you upon the screen of life what could take place if you do not intercede.

Blessed hearts, what you see in the mind's eye can be canceled out by your decision and your free will. You do not need to fulfill any thought, feeling or idea that is negative. But, beloved, when you see the projection upon the world screen of coming events, which can easily be calculated by the signs of the times, this, then, must be transmuted because you are seeing a prophecy of karma returning that will become physical unless it is transmuted because of the decisions and free will of the people who have decreed it, who have willed it.

Therefore, take the violet flame; invoke it. Call to me and all saints of heaven and all powers of angels to intercede, that the sacred fire might consume planetary karma and Archangel Michael and his legions do battle and bind the fallen angels and evil spirits which would possess, destroy and defile even the souls who are on the path of overcoming....

The Violet Flame Is a Physical Flame!

... The violet flame is a physical flame! And what do I mean when I say this? I say the violet flame is closest in vibratory action of all of the rays to this earth substance, to these chemical elements and compounds, to all that you see in matter. And therefore, the violet flame can combine with any molecule or molecular structure, any particle of matter known or unknown, and any wave or particle of light, electrons or electricity.

Thus, the violet flame is the supreme antidote for food poisoning, chemical waste, toxins, pollution of drugs in the body. The violet flame is an elixir that you drink and imbibe like water, like the purest juice of the fruit of the harvest of the elementals' consciousness. The violet flame is the supreme antidote for physical problems. Wherever chelas gather to give the violet flame, there you notice immediately an improvement in physical conditions!...

Whether organic or inorganic matter, there is a disintegration spiral that works in the buildings, in the land, in the sea and in the bodies which can best be counteracted by the violet flame....

The violet flame turns around the downward spiral of the chakras and the negative energy. It is forever the power of conversion—and conversion means "to turn around"! The violet flame is the buoyant joy of the Holy Ghost that turns around spirits and minds and souls and emotions!...

Messenger's Comment:

The violet flame is indeed the missing ingredient in healing. It will work for you but you have to work with it! You cannot ignore the physical causes of physical conditions in your body. You need to be sensible about following the basic laws of health, diet, and wholesome living.

Consult your doctor and take the remedies that are specific for your problem. Medical science has much to offer and the ascended masters expect you to avail yourself of its benefits. Of course, preventive medicine is the best medicine, but if surgery is necessary, then have it. The violet flame is an adjunct to sound scientific measures. It is not a substitute for them but should be applied as a spiritual unguent along with them.

The karma behind disease may be no more than many years of ignoring the rules of body chemistry. The law is just and impartial in all levels of being—so solve chemistry problems with chemistry and make your body the very best servant it can be for the LORD.

Violet Flame from Your Heart Can Uplift Souls All over the World

... I should bring to you in this hour a report as to the results of the use of my violet flame cassettes by one and by the many.

Blessed ones, first and foremost the greatest good has come to the individual supplicant himself. Therefore, to those who have so loved this ritual there has been an increase of transmutation. And I have seen to it, as you count me as your master and friend, that that violet flame that you have invoked has been directed into the most resistant and recalcitrant pockets of your own subconscious, especially into those conditions which you have been the most desirous to have removed.

Therefore, in some of you a hearty amount of karma has been balanced, in others hardness of heart has truly melted around the heart chakra. There has come a new love and a new softening, a new compassion, a new sensitivity to life, a new freedom and a new joy in pursuing that freedom.

There has come about a holiness as you have contacted through my flame the priesthood of the Order of Melchizedek. There has come about a melting and a dissolving of certain momentums of ignorance and mental density and a turning toward a dietary path more conducive to your own God-mastery.

The violet flame has assisted in relationships within families. It has served to liberate some to balance old karmas and old hurts and to set individuals on their courses according to their vibration....

It is impossible to enumerate exhaustively all of the benefits of the violet flame but there is indeed an alchemy that does take place within the personality. The violet flame goes after the schisms that cause psychological problems that go back to early childhood and previous incarnations and that have established such deep grooves within the consciousness that in fact they have been difficult to shake lifetime after lifetime.

The violet flame is a considerate flame. It is a loving flame. It is a grateful flame. It is a flame that has its own momentum of self-luminous, intelligent substance, containing and embracing the very knowledge of alchemy itself. It may be difficult to understand how a flame can have consciousness, but remember, a flame is the manifestation of God. A flame is the manifestation of all who have ever served it, even as a mantra embodies the momentum of all who have ever given it....

Blessed ones, I can only say that if you could see what inner progress you have made, you would not cease in the giving of that violet flame decree tape as often as possible—not necessarily all at once, but if you make the effort, you can endow those segments of time that come to you in the day with your decree momentum on that flame. And therefore, as you should come to understand, whatever time of day you invoke a flame or perform a service it does tie into your astrological clock and karma made at that very same hour throughout history....

In the etheric retreats where you study..., you are shown the filigree thread of light that emits from a heart chakra filled with mercy's love. And some of you have seen where there have been a number of threads so great as to not even be possible of counting, and these threads of violet flame, almost as a gossamer veil, have gone directly to the hearts of lifestreams all over the planet.

And you have observed these threads, almost as fine as hair, being as vessels, even as veins within the body, carrying a continual flow of violet flame that has enabled individuals all over the world to rise up, to accomplish things they have not accomplished in many lifetimes, to experience hope and healing and a new desire to find God, to be free and to stand for the cause of freedom....

Understand, then, that in so ministering with the violet flame and in being diligent in not wasting the moments of the clock, you can in fifteen minutes a day have me with you; and in my Presence with you, you can deliver a momentum of violet flame to many souls upon the planet....

The Outline of a Maltese Cross Wherever Two or Three Gather in Saint Germain's Name

... Remember the hour when I did come with the announcement of the mighty Maltese-cross formation of 144,000 priests of the Order of Melchizedek and this for a mighty purpose, beloved—truly for a restoration, truly for a balancing of karma and truly for the dealing with ancient records not of the light upon this place....

I did tell you on that date that this was for the aversion of cataclysm, and I tell you now also that it might avert nuclear war. I can tell you that the violet flame must be invoked....

Now, beloved, I cannot increase, but this one last dispensation I might give to you concerning this. And it is wherever two or three gather in my name in any city or home upon the planet, there shall be formed—and it is now being formed by my angels of light—the outline of a Maltese cross. It is an outline only, beloved. It is an outline that can be occupied by other priests of the Order of Melchizedek and violet-flame angels of the Order of Zadkiel.

It is an outline whereby, if you will call daily to the violet flame—not missing a day, beloved—if you will give your invocations, if you will use the tapes provided by the messenger, therefore uniting your voices with many who have gathered in the Inner Retreat, therefore drawing that Inner Retreat to your place—you will know that one by one priests of the sacred fire of the seventh ray will come forth to fill in the outline of the Maltese cross. And if there be no violet-flame invocations, then there shall be a disintegration of the outline....

Do not sit on the sidelines and treat this decade as a spectator sport, beloved. Unless you engage not only in this game of life but also in this Armageddon of the forces of light and darkness, there will not be a victory in this age.... Let the violet flame go forth! Let its sound ring!...

Know, then, that the physical word spoken is the call that must be heard and ring true in each twenty-four-hour cycle. I implore you to heed me so that in the hour of intended victory you shall have it and not say to me, "Why did we not listen to you, Saint Germain? Why did we not listen?"

It is imperative, as nothing else you have ever heard, that you devote yourselves even for an hour or several hours a day to the action of the violet flame. I must have cups of light in concentration to bring to the Lords of Karma that I might have renewed and continuing dispensations for you....

I remind you that certain karma of ancient Lemuria is upon most of the students who call themselves the avant-garde of the new age, who pursue a path that is above and apart from the orthodox traditions of the world's major religions.

Yes, beloved, because you have had part in some of the negative karma of Lemuria, one and all wherever you live upon earth, you may contribute to the success of this violet-flame Maltese cross of 144,000 priests of the Order of Melchizedek in this [Portland, Oregon,] area....

I introduce you to Omri-Tas, the Ruler of the Violet Planet, whose evolutions have served the violet flame for aeons. Imagine that world, beloved, where the menial chores of life and tasks are all performed by the violet-flame angels and the violet-flame elementals. And therefore, all pursue the path of becoming alchemists of the Spirit and know no sense of drudgery but may concentrate on the path of adeptship and of spreading peace to other planetary homes....

OMRI-TAS, Ruler of the Violet Planet

A Violet-flame Sea of Light "An Unprecedented Dispensation"

... Beloved ones, I address you this evening to give to you a remembrance of a period upon your planetary home when we approached the crisis that you are approaching. It was in that hour (when some of you were even a part of our evolutions) that the then lightbearers of our system did rally to our call.

Circumstances were similar to those you now have upon this earth, with fallen angels moving among the people and leading them astray, pursuing their divide-and-conquer tactics, blurring the issues, deceiving the elect of God.

There was a rallying by the then representative of the Divine Mother, who moved in the midst of our people. And that one did appeal to their hearts, and the message was transmitted round that planet until all servants of God were galvanized, even by the power of her heart and the Great Central Sun Magnet. They were quickened, almost as though they were suddenly in another dimension, and they awakened to the urgency of the hour!

Beloved, they responded before even greater odds than you face today. They turned the tide with the violet flame. They heard the call to give their invocations at altars around that planet....

Blessed ones, we went on into a golden age because of the few who responded, and today that planet is sustained in that golden age because the people have not lost the memory of that which was almost a planetary holocaust....

I would remind you that in the battles of the history of earth, the few have stood for the many, have rallied and have won a victory for those who yet slept. And when they awakened they found themselves in a world that was safe and secure....

I deposit in the heart of the earth a dispensation immense of concentrated violet flame. It is an intercession of the quality of mercy. It is an intercession afforded to all those who serve the light. And through your Holy Christ Self it shall be meted out as an unguent, as an elixir.

May you drink it in your hours of need and in your hours of strength and keep it replenished by new calls to the violet flame. It is a giant violet-flame reservoir, as a sea of light pulsating....

I, Omri-Tas, continue to multiply the power of your decrees. Let us see what great victory can come out of the lightbearers stationed on planet Earth!...

Visualization for Violet-Flame Decrees

The Messenger Elizabeth Clare Prophet

... Pour yourself into your decrees. For they give back to you your light, energy and consciousness multiplied many times over by the Word.

Visualize yourself surrounded by the violet flame as you see it depicted in the lower figure of the Chart of Your Divine Self. See the painting come alive as though you were looking at an animated Disney film. See the violet flame rising, pulsating in endless shades and gradations of purple-pink with violet hue and electric blue.

By and by as we decree, the violet flame, rising up from beneath our feet in answer to our call, begins to rotate. As the decree momentum builds, the pulsation intensifies and the flame begins to spin.

See yourself enveloped in the violet flame. See the violet flame passing up through your physical body, caressing the body internally and externally, healing the organs, transmuting the causes of disease within those organs,

It is good to keep an anatomy book handy so you can visualize the violet flame surrounding and penetrating each organ in your body. This is especially helpful when you are praying for yourself or others in the case of accidents, surgery and terminal illnesses. Make a specific call to God to focus the violet flame in the area of need and then hold a strong visualization of the violet flame penetrating there.

The violet flame heals the four lower bodies. Therefore see it manifesting in the brain and also in the faculties of memory, cogitation, and intelligence. See it saturating the emotions, the feelings, the desire body. See it flushing out the etheric memory, healing scars of old hurts and painful records that replay through the mind and emotions until they are transmuted....

Now visualize the globe of the world with the violet flame surrounding it just as you have visualized the violet flame pulsating up through your four lower bodies.

Fix your attention on the continents, the nations, the capitals, the cities, the great mountain ranges, the seas. See the violet flame pulsating from beneath, starting at the South Pole then sweeping up, enveloping the earth and reaching the North Pole. Now see it penetrate deeper and deeper into the strata of the earth.

Visualize a blazing violet-flame sun in the center of earth, its flames leaping out in all directions to saturate the inner planes of earth. Then see the outer flame meeting the inner sun, making the entire planet a violet-flame sphere before your very eyes.

As you invoke the violet flame and sustain it where you are, where God is the I AM THAT I AM, you make yourself a counterpoint to the violet-flame action you have called forth for planet Earth.

Visualize a figure eight, yourself at one end and the earth at the other. See the violet flame tracing this figure eight, transmuting as it travels in, through, and around yourself and the planet with the speed of light.

Visualize the Lord Jesus Christ as the World Saviour, standing at the nexus of the figure eight, with world transmutation taking place through his sacred heart. Sustain this visualization as you give the "Fiat for Freedom's Holy Light" for the freedom of yourself and planet Earth and for the healing of yourself and planet Earth....

As you give the "Fiat for Freedom's Holy Light," allow the Great White Brotherhood and your mighty I AM Presence to place before your third eye perpetual visions of the images that are recorded in your memory body. These would include all the pictures and films and photographs you have ever seen and scenes of all the places you have ever been. Visualize yourself standing in those places with your hands extended, releasing the cosmic light and the violet flame through your hands and your chakras....

My visualization with the decree "I AM the Violet Flame" is to see the violet-flame sea of light enveloping the entire planet. I like to sing this decree to the melody of "Santa Lucia" because it evokes the action of the sea....

Because you are in earnest about your decrees and visualizations, you should have direct, accurate and up-to-the-minute information. Therefore, it is important to watch the news before your evening decree session so you will have an immediate eye picture.

Frame by frame it goes into the mind and into the subconscious. You don't necessarily remember all the details but you have the freshest reading of the aura of the planet in the place where the camera is focusing. And that is exactly what you need in order to decree effectively for the healing of conditions that make the headlines....

Each time you say, "I AM the violet flame," you should practice developing the speed of the mind in visualization. See the ray of light shooting down the cosmic corridor that is your crystal cord all the way from the Great Central Sun, flashing through your body, through the seven chakras, focused now, for instance, on all of the world's children.

You can visualize them before you, starting with the children of your own neighborhood and moving out to the children that are deprived all over America and the world. Using your globe as a reference point, you can focus on each nation and continent, systematically directing the light into the specific needs of those children....

The decree "More Violet Fire" is known for its rhythm and for the spiraling action of the violet flame that follows the rhythm....

When you recite the line "Bring to pass each blessing for which I call upon the Holy Christ Self of each and all," see in your mind's eye a huge crowd of people. First see the figure of Jesus Christ and the Holy Christ Self descending over one person. Hold that picture strong. Focus the lens of your inner eye on it; when you've got it good and clear, multiply it and see it happening a million times!

Visualize the bleachers in Yankee Stadium filled for the World Series. See the Presence of Jesus Christ and the Holy

You can add to your mental picture as many thought-forms as you can hold steady. You can visualize the tube of light with the violet flame in the center around yourself and every single person in the stadium. You can visualize the I AM Presence above the entire crowd. You can see the blessings flowing from your seven chakras, from your hands.

As you master the words of the decree and then memorize them, you can close your eyes and see, with the full power of seeing that God gave you in the third eye, any blessing you want to see your violet-flame decrees accomplish....

Create a Sacred Space and Make a Spiritual Connection Each Morning

by Elizabeth Clare Prophet

We have access to vast spiritual reserves that can guide us daily in practical ways, but we have to make the time to tap into those wellsprings of wisdom.

Many people find that creating a sacred space helps them make this connection. You can do this simply and easily by setting up your personal altar in your home, even if it's in a corner of the bedroom.

You can adorn this altar with whatever inspires you and helps you make that connection with God and with your Higher Self. You can place candles, flowers or plants on the altar. You can add pictures or statues of saints or masters as well as photographs of those for whom you regularly pray. Beautiful crystals and a crystal bowl or goblet can serve as chalices to focus God's light in your home. Above your altar or on it, you can place the Chart of Your Divine Self to help you attune with the presence of God within.

Your altar is the place you go to "alter," or transform. When I take time first thing in the morning to connect with God through heartfelt prayer, I find that my day is transformed. It goes much more smoothly. I don't get caught up in needless distractions and emergencies that pull me away from my goals.

Prayer, in reality, is a conversation. We don't just reach out to God; God reaches out to us as well with guidance, comfort, direction, and help. Making a spiritual connection through prayer is what Teresa of Avila called "an intimate sharing between friends." Friends can pour out their hearts to each other without holding back, sharing their joys and their sorrows. We can do the same with God in prayer. Teresa also counsels that just as "family ties and friendship are lost through a lack of communication," our relationship with God can be lost if we don't pray.

Your morning conversation with God doesn't have to take long. You can sit or stand before your altar, close your eyes, take some deep breaths, and enter into the sacred space within your heart—the secret chamber where your divine spark abides.

In your prayers, name the exact conditions you want the angels to take care of in your personal life, your community, and the world, such as crime, corruption, poverty, child abuse, economic problems, pollution. The more specific your prayers are, the more specific the results will be.

When you pray for yourself or someone in need, you can also maximize your prayer by including all those with a like need. For instance, when praying for a friend with AIDS, you can also pray for "all those who are suffering from AIDS or any other life-threatening disease."

Whatever prayers and meditations you give during your morning ritual, it's a good idea to begin by calling for spiritual protection for yourself and your loved ones.

I recommend two simple prayers for protection—the "Tube of Light" and "Traveling Protection."

As you give the "Tube of Light" affirmation, a cylinder of white light will descend from Spirit in answer to your call. The white light can help you stay centered and at peace. It guards you from negative energies that may be directed at you through someone's anger, condemnation, hatred, or jealousy. When you are unprotected, those aggressive energies can make you irritable or depressed. They can even cause you to have accidents.

The white light can also protect you from the pull of the mass consciousness. When we feel exhausted after a trip into the city or after we go shopping at a mall, it's often because our physical and spiritual reserves have literally been drained.

It's best to give the "Tube of Light" affirmation each morning before the hustle and bustle of the day begins. If throughout the day you feel de-energized, depleted, or vulnerable, withdraw for a few minutes and repeat this prayer.

To enhance your morning ritual of protection, you can also give "Traveling Protection" or other prayers to Archangel Michael. He is the most revered of angels in several of the world's religious traditions, including Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. In one of the Dead Sea Scrolls, Michael is the "mighty, ministering angel" through whom God promises to "send perpetual help" to the sons of light.

As you experiment with the techniques on the following pages, remember that visualization can enhance the benefits of your prayers. That's because whatever you put your attention on, you are "plugging into" and charging with energy. The image we hold in our mind's eye is like a blueprint, and our attention is the magnet that attracts the creative energies of Spirit to fill it in. "We are what we think," taught Gautama Buddha, "having become what we thought."

Therefore when you pray, you can visualize the exact outcome you are praying for as if it were already taking place in the present. See it as if it were happening on a movie screen in front of you. If you don't have a specific outcome in mind, then concentrate on the words of the prayer and see the action they describe taking place before you.

Spiritual Exercises

Begin each day by establishing a protective light around yourself and loved ones by giving the "Tube of Light" affirmation three times.

Visualization:

As you recite this affirmation, see yourself as depicted in the Chart of Your Divine Self. Your Higher Self is above you. Above your Higher Self is your I AM Presence, the presence of God with you.

See and feel a waterfall of dazzling white light, brighter than the sun shining on new-fallen snow, tumbling down from your I AM Presence to envelop you. See it coalescing to form an impenetrable wall of light.

Inside that scintillating aura of white light, see yourself surrounded with the violet flame of the Holy Spirit, a powerful high-frequency spiritual energy that transforms negativity (your own or another's) into positive and loving energy. From time to time throughout the day, reinforce this spiritual protection by repeating the prayer and visualizing yourself enfolded by the tube of light.

Tube of Light

Beloved I AM Presence bright,
Round me seal your tube of light
From ascended master flame
Called forth now in God's own name.
Let it keep my temple free
From all discord sent to me.

I AM calling forth violet fire
To blaze and transmute all desire,
Keeping on in freedom's name
Till I AM one with the violet flame.

Fortify yourself with calls to Archangel Michael for spiritual strength and protection. Give the following "Traveling Protection" prayer three times or as many times as you wish. If you don't have time to say this prayer in the morning (either at your altar or while you're getting ready for the day), you can recite it aloud as you drive to work, give it quietly as you walk to your destination, or say it silently as you ride the bus or subway.

Visualization:

Visualize Archangel Michael as a majestic angel, arrayed in shining armor and wearing a cape of brilliant sapphire blue (the color of protection). See him placing his magnificent presence around you, your family, your friends, and all those for whom you are praying.

Traveling Protection

Lord* Michael before,
Lord Michael behind,
Lord Michael to the right,
Lord Michael, Lord Michael wherever I go!

I AM his love protecting here!
I AM his love protecting here!
I AM his love protecting here!

*Lord is used in this prayer as a term of honor, denoting that Archangel Michael carries the power and presence of God.

[1] The Great White Brotherhood is a spiritual fraternity of ascended masters, archangels, and other advanced spiritual beings. The term "white" refers not to race but to the aura of white light surrounding these immortals. The Great White Brotherhood works with earnest seekers of every race, religion, and walk of life to assist humanity. The Brotherhood also includes certain unascended disciples of the ascended masters.

[2] Acts 1:9. The ascended masters have revealed in later years that Jesus did not ascend at the conclusion of his Palestinian ministry. After his crucifixion and resurrection he journeyed to Kashmir and at the age of eighty-one took his ascension from the etheric retreat of Shamballa. The messenger has explained that Jesus removed himself from Palestine in the ceremony on Bethany's hill. He left Palestine in secret so that "he would no longer be there, could no longer be sought after, looked to.... He had fulfilled his mission in Palestine." The hope of the civil rights movement was to see America live up to her creed that all men are created equal.

The black power movement was born out of concern and frustration on the part of certain factions within the black community that equal access to education and economic opportunity as well as the end of segregation was coming much too slowly, if at all. Certain among these factions then sought to adopt a more radical and sometimes violent means to achieve their objectives.

Chapter 12 • "Command Ye Me!"

[101] Isa. 45:5.

[102] Isa. 45:11. In the King James Version, Isaiah 45:11 is translated as an imperative (a command). More recent translations of the Old Testament have translated it to read as a question: "Will you question me about my children, or command me concerning the work of my hands?" (Revised Standard Version) This approach implies that God is challenging those who dare to question his actions.

The original Hebrew of Isa. 45:11 is unclear; therefore translators cannot be certain whether Isa. 45:11 was originally written as a command or a question. Although most modern scholars acknowledge that either translation is possible, they have translated it in the form of a question because they believe it better fits the context of the verses before and after it.

Earlier scholars and some modern scholars disagree with this perspective. For instance, Edward Young, commenting on Isa. 45:11 in The New International Commentary on the Old Testament, says: "With this verse the Lord begins

His reply. The language is appropriately stately and majestic. The nation is reminded that the Speaker is the Holy One in Israel and also Israel's Former [i.e., Creator]; hence they are in no position to complain about what He does. God does not wish to keep Israel in the dark respecting the things to come, but commands the nation to ask Him concerning these things, for He alone can give information about them. He not merely grants Israel permission to ask but commands them so to do." (The Book of Isaiah [Grand Rapids, Michigan: Wm. B. Eerdmans Publishing Co., 1972], 3:205.)

The widely respected eighteenth-century biblical commentator Matthew Henry says of Isa. 45:11: "The people of God in captivity, who reconciled themselves to the will of God in their affliction and were content to wait his time for their deliverance, are here assured that they should not wait in vain.

"They are invited to enquire concerning the issue of their troubles, v. 11, The Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, though he does not allow them to strive with him, yet encourages them (1) to consult his word: 'Ask of me things to come; have recourse to the prophets and their prophecies, and see what they say concerning these things. Ask the watchmen, What of the night? Ask them, How long?' Things to come, as far as they are revealed, belong to us and to our children, and we must not be strangers to them. (2) To seek unto him by prayer: 'Concerning my sons and concerning the works of my hands, which, as becomes them, submit to the will of their Father, the will of their potter, command you me, not by way of prescription, but by way of petition. Be earnest in your requests, and confident in your expectations, as far as both are guided by and grounded upon the promise.' We may not strive with our Maker by passionate complaints, but we may wrestle with him by faithful and fervent prayer.... See the power of prayer, and its prevalency with God: Thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am [Isa. 58:9]; what would you that I should do unto you?"

Some individuals have sought to discredit the Science of the Spoken Word by disputing the translation of Isaiah 45:11 as a command. Because the original Hebrew is obscure, there is no way to verify the author's original intent. We believe that modern translators lean toward the interrogative form because they do not have the understanding that God has given us the authority to command his light, energy and consciousness to come into form.
